PART I — PROSPECTUS SUMMARY

VISA NUMBER 16-262 DATED JUNE 17, 2016 OF THE AMF

Summaries are made up of disclosure requirements known as “Elements.” These Elements are numbered in Sections A – E (A.1 – E.7).

This summary contains all the Elements required to be included in a summary for this type of securities and Issuer. Because some Elements are not required to be addressed, there may be gaps in the numbering sequence of the Elements.

Even though an Element may be required to be inserted in the summary because of the type of securities and Issuer, it is possible that no relevant information can be given regarding the Element. In this case a short description of the Element is included in the summary with the mention of “not applicable.”

SECTION A — INTRODUCTION AND WARNINGS

A.1	Warning to the reader	This summary should be read as an introduction to the prospectus. Any decision to invest in the securities should be based on consideration of the prospectus as a whole by the investor. Where a claim relating to the information contained in a prospectus is brought before a court, the plaintiff investor might, under the national legislation of the Member States of the European Union or States party to the EEA Agreement, have to bear the costs of translating the prospectus before the legal proceedings are initiated. Civil liability attaches to those persons who have presented the summary including any translation thereof, but only if the summary is misleading, inaccurate or inconsistent when read together with the other parts of the prospectus or it does not provide, when read together with the other parts of the prospectus, key information in order to aid investors when considering whether to invest in such securities.
A.2	Consent to use of the prospectus	Not applicable. There is no subsequent resale or final placement of securities by financial intermediaries.

SECTION B — ISSUER

B.1	Legal and commercial name of the issuer	Intel Corporation (“Intel” or the “Company”).
B.2	Domicile and legal form of Intel, the legislation under which it operates and its country of incorporation	Intel's principal offices are located at 2200 Mission College Boulevard, Santa Clara, California 95054, U.S.A. The Company is a corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware, U.S.A.

B.3

Description of the nature of Intel's current operations and its principal activities

Intel is a leader in the design and manufacturing of advanced integrated digital technology platforms. A platform consists of a microprocessor and chipset, and may be enhanced by additional hardware, software, and services. Intel sells these platforms primarily to original equipment manufacturers ("OEMs"), original design manufacturers ("ODMs"), and industrial and communications equipment manufacturers in the computing and communications industries. Its platforms are used across the compute continuum, in notebooks (including Ultrabook™ devices), 2 in 1 systems, desktops, servers, tablets, phones, and the Internet of Things (including wearables, retail devices, and manufacturing devices). Intel also develops and sells software and services primarily focused on security and technology integration.

Net revenue for the three years ended December 26, 2015, December 27, 2014, and December 28, 2013, was as follows:

Years Ended (In Millions)	Dec 26 2015	Dec 27, 2014	Dec 28, 2013
Net revenue
Client Computing Group ("CCG")	$ 32,219	$ 34,872	$ 34,645
Data Center Group ("DCG")	15,977	14,387	12,163

All other	2,694	2,253	1,911
Total net revenue	$ 55,355	$ 55,870	$ 52,708

During the first quarter of 2016, Intel revised the presentation of its financial results to reflect changes to certain operating segments (the "New Organizational Structure"). Intel formed the Programmable Solutions Group ("PSG") as a result of its acquisition of Altera Corporation ("Altera"). Additionally, Intel formed the New Technology Group ("NTG"), which includes products designed for wearables, cameras, and other market segments (including drones), and determined SSG is no longer an operating segment. Finally, Intel is electing to separately disclose the operating results of Non-Volatile Memory Solutions Group ("NSG"), Intel Security Group ("ISecG"), and PSG.

Intel's operating segments in effect as of April 2, 2016 include:

- CCG. Includes platforms designed for notebooks (including Ultrabook™ devices), 2 in 1 systems, desktops (including all-in-ones and high-end enthusiast PCs), tablets, phones, wireless and wired connectivity products, and mobile communication components.
- DCG. Includes platforms designed for the enterprise, cloud, communications infrastructure, and technical computing segments.
- IOTG. Includes platforms designed for Internet of Things market segments, including retail, transportation, industrial, and buildings and home use, along with a broad range of other market segments.
- NSG. Includes NAND flash memory products primarily used in solid-state drives.
- /ISecG. Includes security software products designed to deliver

		innovative solutions that secure computers, mobile devices, and networks around the world from the latest malware and emerging online threats. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • PSG. Includes programmable semiconductors (primary field-programmable gate array) and related products for a broad range of market segments, including communications, networking and storage, industrial, military, and automotive. • All Other. The “all other” category includes revenue, expenses, and charges such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - results of operations from Intel's NTG; - amounts included within restructuring and asset impairment charges; - a portion of profit-dependent compensation and other expenses not allocated to the operating segments; - divested businesses for which discrete operating results are not regularly reviewed by Intel's Chief Operating Decision Maker; - results of operations of start-up businesses that support Intel's initiatives, including Intel's foundry business; and - acquisition-related costs, including amortization and any impairment of acquisition-related intangibles and goodwill. Net revenue for the three months ended April 2, 2016 and March 28, 2015 was as follows: <table> <tr> <th rowspan="2">(In Millions)</th><th colspan="2">Three Months Ended</th></tr> <tr> <th>Apr 2, 2016</th><th>Mar 28, 2015</th></tr> <tr> <td>Net revenue</td><td></td><td></td></tr> <tr> <td>CCG</td><td>$ 7,549</td><td>$ 7,420</td></tr> <tr> <td>DCG</td><td>3,999</td><td>3,681</td></tr> <tr> <td>IOTG</td><td>651</td><td>533</td></tr> <tr> <td>NSG</td><td>557</td><td>592</td></tr> <tr> <td>ISecG</td><td>537</td><td>479</td></tr> <tr> <td>PSG</td><td>359</td><td>—</td></tr> <tr> <td>All other</td><td>50</td><td>76</td></tr> <tr> <td>Total net revenue</td><td>$ 13,702</td><td>$ 12,781</td></tr> </table> All prior-period amounts have been retrospectively adjusted to reflect the way Intel internally manages and monitors segment performance starting in fiscal year 2016 and include other minor reorganizations.	(In Millions)	Three Months Ended		Apr 2, 2016	Mar 28, 2015	Net revenue			CCG	$ 7,549	$ 7,420	DCG	3,999	3,681	IOTG	651	533	NSG	557	592	ISecG	537	479	PSG	359	—	All other	50	76	Total net revenue	$ 13,702	$ 12,781

B.4a	Recent trends	On April 19, 2016, Intel reported, on a Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP") basis, first-quarter net revenue of $13.7 billion, operating income of $2.6 billion, net income of $2.0 billion and diluted earnings per common share of 42 cents. Intel generated approximately $4.0 billion in cash from operations, paid dividends of $1.2 billion, and used $793 million to repurchase 27 million shares of its common stock, par value $0.001 per share ("Shares"). On May 2, 2016, Intel filed with the SEC its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended April 2, 2016 ("Intel's Form 10-Q"), in which the cash from operations were adjusted to amount $4.1 billion. On the same day, Intel announced a Chief Financial Officer ("CFO") succession plan. The current CFO, Stacy J. Smith, will transition to a new role at the Company, leading sales, manufacturing and operations once his successor is in place. The Company is beginning a formal search process for a new CFO that will assess both internal and external candidates. Mr. Smith will remain firmly focused on his CFO role and duties throughout the search and transition process. On the same day, subsequent to the end of first quarter of 2016, Intel announced the 2016 Restructuring Program, designed to align its operations with evolving business needs and improve efficiencies. Under this program, Intel intends to close certain facilities and reduce up to twelve thousand positions globally. Accordingly, Intel expects to incur charges of approximately $1.2 billion in the second quarter of 2016. The actions associated with this program are expected to be fully completed by the second quarter of 2017. On May 19, 2016, subsequent to the end of the first quarter of 2016, Intel issued $500 million aggregate principal amount of 1.700% Senior Notes due 2021 (the "2021 Notes"), $1.00 billion aggregate principal amount of 2.600% Senior Notes due 2026 (the "2026 Notes") and $1.25 billion aggregate principal amount of 4.100% Senior Notes due 2046 (the "2046 Notes" and, together with the 2021 Notes and the 2026 Notes, the "Notes"). The aggregate principal amount of the Notes is $2.75 billion, and the net proceeds from the offering are approximately $2.74 billion, before expenses and before deducting underwriting discounts.
B.5	Organizational structure	Intel is the head of the Intel group. Intel holds, directly or indirectly, 100% of the capital and voting rights of each of its subsidiaries (except for directors' qualifying shares). As of December 26, 2015, Intel had 34 significant subsidiaries. As of April 2, 2016, Intel owns a 49% interest in IM Flash Technologies, LLC ("IMFT"), a 17% ownership interest in Cloudera, Inc. ("Cloudera") and a minority stake of approximately 20% of Beijing UniSpreadtrum Technology Ltd. During the first three months of 2016, Intel gained control of Care Innovations LLC, its joint venture with General Electric Company. Please also see the preceding discussion related to the New Organizational Structure.

B.6	Interests in Intel's capital or voting rights	Not applicable. Pursuant to its Q&A, ESMA considers that Item 18 of Annex I of the Prospectus Regulation is generally not pertinent for offers of shares to employees and can thus be omitted from the prospectus in accordance with Article 23.4 of the Prospectus Regulation.
B.7	Financial information concerning Intel for the fiscal years ended December 26, 2015, December 27, 2014 and December 28, 2013, and for the quarters ended April 2, 2016 and March 28, 2015

The selected consolidated financial data of Intel set out in this prospectus have been prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP and are derived from Intel's audited consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 26, 2015, December 27, 2014 and December 28, 2013, and from Intel's unaudited consolidated condensed financial statements for the quarters ended April 2, 2016 and March 28, 2015.

- (1) In the first quarter of 2016, Intel elected to early adopt an amended U.S. accounting standard requiring that Intel classify all deferred tax assets and liabilities as non-current on the consolidated balance sheet instead of separating deferred taxes into current and non-current. The amended standard was adopted on a retrospective basis and resulting in a reduction of Intel's total assets for all periods presented.

During the fourth quarter of 2015, the closing stock price conversion right condition of the 2009 debentures continues to be met and the debentures will be convertible at the option of the holders during the first quarter of 2016. The excess of the amount of cash payable if converted over the carrying amount of the 2009 debentures was classified as temporary equity on Intel's consolidated balance sheet.

During 2013, 2015 and 2016, management approved several restructuring actions, including targeted workforce reductions as well as exit of certain businesses and facilities. Please also refer to the 2016 Restructuring Program described above in Element B.4a.

SECTION E — OFFER

E.1	Net proceeds	Assuming the 16,390 eligible employees² in Austria, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Ireland, the Netherlands, Poland, Romania, Sweden and the United Kingdom would purchase the maximum amount of Shares under the SPP offered pursuant to this prospectus, that is, a total of $42,452.46 each, then the gross proceeds to Intel in connection with the offer under the SPP pursuant to this prospectus would be $695,795,819.40. After deducting legal and accounting expenses in connection with the offer, the net proceeds would be approximately $695,695,819.40.

² As of March 23, 2016, there were 539 eligible employees in Austria, 284 eligible employees in Denmark, 335 eligible employees in Finland, 1,139 eligible employees in France, 4,007 eligible employees in Germany, 5,180 eligible employees in Ireland, 351 eligible employees in the Netherlands, 2,271 eligible employees in Poland, 549 eligible employees in Romania, 195 eligible employees in Sweden and 1,540 eligible employees in the United Kingdom.

		The net proceeds under the Irish Plans cannot be calculated at this time as the trustee will purchase the Shares on the open market on the NASDAQ at the request of the Irish Participant (as defined below), and the purchase price will be the market price per Share on the NASDAQ on the date the Shares are purchased.
E.2a	Reasons for the offer and use of proceeds	The purpose of the SPP is to provide an opportunity for employees of Intel and its designated subsidiaries (“Participating Subsidiaries”) to purchase Shares and become stockholders in Intel, thereby to have an additional incentive to contribute to the prosperity of the Company. The purpose of the Irish Plans is to enable eligible employees to become stockholders in Intel. The net proceeds will be used for general corporate purposes.
E.3	Description of the terms and conditions of the offer	Intel will offer eligible employees of the Company and certain of its subsidiaries residing in the EEA the right to purchase its Shares, under the SPP. Intel also will offer its employees in Ireland the right to acquire Shares under the Irish Plans. The offering of the SPP and/or the Irish Plans may be considered a public offering of securities pursuant to the Prospectus Directive in the following EEA countries, subject to the applicable legislation in each country: Austria, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Ireland, the Netherlands, Poland, Romania, Sweden and the United Kingdom. The offering of the SPP may also be made in the following EEA countries: Belgium, Czech Republic, Greece, Hungary, Italy, Luxembourg, Norway, Portugal and Spain. However, such offering is not considered a public offering of securities and/or the obligation to publish a prospectus does not apply to the offering under the legislation implementing the Prospectus Directive in such countries. The total amount of the offering of the SPP and the Irish Plans in the EEA is more than €5 million over a 12-month period. This prospectus will be made available to employees of the subsidiaries of Intel based in the above-named countries where the offering of the SPP and/or the Irish Plans may be considered a public offering of securities at the respective head offices of their employers. E.3.1 The SPP Under the SPP, eligible employees of Intel and the Participating Subsidiaries are offered a right to purchase Shares at a discount with funds deducted from the employees’ eligible compensation. The SPP is administered by the Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board. The Committee has granted the authority for day-to-day administration of the SPP and the authority to designate the Participating Subsidiaries to the Company’s Senior Vice President of Human Resources. The SPP is composed of enrollment periods that vary in duration by country (“Enrollment Periods”) and during which eligible employees may elect to participate in the following six-month purchase period (“Subscription Period”). Generally, eligible employees offered participation in the SPP may decide to enroll in the SPP (“Participants”) by completing

		and submitting a subscription agreement form provided by Intel by the deadline prescribed by the Committee prior to a Subscription Period (the “Enrollment Date”). Subscription Periods commence on each February 20 and August 20, and end on the last trading day in the six-month periods ending on the following August 19 and February 19, respectively, or on such other date as the Committee shall determine. The Enrollment Periods covered by this prospectus are the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • For the Subscription Period from August 20, 2016 through February 19, 2017: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ July 1 to July 31, 2016 for eligible employees of Intel and Altera in Austria, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Ireland, the Netherlands, Poland, Romania, Sweden and the United Kingdom. ○ July 1 to August 12, 2016 for eligible employees of Wind River Systems, Inc. (“Wind River”) subsidiaries (for all countries). • For the Subscription Period from February 20 through August 19, 2017: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ January 1 to January 31, 2017 for eligible employees Intel and Altera in Austria, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Ireland, the Netherlands, Poland, Romania, Sweden and the United Kingdom. ○ January 1 to February 12, 2017 for eligible employees of Wind River subsidiaries (for all countries). The last day of each Enrollment Period indicated above is the Enrollment Date for the related Subscription Period. Once enrolled, Participants may purchase Shares at a discount on the last trading day of each Subscription Period (the “Purchase Date”). Participation is limited to (i) Shares having a market value on the applicable Commencement Date (as defined below) of not more than $25,000 per calendar year, (ii) employees possessing less than 5% of Intel voting shares or value of all classes of Intel stock and (iii) 72,000 Shares per Subscription Period. During each Enrollment Period, Participants may elect to contribute to the SPP through payroll deductions of any whole percentage between 2% and 5% of their eligible compensation as indicated on their subscription agreement forms. Participants’ participation in the SPP and payroll deductions will continue until they withdraw from the SPP, become ineligible to participate or terminate employment. A Participant may only decrease their rate of payroll deductions, and only once, during a Subscription Period, and may change their rate of payroll deductions for the next Subscription Period by submitting the prescribed form at the time and manner specified by the Committee. In addition, a Participant may

	withdraw from the SPP by submitting a withdrawal and refund of money form at the time and manner specified by the Committee. The accumulated payroll deductions are used to purchase Shares at the end of each six-month Subscription Period. The purchase price per Share is 85% (or such higher percentage designated by the Committee) of the lower of (1) the market value of a Share on the last trading day before February 1 for the Subscription Period beginning on February 20 and August 1 for the Subscription Period beginning on August 20 (the "Commencement Date") or (2) the market value of a Share on each Purchase Date (the "Purchase Price"). There is no charge to Participants for the acquisition or holding of Shares under the SPP. Participants may also elect for their Shares to automatically be sold one to two days after the Purchase Date. Participants assume the risk of any currency fluctuations at the time of (i) their contribution to the SPP by payroll deductions and (ii) the selling of their Shares. The SPP was initially approved by Intel's stockholders at the stockholders' meeting held on May 17, 2006 and has been amended from time to time. The most recent stockholder approved amendment was to extend the term of the SPP to 2021. This amendment was approved by the Board on March 18, 2015 and by the stockholders on May 21, 2015. On January 20, 2016, the Committee approved amendments to the SPP, none of which required stockholder approval. The main amendments were made to facilitate SPP offerings to employees and subsidiaries outside the U.S. (e.g., broadening the eligibility to seasonal and part-time employees) and realign the Enrollment Periods worldwide. Other formal and technical changes were made (such as eliminating the carry forward of unused payroll deductions). The amendments are anticipated to go into effect on January 1, 2017. The employees will be informed accordingly. As of April 2, 2016, there were approximately 172 million Shares available for issuance under the SPP on a worldwide basis (out of a maximum 373 million Shares available under the SPP). E.3.2 The Irish Plans Eligible employees are offered participation in the Irish Plans, which are stock purchase plans, and may decide to enroll (the "Irish Participant") by completing the enrollment process. To be eligible, an employee must be employed in Ireland by Intel Ireland on the relevant qualifying date. The Intel Ireland Profit Sharing Scheme is offered to eligible employees of Intel Ireland Limited, and Intel Shannon Profit Sharing Scheme is offered to eligible employees of Intel Research and Development Ireland Ltd. Irish Participants can also elect to participate in the SPP. The Irish Plans allow employees to use annual bonus money paid each February ("Annual Performance Bonus" or "APB") and contributions from Intel's Quarterly Profit Bonus (the "QPB") to buy Shares. Under the QPB, Intel pays eligible employees cash bonuses each January, April, July and October based on Intel's profits and each eligible employee's daily pay.
--	---

		The Irish Plans are offered to employees four times each year: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • January - employees can decide whether to make contributions from APB and the January QPB payment. • April - employees can decide whether to make contributions from the April QPB payment. • July - employees can decide whether to make contributions from the July QPB payment. • October - employees can decide whether to make contributions from the October QPB payment. Generally, full-time employees, part-time employees and interns are eligible to participate in the QPB. Irish Revenue imposes limits on how much employees can invest in the Irish Plans. All of the following limits must be satisfied before Shares can be purchased on behalf of an employee. The maximum amount of annual contributions an employee may make to the Irish Plans is €12,700 from all bonuses (i.e., APB and QPB). Each employee can invest an APB target of 1.01% of his or her base pay multiplied by a payout factor as set forth in the Irish Plans, into the Irish Plans. Shares under the Irish Plans will be held by a trustee on the Irish Participant's behalf and normally cannot be sold for two years after the date of the allocation. However, for tax-favored treatment, the Irish Participant cannot sell the Shares before three years following purchase. If the Irish Participant sells the Shares before three years after the date of allocation, income tax is due on the purchase price of the Shares. The trustee will purchase the Shares on the open market on the NASDAQ, and the purchase price will be the market price per Share on the NASDAQ on the date the Shares were purchased, following the payment of the APB and the QPB referred to above. There is no charge to Irish Participants for the acquisition or holding of Shares under the Irish Plans.
E.4	Description of material interest to the offer including conflict of interests	Not applicable. There are no such interests.
E.5	Name of the entity offering to sell the security	Intel Corporation.

E.6	Maximum dilution	Assuming that the Shares offered pursuant to this prospectus to the 16,390 eligible employees in Austria, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Ireland, the Netherlands, Poland, Romania, Sweden and the United Kingdom would all be newly issued Shares, the holdings of a stockholder of Intel currently holding one percent (1%) of the total outstanding Share capital of Intel as of April 22, 2016, that is 47,220,000 Shares, and who would not participate in the offering, would be diluted as indicated in the following dilution table:
			Percentage of the total outstanding Shares	Total number of outstanding Shares
		Before the offering (as of April 22, 2016)	1.00%	4,722,000,000
		After issuance of 25,994,540 Shares under the SPP	0.9945%	4,747,994,540
E.7	Estimated expenses charged to the investor	Not applicable. There are no such expenses.

THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION IS NOT PART OF THE PROSPECTUS SUMMARY

PART II — PROSPECTUS

SECTION A — RISK FACTORSI. RISKS RELATED TO INTEL'S BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY

The following risks could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations, and the trading price of our Shares could decline. These risk factors do not identify all risks that we face; our operations could also be affected by factors that are not presently known to us or that we currently consider to be immaterial to our operations. Due to risks and uncertainties, known and unknown, our past financial results may not be a reliable indicator of future performance, and historical trends should not be used to anticipate results or trends in future periods. You should also refer to the other information set forth in Intel's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 26, 2015, filed with the SEC on February 12, 2016 ("Intel's Form 10-K"), including "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and our financial statements and the related notes.

Changes in product demand can harm our results of operation and financial condition.

Demand for our products is variable and hard to predict. Changes in the demand for our products may reduce our revenue, increase our costs, lower our gross margin percentage, or require us to write down the value of our assets. Important factors that could lead to variation in the demand for our products include changes in:

- business conditions, including downturns in the computing industry, or in the global or regional economies;
- consumer confidence or income levels caused by changes in market conditions, including changes in government borrowing, taxation, or spending policies; the credit market; or expected inflation, employment, and energy or other commodity prices;
- the level of our customers' inventories;
- competitive and pricing pressures, including actions taken by competitors;
- customer product needs;
- market acceptance and industry support of our new and maturing products; and
- the technology supply chain, including supply constraints caused by natural disasters or other events.

We face significant competition. The industry in which we operate is highly competitive and subject to rapid technological and market developments, changes in industry standards, changes in customer needs, and frequent product introductions and improvements. If we do not anticipate and respond to these developments, our competitive position may weaken, and our products or technologies might be uncompetitive or obsolete. In recent years, our business focus has expanded and now includes the design and production of platforms for tablets, phones, and other devices across the compute continuum, including products for the Internet of Things, and related services. As a result, we face new sources of competition, including, in certain of these market segments, from incumbent competitors with established customer bases and greater brand recognition. To be successful, we need to cultivate new industry relationships with customers and partners in these market segments. In addition, we must continually improve the cost, integration, and energy efficiency of our products, as well as expand our software capabilities to provide customers with comprehensive computing solutions. Despite our ongoing efforts, there is no guarantee that we will achieve or maintain consumer and market demand or acceptance for our products and services in these various market segments.

To compete successfully, we must maintain a successful R&D effort, develop new products and production processes, and improve our existing products and processes ahead of competitors. For example, we invest substantially in our network of manufacturing and assembly and test facilities, including the construction of new fabrication facilities to support smaller transistor geometries and larger wafers. Our R&D efforts are critical to our success and are aimed at solving complex problems, and we do not expect all of our projects to be successful. We may be unable to develop and market new products successfully, and the products we invest in and develop may not be well-received by customers. Our R&D investments may not generate significant operating income or contribute to our future operating results for several years, and such contributions may not meet our expectations or even cover the costs of such investments. Additionally, the products and technologies offered by others may affect demand for, or pricing of, our products.

If we are not able to compete effectively, our financial results will be adversely affected, including increased costs and reduced revenue and gross margin, and we may be required to accelerate the write-down of the value of certain assets.

Changes in the mix of products sold may harm our financial results. Prices differ widely among the platforms we offer in our various market segments due to differences in features offered or manufacturing costs. For example, product offerings range from lower-priced and entry-level platforms, such as those based on Intel Quark or Intel Atom processors, to higher-end platforms based on Intel Xeon and Intel Itanium processors. If demand shifts from our higher-priced to lower-priced platforms in any of our market segments, our gross margin and revenue would decrease. In addition, when products are introduced, they tend to have higher costs because of initial development costs and lower production volumes relative to the previous product generation, which can impact gross margin.

We operate globally and are subject to significant risks in many jurisdictions.

Global or regional conditions may harm our financial results. We have manufacturing, assembly and test, R&D, sales, and other operations in many countries, and some of our business activities may be concentrated in one or more geographic areas. Moreover, sales outside the U.S. accounted for approximately 80% of our revenue for the fiscal year ended December 26, 2015. As a result, our operations and our financial results, including our ability to manufacture, assemble and test, design, develop, or sell products, may be adversely affected by a number of factors outside of our control, including:

- global and local economic conditions;
- geopolitical and security issues, such as armed conflict and civil or military unrest, crime, political instability, and terrorist activity;
- natural disasters, public health issues, and other catastrophic events;
- inefficient infrastructure and other disruptions, such as supply chain interruptions and large-scale outages or unreliable provision of services from utilities, transportation, data hosting, or telecommunications providers;

- government restrictions on, or nationalization of our operations in any country, or restrictions on our ability to repatriate earnings from a particular country;
- differing employment practices and labor issues;
- formal or informal imposition of new or revised export and/or import and doing-business regulations, which could be changed without notice;
- ineffective legal protection of our IP rights in certain countries; and
- local business and cultural factors that differ from our normal standards and practices.

We are subject to laws and regulations worldwide, which may differ among jurisdictions, affecting our operations in areas including, but not limited to: IP ownership and infringement, tax, import and export requirements, anti-corruption, foreign exchange controls and cash repatriation restrictions, data privacy requirements, anti-competition, advertising, employment, environment, health, and safety. Compliance with such requirements may be onerous and expensive, and may otherwise impact our business operations negatively. Although we have policies, controls, and procedures designed to help ensure compliance with applicable laws, there can be no assurance that our employees, contractors, suppliers, and/or agents will not violate such laws or our policies. Violations of these laws and regulations could result in fines; criminal sanctions against us, our officers, or our employees; prohibitions on the conduct of our business; and damage to our reputation.

We may be affected by fluctuations in currency exchange rates. We are potentially exposed to adverse as well as beneficial movements in currency exchange rates. Although most of our sales occur in U.S. dollars, expenses may be paid in local currencies. An increase in the value of the dollar could increase the real cost to our customers of our products in those markets outside the U.S. where we sell in dollars, and a weakened dollar could increase the cost of expenses such as payroll, utilities, tax, and marketing expenses, as well as overseas capital expenditures. We also conduct certain investing and financing activities in local currencies. Our hedging programs reduce, but do not eliminate, the impact of currency exchange rate movements; therefore, changes in exchange rates could harm our results of operations and financial condition.

Catastrophic events or geopolitical conditions could have a material adverse effect on our operations and financial results. Our operations or systems could be disrupted by natural disasters; geopolitical conditions; terrorist activity; public health issues; cybersecurity incidents; interruptions of service from utilities, transportation or telecommunications providers; or other catastrophic events. Such events could make it difficult or impossible to manufacture or deliver products to our customers, receive production materials from our suppliers, or perform critical functions, which could adversely affect our revenue and require significant recovery time and expenditures to resume operations. While we maintain business recovery plans that are intended to enable us to recover from natural disasters or other events that can be disruptive to our business, some of our systems are not fully redundant and we cannot be sure that our plans will fully protect us from all such disruptions.

We maintain a program of insurance coverage for a variety of property, casualty, and other risks. The types and amounts of insurance we obtain vary depending on availability, cost, and decisions with respect to risk retention. Some of our policies have large deductibles and broad exclusions. In addition, one or more of our insurance providers may be unable or unwilling to pay a claim. Losses not covered by insurance may be large, which could harm our results of operations and financial condition.

We operate our own fabrication facilities and, as a result, are vulnerable to manufacturing-related risks.

Due to the variability in demand for our products, we may be unable to timely respond to reduce costs when demand declines or to increase production when demand increases. Our operations have high costs that are either fixed or difficult to reduce in the short term, including our costs related to manufacturing, such as facility construction and equipment, R&D, and the employment and training of a highly skilled workforce. If product demand decreases or we fail to forecast demand accurately, we could be required to write off inventory or record excess capacity charges, which would lower our gross margin. Our manufacturing or assembly and test capacity could be underutilized, and we may be required to write down our long-lived assets, which would increase our expenses. Factory-planning decisions may shorten the useful lives of facilities and equipment and cause us to accelerate depreciation.

Conversely, if product demand increases, we may be unable to add capacity fast enough to meet market demand. Our revenue and gross margin can also be affected by the timing of our product introductions and related expenses, including marketing expenses.

We are subject to risks associated with the development and implementation of new manufacturing process technology. We may not be successful or efficient in developing or implementing new production processes. Production of integrated circuits is a complex process. We are continually engaged in the transition from our existing process to the next-generation process technology. This consistent innovation involves significant expense and carries inherent risks, including difficulties in designing and developing next-generation process technologies, development and production timing delays, lower than anticipated manufacturing yields, and product defects and errata. Disruptions in the production process can also result from errors, defects in materials, delays in obtaining or revising operating permits and licenses, interruption in our supply of materials or resources, and disruptions at our fabrication and assembly and test facilities due to accidents, maintenance issues, or unsafe working conditions—all of which could affect the timing of production ramps and yields. Production issues can lead to increased costs and may affect our ability to meet product demand, which could adversely impact our business and the results from operations.

We face supply chain risks. Thousands of suppliers provide materials that we use in production and other aspects of our business. Where possible, we seek to have several sources of supply for all of those materials. However, for certain materials, we may rely on a single or a limited number of suppliers, or upon suppliers in a single location. In addition, consolidation among suppliers could impact the nature, quality, availability, and pricing of the products and services available to us. The inability of suppliers to deliver adequate supplies of production materials or other supplies could disrupt our production processes or make it more difficult for us to implement our business strategy. Production could be disrupted by the unavailability of resources used in production, such as water, silicon, electricity, gases, and other materials. The unavailability or reduced availability of materials or resources may require us to reduce production or incur additional costs, which could harm our business and results of operations.

We also rely on third-party providers to manufacture and assemble and test certain components or products, particularly those related to networking, mobile and communications, and NAND flash memory. If any of these third parties are unable to perform these services on a timely basis, we may encounter supply delays or disruptions that could adversely affect our financial results.

In addition, there are regulatory and other requirements, restrictions, and requests from various constituencies regarding sourcing practices and supplier conduct, with a trend toward expanding the scope of materials and locations where materials originate, regulating supplier behaviors, and increasing the required disclosures regarding such matters by public companies. Increased regulation and public pressure in this area would cause our compliance costs to increase and could negatively affect our reputation given that we use many materials in the manufacturing of our products and rely on many suppliers to provide these materials, but do not directly control their procurement or employment practices.

We are subject to the risks of product defects and errata. Product defects and errata (deviations from published specifications) may result from problems in our product design or our manufacturing and assembly and test processes. Components and products we purchase or license from third-party suppliers may also contain defects.

Costs from defects and errata could include:

- writing off some or all of the value of inventory;
- recalling products that have been shipped;
- providing product replacements or modifications; and
- defending against resulting litigation.

These costs could be large and may increase expenses and lower gross margin, and result in delay or loss of revenue. Any product defects, errata, or other issues that we do not detect or fix could also damage our reputation, negatively affect product demand, delay product releases, or result in legal liability. The announcement of product defects and errata could cause customers to purchase products from competitors as a result of possible shortages of our components or for other reasons. Any of these occurrences could harm our business and financial results.

We are subject to risks associated with environmental laws and regulations. The manufacturing and assembly and test of our products require the use of hazardous materials that are subject to a broad array of environmental, health, and safety laws and regulations. Our failure to comply with these laws or regulations could result in:

- regulatory penalties, fines, and legal liabilities;
- suspension of production;
- alteration of our fabrication and assembly and test processes;
- reputational challenges; and
- restrictions on our operations or sales.

Our failure to manage the use, transportation, emissions, discharge, storage, recycling, or disposal of hazardous materials could lead to increased costs or future liabilities. Our ability to expand or modify our manufacturing capability in the future may be impeded by environmental regulations, such as air quality and wastewater requirements. Environmental laws and regulations could also require us to acquire pollution abatement or remediation equipment, modify product designs, or incur other expenses. Many new materials that we are evaluating for use in our operations may be subject to regulation under environmental laws and regulations. These restrictions could harm our business and results of operations by increasing our expenses or requiring us to alter manufacturing and assembly and test processes.

Climate change may also pose regulatory and environmental risks that could harm our results of operations and affect the way we conduct business. For example, climate change regulation could result in increased manufacturing costs associated with air pollution control requirements, and increased or new monitoring, recordkeeping, and reporting of greenhouse gas emissions. We also see the potential for higher energy costs driven by climate change regulations if, for example, utility companies pass on their costs to their customers. Furthermore, many of our operations are located in semi-arid regions that may become increasingly vulnerable to prolonged droughts due to climate change. Our fabrication facilities require significant water use and, while we recycle and reuse a portion of the water used, we may have difficulties obtaining sufficient water to fulfill our operational needs due the lack of available infrastructure.

We are subject to IP risks and risks associated with litigation and regulatory proceedings.

We may be unable to enforce or protect our IP rights. We regard our patents, copyrights, trade secrets, and other IP rights as important to the success of our business. We rely on IP law as well as confidentiality and licensing agreements with our customers, employees, technology development partners, and others to protect our IP rights. Our ability to enforce these rights is subject to general litigation risks, as well as uncertainty as to the enforceability of our IP rights in various countries. When we seek to enforce our rights, we may be subject to claims that the IP rights are invalid, not enforceable, or licensed to the opposing party. Our assertion of IP rights may result in the other party seeking to assert claims against us, which could harm our business. Governments may adopt regulations—and governments or courts may render decisions—requiring compulsory licensing of IP rights, or governments may require products to meet standards that serve to favor local companies. Our inability to enforce our IP rights under any of these circumstances may harm our competitive position and business. In addition, the theft or unauthorized use or publication of our trade secrets and other confidential business information could harm our competitive position and reduce acceptance of our products; as a result, the value of our investment in R&D, product development, and marketing could be reduced.

Our licenses with other companies and participation in industry initiatives may allow competitors to use our patent rights. Companies in our industry often bilaterally license patents between each other to settle disputes or as part of business agreements. Our competitors may have licenses to our patents, and under current case law, some of the licenses may exhaust our patent rights as to licensed product sales under some circumstances. Our participation in industry standards organizations or with other industry initiatives may require us to license our patents to companies that adopt industry-standard specifications. Depending on the rules of the organization, we might have to grant these licenses to our patents for little or no cost, and as a result, we may be unable to enforce certain patents against others, our costs of enforcing our licenses or protecting our patents may increase, and the value of our IP rights may be impaired.

Third parties may assert claims based on IP rights against us or our products, which could harm our business. We may face claims based on IP rights from individuals and companies, including those who have acquired patent portfolios to assert claims against other companies. We are normally engaged in a number of litigation matters involving IP rights. Claims that our products or processes infringe the IP rights of others, whether or not meritorious, could cause us to incur large costs to respond to, defend, and resolve, and they may divert the efforts and attention of management and technical personnel. In addition, we may face claims based on the theft or unauthorized use or disclosure of third-party trade secrets and other confidential business information or end-user data that we obtain in conducting our business. Any such incidents and claims could severely disrupt our business, and we could suffer losses, including the cost of product recalls and returns, and reputational harm. Furthermore, we have agreed to indemnify customers for certain IP rights claims against them. As a result of IP rights claims, we could:

- pay monetary damages, including payments to satisfy indemnification obligations;
- stop manufacturing, using, selling, offering to sell, or importing products or technology subject to claims;
- develop other products or technology not subject to claims, which could be time-consuming or costly; and/or
- enter into settlement and license agreements, which agreements may not be available on commercially reasonable terms.

These IP rights claims could harm our competitive position, result in expenses, or require us to impair our assets. If we alter or stop production of affected items, our revenue could be harmed.

We rely on access to third-party IP, which may not be available to us on commercially reasonable terms or at all. Many of our products include third-party IP and/or implement industry standards, which may require licenses from third parties. Based on past experience and industry practice, we believe such licenses generally can be obtained on commercially reasonable terms. However, there is no assurance that the necessary licenses can be obtained on acceptable terms or at all. Failure to obtain the right to use third-party IP, or to use such IP on commercially reasonable terms, could preclude us from selling certain products or otherwise have a material adverse impact on our financial condition and operating results.

We are subject to the risks associated with litigation and regulatory proceedings. We may face legal claims or regulatory matters involving stockholder, consumer, competition, and other issues on a global basis. As described in Part II - Section B.6.3 of this prospectus, we are engaged in a number of litigation and regulatory matters. Litigation and regulatory proceedings are inherently uncertain, and adverse rulings could occur, including monetary damages, or an injunction stopping us from manufacturing or selling certain products, engaging in certain business practices, or requiring other remedies, such as compulsory licensing of patents. An unfavorable outcome may result in a material adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial position, and overall trends. In addition, regardless of the outcome, litigation can be costly, time-consuming, disruptive to our operations, and distracting to management.

We must attract, retain, and motivate key employees.

To be competitive, we must attract, retain, and motivate executives and other key employees. Hiring and retaining qualified executives, scientists, engineers, technical staff, and sales representatives are critical to our business, and competition for experienced employees can be intense. To help attract, retain, and motivate qualified employees, we use share-based and other performance-based incentive awards such as restricted stock units ("RSUs") and cash bonuses. If our share-based or other compensation programs cease to be viewed as competitive and valuable benefits, our ability to attract, retain, and motivate employees could be weakened, which could harm our results of operations.

We are subject to cybersecurity and privacy risks.

Third parties attempt to gain unauthorized access to our network, products, services, and infrastructure. We regularly face attempts by others to gain unauthorized access through the Internet or to introduce malicious software to our information technology ("IT") systems. Additionally, malicious hackers may attempt to gain unauthorized access and corrupt the processes of hardware and software products that we manufacture and services we provide. Due to the widespread use of our products and the high profile of our commercial security products, we or our products and services are a frequent target of computer hackers and organizations that intend to sabotage, take control of, or otherwise corrupt our manufacturing or other processes, products, and services. We are also a target of malicious attackers who attempt to gain access to our network or data centers or those of our customers or end users; steal proprietary information related to our business, products, employees, and customers; or interrupt our systems and services or those of our customers or others. We believe such attempts are increasing in number and in technical sophistication. From time to time, we encounter intrusions or unauthorized access to our network, products, services, or infrastructure. To date, none have resulted in any material adverse impact to our business or operations. In some instances, we, our customers, and the users of our products and services might be unaware of an incident or its magnitude and effects. While we seek to detect and investigate all unauthorized attempts and attacks against our network, products, and services, and to prevent their recurrence where practicable through changes to our internal processes and tools and/or changes or patches to our products and services, we remain potentially vulnerable to additional known or unknown threats. Such incidents, whether successful or unsuccessful, could result in our incurring significant costs related to, for example, rebuilding internal systems, reduced inventory value, providing modifications to our products and services, defending against litigation, responding to regulatory inquiries or actions, paying damages, or taking other remedial steps with respect to third parties. In addition, these threats are constantly evolving, thereby increasing the difficulty of successfully defending against them or implementing adequate preventative measures. Publicity about vulnerabilities and attempted or successful incursions could damage our reputation with customers or users, and reduce demand for our products and services.

We may be subject to theft, loss, or misuse of personal data about our employees, customers, or other third parties, which could increase our expenses, damage our reputation, or result in legal or regulatory proceedings. The theft, loss, or misuse of personal data collected, used, stored, or transferred by us to run our business could result in significantly increased security costs or costs related to defending legal claims. Global privacy legislation, enforcement, and policy activity in this area are rapidly expanding and creating a complex regulatory compliance environment. Costs to comply with and implement these privacy-related and data protection measures could be significant. In addition, even our inadvertent failure to comply with federal, state, or international privacy-related or data protection laws and regulations could result in proceedings against us by governmental entities or others.

We are subject to risks associated with transactions.

We invest in companies for strategic reasons and may not realize a return on our investments. We make investments in public and private companies around the world to further our strategic objectives and support key business initiatives. Many of the instruments in which we invest are non-marketable at the time of our initial investment. Companies in which we invest range from early-stage companies still defining their strategic direction to mature companies with established revenue streams and business models. The success of our investment in any company is typically dependent on the availability to the company of additional funding on favorable terms, or a liquidity event, such as a public offering or acquisition. If any of the companies in which we invest fail, we could lose all or part of our investment. If we determine that an other-than-temporary decline in the fair value exists for an investment, we write down the investment to its fair value and recognize a loss.

Our acquisitions, divestitures, and other transactions could fail to achieve strategic objectives, disrupt our ongoing business, and harm our results of operations. In pursuing our business strategy, we routinely conduct discussions, evaluate opportunities, and enter into agreements for possible acquisitions, divestitures, and other transactions, such as joint ventures. Given that our resources are limited, our decision to complete an acquisition has opportunity costs and we may need to forgo the prospect of acquiring other companies or technologies that could help us achieve our strategic objectives. In addition to opportunity costs, these transactions involve large challenges and risks, including risks that:

- the transaction may not advance our business strategy;
- we may be unable to identify opportunities on terms acceptable to us;
- we may not realize a satisfactory return;
- we may experience disruption of our ongoing operations;
- we may be unable to retain key personnel;
- we may experience difficulty in integrating new employees, business systems, and technology;
- acquired businesses may not have adequate controls, processes, and procedures to ensure compliance with laws and regulations, and our due diligence process may not identify compliance issues or other liabilities;
- we may have difficulty entering new market segments;
- we may be unable to retain the customers and partners of acquired businesses; and/or
- there may be unknown, underestimated, and/or undisclosed commitments or liabilities.

When we decide to sell assets or a business, we may have difficulty selling on acceptable terms in a timely manner, and the agreed-upon terms and financing arrangements could be renegotiated due to changes in business or market conditions. These circumstances could delay the achievement of our strategic objectives or cause us to incur additional expense, or we may sell a business at a price or on terms that are less favorable than we had anticipated, resulting in a loss on the transaction.

If we do enter into agreements with respect to acquisitions, divestitures, or other transactions, we may fail to complete them due to factors such as:

- failure to obtain regulatory or other approvals;
- IP disputes or other litigation; or
- difficulties obtaining financing for the transaction.

We are subject to sales-related risks.

We face risks related to sales through distributors and other third parties. We sell a significant portion of our products through third parties such as distributors, value-added resellers, OEMs, ODMs, Internet service providers, and channel partners (collectively referred to as distributors). Using third parties for distribution exposes us to many risks, including competitive pressure, concentration, credit risk, and compliance risks. Distributors may sell products that compete with our products, and we may need to provide financial and other incentives to focus distributors on the sale of our products. We may rely on one or more key distributors for a product, and the loss of these distributors could reduce our revenue. Distributors may face financial difficulties, including bankruptcy, which could harm our collection of accounts receivable and financial results. Violations of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act or similar laws by distributors or other third-party intermediaries could have a material impact on our business. Failure to manage risks related to our use of distributors may reduce sales, increase expenses, and weaken our competitive position.

We face risks related to business transactions with U.S. government entities. We receive proceeds from services and products we provide to the U.S. government. U.S. government demand and payment may be affected by public sector budgetary cycles and funding authorizations. U.S. government contracts are subject to oversight, including special rules on accounting, IP rights, expenses, reviews, information handling, and security. Failure to comply with these rules could result in civil and criminal penalties and sanctions, including termination of contracts, fines, and suspensions, or debarment from future U.S. government business.

Our results of operations could vary as a result of the methods, estimates, and judgments that we use in applying accounting policies.

The methods, estimates, and judgments that we use in applying accounting policies have a large impact on our results of operations. For more information, see "Critical Accounting Estimates" in Part II, Item 7 of Intel's Form 10-K. These methods, estimates, and judgments are subject to large risks, uncertainties, and assumptions, and changes could affect our results of operations.

Changes in our effective tax rate may reduce our net income.

A number of factors may increase our effective tax rates, which could reduce our net income, including:

- the jurisdictions in which profits are determined to be earned and taxed;
- the resolution of issues arising from tax audits;
- changes in the valuation of our deferred tax assets and liabilities, and in deferred tax valuation allowances;
- adjustments to income taxes upon finalization of tax returns;

- increases in expenses not deductible for tax purposes, including impairments of goodwill;
- changes in available tax credits;
- changes in tax laws or their interpretation, including changes in the U.S. to the taxation of manufacturing enterprises and of non-U.S. income and expenses;
- changes in U.S. generally accepted accounting principles; and
- our decision to repatriate non-U.S. earnings for which we have not previously provided for U.S. taxes.

We may have fluctuations in the amount and frequency of our stock repurchases.

The amount, timing, and execution of our stock repurchase program may fluctuate based on our priorities for the use of cash for other purposes—such as investing in our business, including operational spending, capital spending, and acquisitions, and returning cash to our stockholders as dividend payments—and because of changes in cash flows and changes in tax laws.

Workforce restructuring actions may be disruptive to our operations and adversely affect our financial results.

In response to the business environment and to accomplish our strategic objectives, from time to time we may restructure our operations or make other adjustments to our workforce. Such workforce changes can result in restructuring charges in addition to those described in "Note 13: Restructuring and Asset Impairment Charges" in Part II, Item 8 of Intel's Form 10-K, and "Note 12: Restructuring and Asset Impairment Charges" in Part I, Item 1 of Intel's Form 10-Q. Such workforce changes can also temporarily reduce workforce productivity, which could be disruptive to our business and adversely affect our results of operations. In addition, we may not achieve or sustain the expected cost savings or other benefits of our restructuring plans, or do so within the expected time frame.

Changes in our announced restructuring plan, and other factors, could affect our results of operations and financial condition.

Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from our expectations with regard to our announced 2016 Restructuring Program include:

- timing and execution of plans and programs that may be subject to local labor law requirements, including consultation with appropriate works councils;
- assumptions related to severance, post-retirement, and relocation costs;
- future acquisitions, dispositions, or investments;
- new business initiatives and changes in product roadmap, development, and manufacturing; and/or
- assumptions related to cost savings, product demand, operating efficiencies.

There are inherent limitations on the effectiveness of our controls.

We do not expect that our disclosure controls or our internal control over financial reporting will prevent or detect all errors and all fraud. A control system, no matter how well-designed and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the control system's objectives will be met. The design of a control system must reflect the fact that resource constraints exist, and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Further, because of the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that misstatements due to error or fraud will not occur or that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, have been detected. The design of any system of controls is based in part on certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions. Projections of any evaluation of the effectiveness of controls to future periods are subject to risks. Over time, controls may become inadequate due to changes in conditions or deterioration in the degree of compliance with policies or procedures. If our controls become inadequate, we could fail to meet our financial reporting obligations, our reputation may be adversely affected, our business and operating results could be harmed, and the market price of our stock could decline.

II. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

We are affected by changes in currency exchange rates, interest rates, and equity prices. All of the following potential changes are based on sensitivity analyses performed on our financial positions as of April 2, 2016, December 26, 2015, and December 27, 2014. Actual results may differ materially.

2.1 Currency Exchange Rates

In general, we economically hedge currency risks of non-U.S.-dollar-denominated investments in debt instruments and loans receivable with currency forward contracts or currency interest rate swaps. Gains and losses on these non-U.S.-currency investments are generally offset by corresponding gains and losses on the related hedging instruments.

Substantially all of our revenue is transacted in U.S. dollars. However, a significant portion of our operating expenditures and capital purchases are incurred in or exposed to other currencies, primarily the euro, the Chinese yuan, the Japanese yen, and the Israeli shekel. We have established balance sheet and forecasted transaction currency risk management programs to protect against fluctuations in the fair value and the volatility of the functional currency equivalent of future cash flows caused by changes in exchange rates. We generally utilize currency forward contracts in these hedging programs. These programs reduce, but do not eliminate, the impact of currency exchange movements. For further information, see "Risks Related to Intel's Business and Industry" in Part I, Section A of this prospectus. We considered the historical trends in currency exchange rates and determined that it was reasonably possible that a weighted average adverse change of 20% in currency exchange rates could be experienced in the near term. Such an adverse change, after taking into account balance sheet hedges only and offsetting recorded monetary asset and liability positions, would have resulted in an adverse impact on income before taxes of less than $75 million as of December 26, 2015 (less than $50 million as of December 27, 2014).

2.2 Interest Rates

We generally hedge interest rate risks of fixed-rate debt investments with interest rate swaps, and we may elect to hedge interest rate risks of our indebtedness. Gains and losses on these instruments are generally offset by corresponding losses and gains on the related hedging instruments.

We are exposed to interest rate risk related to our investment portfolio and debt issuances. The primary objective of our investments in debt instruments is to preserve principal while maximizing yields, which generally track the U.S. dollar three-month LIBOR. A hypothetical decrease in benchmark interest rates of up to 1.0%, after taking into account investment hedges, would have resulted in an increase in the fair value of our investment portfolio of approximately $15 million as of December 26, 2015 (an increase of approximately $10 million as of December 27, 2014). After taking into account interest rate and currency swaps, a hypothetical decrease in interest rates of up to 1.0% would have resulted in an increase in the fair value of our indebtedness of approximately $1.6 billion as of December 26, 2015 (an increase of approximately $1.0 billion as of December 27, 2014). The increase from December 27, 2014 was primarily driven by the inclusion of $9.5 billion of senior unsecured notes issued in Q3 and Q4 2015. The fluctuations in fair value of our investment portfolio and indebtedness reflect only the direct impact of the change in interest rates. Other economic variables, such as equity market fluctuations and changes in relative credit risk, could result in a significantly higher decline in the fair value of our net investment position. For further information on how credit risk is factored into the valuation of our investment portfolio and debt issuances, see "Note 4: Fair Value" in Part II, Item 8 of Intel's Form 10-K.

2.3 Equity Prices

Our investments include marketable equity securities and equity derivative instruments. We typically do not attempt to reduce or eliminate our equity market exposure through hedging activities at the inception of our investments. Before we enter into hedge arrangements, we evaluate legal, market, and economic factors, as well as the expected timing of disposal to determine whether hedging is appropriate. Our equity market risk management program may include equity derivatives with or without hedge accounting designation that utilize warrants, equity options, or other equity derivatives.

We also utilize total return swaps to offset changes in liabilities related to the equity market risks of certain deferred compensation arrangements. Gains and losses from changes in fair value of these total return swaps are generally offset by the losses and gains on the related liabilities.

As of April 2, 2016, the fair value of our marketable equity investments and our equity derivative instruments, including hedging positions, was $6.4 billion ($6.0 billion as of December 26, 2015). Substantially all of our marketable equity investments portfolio as of April 2, 2016, was concentrated in our investment in ASML Holding N.V. ("ASML") of $6.3 billion ($5.7 billion as of December 26, 2015). Our marketable equity method investments are excluded from our analysis, as the carrying value does not fluctuate based on market price changes unless an other-than-temporary impairment is deemed necessary. To determine reasonably possible decreases in the market value of our marketable equity investments, we have analyzed the historical market price sensitivity of our marketable equity investment portfolio. Assuming a decline of 30% in market prices, and after reflecting the impact of hedges and offsetting positions, the aggregate value of our marketable equity investments could decrease by approximately $2.0 billion, based on the value as of April 2, 2016 (a decrease in value of approximately $1.8 billion, based on the value as of December 26, 2015 using an assumed decline of 30%).

Many of the same factors that could result in an adverse movement of equity market prices affect our non-marketable equity investments, although we cannot always quantify the impact directly. Financial markets are volatile, which could negatively affect the prospects of the companies we invest in, their ability to raise additional capital, and the likelihood of our ability to realize value in our investments through liquidity events such as initial public offerings, mergers, and private sales. These types of investments involve a great deal of risk, and there can be no assurance that any specific company will grow or become successful; consequently, we could lose all or part of our investment. Our non-marketable cost method equity investments had a carrying amount of $2.9 billion as of April 2, 2016 ($2.9 billion as of December 26, 2015) and included our Beijing UniSpreadtrum Technology Ltd. ("UniSpreadtrum") and Cloudera investments of $966 million and $454 million, respectively ($966 million and $454 million for UniSpreadtrum and Cloudera, respectively, as of December 26, 2015). The carrying amount of our non-marketable equity method investments was $1.6 billion as of April 2, 2016 ($1.6 billion as of December 26, 2015). A majority of our non-marketable equity method investments balance as of April 2, 2016 was concentrated in our MFT and Cloudera investments of $872 million and $250 million, respectively ($872 million and $256 million for IMFT and Cloudera, respectively, as of December 26, 2015).

2.4 Commodity Price Risk

Although we operate facilities that consume commodities, we are not directly affected by commodity price risk to a material degree. We have established forecasted transaction risk management programs to protect against fluctuations in the fair value and the volatility of future cash flows caused by changes in commodity prices. In addition, we have sourcing plans in place for our key commodities that mitigate the risk of a potential supplier concentration. For further information on commodity price risk, see "Note 6: Derivative Financial Instruments" in Part II, Item 8 of Intel's Form 10-K.

SECTION B — SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION CONCERNING INTEL CORPORATION AND THE SPP

I. THE OUTLINE

1.1 Purpose of the SPP

The purpose of the SPP is to provide an opportunity for eligible employees of Intel and its Participating Subsidiaries to purchase Shares of Intel and thereby to have an additional incentive to contribute to the prosperity of Intel.

1.2 Shares Offered Under the SPP

A total of 373 million Shares are currently reserved for issuance under the SPP. As of April 2, 2016, approximately 172 million Shares remain available for future issuance, representing 3.64% of the approximately 4,722 million Shares outstanding as of April 22, 2016. Such number is subject to adjustments effected in accordance with the SPP. Each Share has a par value of $0.001.

Subject to certain limited exceptions set forth in the SPP and as described in more detail below, on the Commencement Date (as provided in Section 1.4 below) of each Subscription Period (as provided in Section 1.3 below), each Participant in such Subscription Period shall be granted a subscription right consisting of an option to purchase on the last trading day of each Subscription Period (the "Purchase Date") the number of whole Shares obtained by dividing the aggregate amount of the Participant's accumulated payroll deductions in his or her SPP account on the last Purchase Date by the applicable Purchase Price (as provided in Section 1.4 below).

No subscription right will be granted on a Commencement Date to any person who is not, on such Commencement Date, an eligible employee (as provided in Section 2 below). No Participant may purchase more than 72,000 Shares in a given Subscription Period. If the number of Shares to be credited to a Participant's SPP account exceeds this limit, the Participant's SPP account will be credited with the maximum number of Shares permissible, and any accumulated payroll deductions not used to purchase Shares will be refunded in cash to the Participant. Notwithstanding any provision of the SPP to the contrary, no subscription right will entitle a Participant to purchase Shares under the SPP at a rate which, when aggregated with such Participant's rights to purchase Shares under all other employee stock purchase plans of Intel or any of its subsidiaries intended to meet the requirements of Section 423 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), exceeds $25,000 in market value (or such other limit, if any, as may be imposed by the Code) for each calendar year in which such subscription right has been outstanding at any time. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the market value of Shares purchased during a given Subscription Period will be determined as of the Commencement Date for such Subscription Period.

If there is any change in the number of outstanding Shares because of a merger, consolidation, spin-off, reorganization, recapitalization, dividend in property other than cash, stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend, liquidating dividend, combination, reclassification of the Shares (including any such change in the number of Shares effected in connection with a change in the Company's domicile) or any similar change in the capital structure of the Company, equitable adjustments will be made in the number of Shares subject to the SPP and each outstanding subscription right and in the Purchase Price, as determined by the Board, in its sole discretion. The adjustments determined by the Board shall be binding and conclusive on Participants and on any other persons claiming rights under the SPP.

In the event of the proposed liquidation or dissolution of Intel, the Subscription Period will terminate immediately before such proposed transaction closes (unless otherwise provided by the Board in its sole discretion), all outstanding subscription rights will automatically terminate and all accumulated payroll deductions will be refunded without interest to the Participants.

In the event of a proposed sale of all or substantially all of Intel's assets, or the merger or consolidation or similar combination of Intel with or into another entity, then in the sole discretion of the Board, one of the following will be implemented, (1) each subscription right shall be assumed or substituted by the successor corporation or its parent or subsidiary, (2) all outstanding subscription rights shall be automatically exercised on a date established by the Board that is to be treated as a Purchase Date on or before the date of closing of such transaction, (3) all outstanding subscription rights shall terminate and the accumulated payroll deductions will be refunded without interest to the Participants, or (4) outstanding subscription rights shall remain unchanged.

1.3 Subscription Period

The SPP is generally implemented by a series of six-month Subscription Periods, with new Subscription Periods commencing on each February 20 and August 20, and ending on the last trading day in the six-month periods ending on the following August 19 and February 19, respectively, or on such other date as the Committee shall determine.

1.4 Purchase Price

The Purchase Price for a Subscription Period will be the lower of (1) 85% (or such higher percentage designated by the Committee) of the "market value" of the Shares on the last trading day before February 1 for the Subscription Period beginning on February 20 and August 1 for the Subscription Period beginning on August 20 (the "Commencement Date") or (2) 85% (or such higher percentage designated by the Committee) of the "market value" of the Shares on the last day of the Subscription Period (the "Purchase Date"). "Market value" is the average of the highest and lowest selling price reported on NASDAQ on the applicable date. The Committee may change the percentage of market value applied to determine the Purchase Price with respect to any future Subscription Period, but not to below 85%, and the Committee may determine with respect to any future Subscription Period that the Purchase Price will be a percentage of the market value of the Shares on the last day of the Subscription Period.

1.5 Purchase of Shares

On each Purchase Date of a Subscription Period, each Participant who has not withdrawn from the SPP and whose participation in the offering has not terminated before such Purchase Date, will automatically purchase the number of whole Shares determined by dividing (a) the aggregate amount of the Participant's payroll deductions accumulated in the Participant's SPP account during the Subscription Period and not previously applied toward the purchase of Shares by (b) the Purchase Price for that Subscription Period. No fractional Shares will be credited or issued to a Participant's account. If the aggregate number of Shares subscribed for in any Subscription Period exceeds the number of Shares that remain available for sale under the SPP, the number of Shares each Participant may purchase will be proportionately reduced. Subject to the other limitations in the SPP, no Participant may purchase more than 72,000 Shares in a Subscription Period. If the number of whole Shares to be credited to a Participant's SPP account in a Subscription Period exceeds this limit, the Participant's SPP account will be credited with the maximum number of Shares permissible, and any accumulated payroll deductions not used to purchase Shares will be refunded in cash without interest.

Any cash balance remaining in a Participant's SPP account following any Purchase Date will be refunded to the Participant as soon as practicable after such Purchase Date. However, if the cash to be returned to a Participant is an amount which is insufficient to purchase an additional whole Share on such Purchase Date, the Committee may in its discretion direct Intel to retain such amount in the Participant's SPP account to be applied toward the purchase of Shares in the subsequent Subscription Period; however, after the effective date of the SPP amendments approved by the Board on January 20, 2016

(as provided in Section 1.7 below), such amounts will be refunded to the Participant and will not be carried forward.

1.6 Term of the SPP

The SPP will continue in effect until August 31, 2021, unless it is earlier terminated by the Board.

1.7 Termination or Amendment of the SPP

The Board may amend, modify or terminate the SPP at any time without notice, provided that no amendment may be adopted without the approval of the stockholders that would increase the total number of Shares subject to the SPP (except for recapitalization) or adopt other amendments for which stockholder approval is required under applicable law.

The SPP was initially approved by Intel's stockholders at the stockholders' meeting held on May 17, 2006, and has been amended from time to time. The most recent stockholder approved amendment was to extend the term of the SPP to 2021. This amendment was approved by the Board on March 18, 2015, and by the stockholders on May 21, 2015. On January 20, 2016, the Committee approved amendments to the SPP, none of which required stockholder approval. The main amendments were made to facilitate SPP offerings to employees and subsidiaries outside the U.S. (e.g., broadening the eligibility to seasonal and part-time employees) and to realign the Enrollment Periods worldwide. Other formal and technical changes were made (such as eliminating the carry forward of unused payroll deductions). The amendments are anticipated to go into effect on January 1, 2017. The employees will be informed accordingly.

II. ELIGIBILITY

2.1 Eligible Employees

Employees of Intel and certain of its subsidiaries are eligible to participate in the SPP. The subsidiaries whose employees are entitled to participate (the "Participating Subsidiaries") may be changed from time to time by the Committee. The discretion in determining which subsidiaries will be Participating Subsidiaries has been delegated by the Committee to the Company's Senior Vice President of Human Resources.

Employees of Intel and Participating Subsidiaries who were employed on the Commencement Date before an Enrollment Period begins are generally eligible to participate in the SPP and will be deemed an eligible employee. However, employees are not eligible to participate in the SPP if they would immediately after the Purchase Date of a Subscription Period own (directly or indirectly) stock, which when added to Shares that the employees may purchase under subscription rights under the SPP, amounts to 5% or more of the total combined voting power or value of all classes of stock of Intel. In addition, the Committee may establish administrative rules requiring that employment commence some minimum period (not to exceed 30 days) before an Enrollment Period begins.

Employees may not purchase Shares under the SPP in any one calendar year in which the right to purchase Shares has been outstanding at any time in an amount which, when added to Shares the employees are entitled to purchase under similar plans, exceeds $25,000 in market value (determined when rights to participate arise).

2.2 Participation of Eligible Employees

An eligible employee who wants to enroll and participate in the SPP must file a completed subscription agreement form (which includes a payroll deduction authorization) with Intel or its participating subsidiaries with the regional stock plan administrators during an Enrollment Period. In the U.S., the Enrollment Period currently is February 1 through February 19 for the Subscription Period beginning February 20, and the Enrollment Period currently is August 1 through August 19 for the Subscription Period beginning August 20. For all Wind River subsidiaries, the Enrollment Period is from January 1 through February 12 for the Subscription Period beginning February 20, and the Enrollment Period is July 1 through August 12 for the Subscription Period beginning August 20. For all other subsidiaries in Austria, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Ireland, the Netherlands, Poland, Romania, Sweden and the United Kingdom, the Enrollment Period is January 1 through January 31 for the Subscription Period beginning February 20, and the Enrollment Period is July 1 through July 31 for the Subscription Period beginning August 20. As detailed in Section 1.7 and E.3 above, the Committee approved an amendment to the SPP to realign the Enrollment Periods worldwide.

The subscription agreement form authorizes Intel, Wind River or Altera to withhold automatically a whole percentage of a Participant's eligible compensation (as defined in Section 2.3 below) through regular payroll deductions, and the amount of the deduction is credited to a SPP account in the participant's name on Intel's, Wind River's or Altera's books during the Subscription Period. The minimum payroll deduction allowed is 2% of the Participant's eligible compensation, and the maximum payroll deduction is 5% of the Participant's eligible compensation (or such other percentages as the Committee may establish before an Enrollment Period begins). However, Participants will not be able to purchase more than $25,000 in market value of Shares (as determined on the applicable Commencement Date) in any calendar year in which the right to purchase Shares is outstanding. No interest shall be paid or credited with respect to such payroll deductions.

A Participant will automatically participate in the next Subscription Period commencing immediately after the final Purchase Date of each Subscription Period in which the Participant participates provided that such Participant remains an eligible employee on the Enrollment Date of the new Subscription Period and has not either withdrawn from the SPP or terminated employment. A Participant who may automatically participate in a subsequent Subscription Period is not required to deliver an additional subscription agreement form for the subsequent Subscription Period in order to continue participation in the SPP.

2.3 Payroll Deductions

Shares acquired pursuant to the exercise of subscription rights may be paid for only by means of payroll deductions from the Participant's eligible compensation accumulated during the Subscription Period for which such subscription right was granted (however, if local law outside the U.S. does not permit payroll deductions, the Committee may modify the procedure for the payment of the Purchase Price to conform to such laws). A Participant's eligible compensation includes salary, commissions, overtime, shift differentials, certain bonuses paid from QPB or Intel's Annual Performance Bonus program (the "APB"), or the equivalent Wind River bonus program, and all or any portion of any item of compensation considered by the Company to be part of the Participant's regular earnings, but excluding items not considered by the Company to be part of the Participant's regular earnings. Under the QPB, Intel pays eligible employees cash bonuses each January, April, July and October based on Intel's profits and each eligible employee's daily pay. Generally, full-time employees, part-time employees and interns are eligible to participate in the QPB. Under the APB, each regular full-time, regular part-time and noncommissioned employee earns an annual bonus based on Intel's net income and the employee's business unit's performance. Items excluded from Participant's regular earnings include, but are not limited to, relocation bonuses, expense reimbursements, certain bonuses paid in connection with mergers and acquisitions ("M&A"), author incentives, recruitment and referral bonuses, foreign service premiums, differentials and allowances, other equity award income (such as income from stock options and RSUs granted under the 2006 Equity Incentive Plan (the "2006 Plan")), and tuition and other reimbursements. However, for Wind River employees, a Participant's eligible compensation includes salary, wages (including amounts elected to be deferred by such employee, that would otherwise have been paid, under any cash or deferred arrangement or other deferred compensation program established by Wind River or a subsidiary), overtime pay, commissions, bonuses (ICP, MBO), and other remuneration paid directly to such employee, but excluding profit sharing, the cost of employee benefits paid for by Wind River or a subsidiary, education or tuition reimbursements, imputed income arising under any Wind River or subsidiary group insurance or benefit program, traveling expenses, business and moving expense reimbursements, income received in connection with stock options, contributions made by Wind River or a subsidiary under any employee benefit plan, and similar items of compensation.

Except as otherwise provided in the SPP, the amount to be deducted under the SPP from a Participant's eligible compensation on each payday during a Subscription Period will be determined by the Participant's completed subscription agreement form. The subscription agreement form will set forth the percentage of the Participant's eligible compensation to be deducted on each payday during a Subscription Period in whole percentages of not less than 2% or more than 5% (or such other percentages as the Committee may establish before a Commencement Date).

Participants may change their rate of contribution for the next Subscription Period by filing a new subscription agreement form during the applicable Enrollment Period. If a Participant has not followed such procedures to change the rate of contribution, the rate of contribution shall continue at the originally elected rate throughout the Subscription Period and future Subscription Periods. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent necessary to comply with the limit under Section 423(b)(8) of the Code for a given calendar year in which the right to purchase shares is outstanding, the Committee may reduce a Participant's payroll deductions to 0% percent at any time during a Subscription Period scheduled to end during such calendar year. Participants may decrease, but may not increase, their rate of contribution in whole percentages one time only during any Subscription Period by filing a contribution reduction form. An election to decrease the rate of contribution will be effective as soon as administratively feasible.

2.4 Discontinuance of Participation of Participants

During a Subscription Period, Participants may withdraw from participation in the SPP at any time before the last 48 hours of such Subscription Period by submitting a completed withdrawal and refund of money form in the manner specified by the Committee. Participants may also withdraw from participation in the SPP during an Enrollment Period by submitting a completed withdrawal and refund of money form prior to the end of such Enrollment Period. Upon withdrawal from participation, the balance in the Participant's SPP account will be refunded to him or her without interest, his or her right to participate in the current Subscription Period will be automatically terminated, and no further payroll deductions for the purchase of Shares will be made during the Subscription Period. A Participant who voluntarily withdraws from the SPP is prohibited from resuming participation in the SPP in the same Subscription Period from which he or she withdrew, but may participate in any subsequent Subscription Period by again satisfying the requirements of eligibility and enrolling in the SPP by submitting a completed subscription agreement form. The Committee may change the rules pertaining to the timing of withdrawals, limiting the frequency with which Participants may withdraw and re-enroll in the SPP, and may impose a waiting period on Participants who want to re-enroll following withdrawal.

2.5 Termination of Employment of Participants

Upon a Participant's termination of employment with Intel or a Participating Subsidiary for any reason (including death) prior to a Purchase Date, the Participant's participation in the SPP will terminate immediately. If a Participant's termination of employment occurs within a certain period of time specified by the Committee (not to exceed 30 days) prior to the Purchase Date of the then current Subscription Period, the aggregate amount of such Participant's payroll deductions accumulated in his or her SPP account not previously applied toward the purchase of Shares will, as soon as practicable, be returned to the Participant or, in the case of death, to the Participant's heirs or estate, without interest.

III. DELIVERY AND SALE OF THE SHARES

As soon as practicable after each Purchase Date, the Company will arrange the delivery to each Participant, as appropriate, of a record of the Shares purchased and the balance of any amount of payroll deductions credited to the Participant's SPP account not used for the purchase of Shares. However, the Company may deliver such Shares to a broker or designated agent that holds such Shares in the Participant's name for his or her benefit, and may use electronic or automated methods of share transfer. The Committee may require that Shares be retained with such broker or agent for a designated period of time and/or may establish other procedures to permit tracking of the sale of such Shares to ensure compliance with applicable local laws. Subject to any applicable shareholding period required by the Committee, the Participant may sell the Shares purchased on his or her behalf after such Shares are delivered to him or her.

Participants may also elect for their Shares to automatically be sold one to two days after the Purchase Date. Because there is a time difference between when the Shares are purchased and when they can be sold, there is no guarantee that Participants will receive the full discount or receive more than the Purchase Price of the Shares.

Participants may not assign their subscription or other rights under the SPP to any other person in any way (other than by will, the laws of descent and distribution) and any attempted assignment will be void.

IV. RIGHTS RELATED TO THE SHARES

4.1 Type and the Class of the Securities Being Offered, Including the Security Identification Code

As of April 2, 2016, Intel was authorized to issue 10,000 million Shares and 50 million shares of preferred stock, par value $0.001 per share. As of April 22, 2016, there were approximately 4,722 million Shares outstanding, and there were no shares of preferred stock outstanding.

The Shares are listed on the NASDAQ under the symbol "INTC." The CUSIP number for the Shares is 458140-10-0.

4.2 Legislation Under Which the Securities Have Been Created

The Shares were created under the DGCL. Except as otherwise expressly required under the laws of a country, the SPP and all rights thereunder shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, U.S.A.

4.3 Form of Securities, Name and Address of the Entity in Charge of Keeping the Records

In general, stockholders may hold Shares, at their choosing, either registered in their name or street name form. Shares that are registered in their name are kept by Intel's transfer agent, Computershare Investor Services LLC ("Computershare"). The address and telephone number for Computershare are:

Regular delivery:	Overnight:	Telephone:
Computershare, Inc.	Computershare Inc.	+1 (800) 298-0146 (domestic)
P.O. Box 43078	250 Royall Street	+1 (312) 360-5123(international)
Providence, RI 02940, U.S.A.	Canton, MA 02021, U.S.A.

The Company's designated SPP broker for Intel and Altera employees (starting with the February 2017 purchase) is currently UBS Financial Services, Inc. ("UBS"). The address and telephone number of UBS are:

UBS Financial Services Inc.
 1000 Harbor Boulevard
 Weehawken, NJ 07086, U.S.A.
 +1 (866) 785-4682 (domestic)
 +1 (201) 272-7537 (international)

However, for employees of Altera (for the August 2016 purchase) and Wind River, wholly owned subsidiaries of Intel, the designated SPP broker is currently E*TRADE Financial Corporate Services, Inc. ("E*TRADE"). The address and telephone number of E*TRADE are:

E*TRADE Financial Corporate Services, Inc.
 4005 Windward Plaza Drive
 Alpharetta, GA 30005, U.S.A.

Commissions

There is no charge to Participants for the acquisition or holding of the Shares under the SPP and/or the Irish Plans. Commissions related to the sale of Shares are described below.

The SEC imposes a fee on the transfer of the Shares. This fee is paid to the SEC at the time of sale and is required for all equity trades. Upon selling the Shares, the Participant will be charged a fee equal to $0.0000218 multiplied by the total principal amount of the sale proceeds. The SEC will publish a revised fee rate 30 days after the SEC's regular appropriation for fiscal year 2016 is enacted, and this new fee rate will become effective 60 days after the appropriation is enacted.

In addition, UBS imposes a fee for the sale of Shares equal to $0.03 per Share with a daily cap on fees of $1,000 per person. UBS also charges a $10 international wire transfer fee. In addition to the SEC fees, for employees of Wind River, E*TRADE imposes a fee for the sale of Shares equal to $19.95 per trade and a processing fee for international check requests or for wiring sale proceeds. The fee for the sale of Shares acquired under the Irish Plans depends on the broker chosen by an Irish Participant.

4.4 Currency of the Securities Issue

The United States Dollar is the currency of the securities issue. Participants assume the risk of any currency fluctuations at the time of (i) their contribution to the SPP by payroll deductions and (ii) the selling of their Shares.

4.5 Rights Attached to the Securities

No Participant shall have any voting, dividend, or other stockholder rights with respect to any offering under the SPP until the Shares have been purchased on behalf of the Participant. Following such purchase, the Participant shall be entitled to the rights attached to the Shares, as further described below:

Dividend Rights. Dividend rights are provided for in the Bylaws. Under the DGCL and subject to preferences that may apply to shares of Intel preferred stock outstanding at the time, the holders of outstanding Shares are entitled to receive dividends either (1) out of the surplus, or (2) in case there shall be no such surplus, out of the company's net profits for the fiscal year in which the dividend is declared and/or the preceding fiscal year as Intel's Board may from time to time determine (see Section 170 of the DGCL).

Intel's total dividend payments were $4.6 billion in 2015 compared to $4.4 billion in 2014 and $4.5 billion in 2013. As of December 26, 2015, Intel has paid a cash dividend in each of the past 93 quarters. In January 2016, the Board declared a cash dividend of $0.26 per Share for first quarter of 2016. The dividend was payable on March 1, 2016 to stockholders of record on February 7, 2016. In March 2016, the Board declared a cash dividend of $0.26 per Share for second quarter of 2016. The dividend was payable on June 1, 2016 to stockholders of record on May 7, 2016.

Voting Rights. Meetings of Intel's stockholders shall be held at such place, either within or without the State of Delaware, as may be designated from time to time by the Board, or, if not so designated, then at the office of the Company required to be maintained pursuant to Section 2 of Article I of the Bylaws. The annual meetings of Intel's stockholders for the purpose of election of directors, and for such other business as may lawfully come before them, shall be held on such date and at such time as may be designated from time to time by the Board, but in no event more than fifteen (15) months after the date of the preceding annual meeting.

Except as otherwise provided by law or the Certificate of Incorporation, written notice (as the term "written" is defined in Article XII in the Bylaws) of each meeting of stockholders, specifying the place, if any, date and hour of the meeting; the means of remote communications, if any, by which stockholders and proxy holders may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such meeting; and the purpose or purposes of the meeting, shall be given not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote thereat, directed to the stockholders in accordance with the procedures set forth in Article X in the Bylaws. Notice shall be deemed to have been given to all stockholders of record who share an address if notice is given in accordance with the "householding" rules set forth in Rule 14a-3(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

At all meetings of stockholders, except where otherwise provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or the Bylaws, the presence, in person or by proxy duly authorized, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Shares, the voting of which at said meeting have been enjoined, or which for any reason cannot be lawfully voted at such meeting, shall not be counted to determine a quorum at said meeting. In the absence of a quorum, any meeting of stockholders may be adjourned, from time to time, by vote of the holders of a majority of the shares represented thereat, but no other business shall be transacted at such meeting. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the original meeting. The stockholders present at a duly called or convened meeting, at which a quorum is present, may continue to transact business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough stockholders to leave less than a quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or the Bylaws, all action taken by the holders of a majority of the voting power represented at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be valid and binding upon the corporation.

Except as otherwise provided by law, only persons in whose names shares entitled to vote stand on the stock records of the corporation on the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to vote at a meeting shall be entitled to vote at such meeting. Shares standing in the names of two (2) or more persons shall be voted or represented in accordance with the determination of the majority of such persons, or, if only one (1) of such persons is present in person or represented by proxy, such person shall have the right to vote such shares and such shares shall be deemed to be represented for the purpose of determining a quorum. Every person entitled to vote shall have the right to do so either in person or by an agent or agents authorized by a written proxy executed by such person or his duly authorized agent, which proxy shall be filed with the Secretary of the corporation at or before the meeting at which it is to be used. Said proxy so appointed need not be a stockholder. No proxy shall be voted on after three (3) years from its date unless the proxy provides for a longer period.

A quorum of the Board shall consist of a majority of the exact number of directors fixed from time to time in accordance with Section 1 of Article III of the Bylaws, but not less than one (1); provided, however, at any meeting whether a quorum be present or otherwise, a majority of the directors present may adjourn from time to time until the time fixed for the next regular meeting of the Board, without notice other than by announcement at the meeting. At each meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present, all questions and business shall be determined by a vote of a majority of the directors present, unless a different vote be required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or the Bylaws.

Except as provided in Section 3 of Article III of the Bylaws, each director shall be elected by the vote of the majority of the votes cast with respect to the director at any meeting for the election of directors at which a quorum is present, provided that if as of a date that is fourteen (14) days in advance of the date the corporation files its definitive proxy statement (regardless of whether or not thereafter revised or supplemented) with the SEC the number of nominees exceeds the number of directors to be elected, the directors shall be elected by the vote of a plurality of the shares represented in person or by proxy at any such meeting and entitled to vote on the election of directors. For purposes of this section, a majority of the votes cast means that the number of shares voted “for” a director must exceed the number of votes cast against that director.

Pursuant to Section 242 of the DGCL, after a corporation has received payment for any of its capital stock, it may amend its certificate of incorporation, from time to time, in any and as many respects as may be desired, so long as its certificate of incorporation as amended would contain only such provisions as it would be lawful and proper to insert in an original certificate of incorporation filed at the time of the filing of the amendment; and, if a change in stock or the rights of stockholders, or an exchange, reclassification, subdivision, combination or cancellation of stock or rights of stockholders is to be made, such provisions as may be necessary to effect such change, exchange, reclassification, subdivision, combination or cancellation. In particular, and without limitation upon such general power of amendment, a corporation may amend its certificate of incorporation, from time to time, so as:

- (1) To change its corporate name; or
- (2) To change, substitute, enlarge or diminish the nature of its business or its corporate powers and purposes; or
- (3) To increase or decrease its authorized capital stock or to reclassify the same, by changing the number, par value, designations, preferences, or relative, participating, optional, or other special rights of the shares, or the qualifications, limitations or restrictions of such rights, or by changing shares with par value into shares without par value, or shares without par value into shares with par value either with or without increasing or decreasing the number of shares, or by subdividing or combining the outstanding shares of any class or series of a class of shares into a greater or lesser number of outstanding shares; or
- (4) To cancel or otherwise affect the right of the holders of the shares of any class to receive dividends which have accrued but have not been declared; or
- (5) To create new classes of stock having rights and preferences either prior and superior or subordinate and inferior to the stock of any class then authorized, whether issued or unissued; or
- (6) To change the period of its duration.

Any or all such changes or alterations may be effected by one certificate of amendment.

The board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the amendment proposed, declaring its advisability, and either calling a special meeting of the stockholders entitled to vote in respect thereof for the consideration of such amendment or directing that the amendment proposed be considered at the next annual meeting of the stockholders. Such special or annual meeting shall be called and held upon written notice given not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting as of the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to notice of the meeting. The notice shall set forth such amendment in full or a brief summary of the changes to be effected thereby, as the directors shall deem advisable. At the meeting a vote of the stockholders entitled to vote thereon shall be taken for and against the proposed amendment. If a majority of the outstanding stock entitled to vote thereon, and a majority of the outstanding stock of each class entitled to vote thereon as a class has been voted in favor of the amendment, a certificate setting forth the amendment and certifying that such amendment has been duly adopted in accordance with Section 242 of the DGCL shall be executed, acknowledged and filed and shall become effective.

Right to Receive Liquidation Distributions. Upon a liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of Intel, the assets legally available for distribution to stockholders are distributable ratably among the holders of Shares outstanding at that time after payment of any liquidation preferences on any outstanding preferred stock.

No Preemptive, Redemptive or Conversion Provisions. The Shares are not entitled to preemptive rights and are not subject to conversion or redemption.

4.6 Transferability

The Shares offered under the SPP are registered on a registration statement on Form S-8 with the SEC and are generally freely transferable. Please refer to Section B. 5.4 of this prospectus with respect to the Irish Plans.

The SPP is intended to provide Shares for investment and not for resale. The Company does not, however, intend to restrict or influence any Participant in the conduct of his or her own affairs. A Participant, therefore, may sell Shares purchased under the SPP at any time he or she chooses, subject to compliance with any applicable securities laws. THE PARTICIPANT ASSUMES THE RISK OF ANY MARKET FLUCTUATIONS IN THE PRICE OF THE SHARES.

4.7 General Provisions Applying to Business Combinations

Intel is subject to Section 203 of the DGCL, which, subject to certain exceptions, prohibits a Delaware corporation from engaging in any "business combination" with an "interested stockholder" for a period of three (3) years following the time that such stockholder became an interested stockholder, unless:

- the board of directors of the corporation approves either the business combination or the transaction that resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, prior to the time the interested stockholder attained that status;
- upon the closing of the transaction that resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, the interested stockholder owned at least eighty-five (85%) of the voting stock of the corporation outstanding at the time the transaction commenced, excluding for purposes of determining the number of shares outstanding (but not the outstanding voting stock owned by the interested stockholder), those shares owned (i) by persons who are directors and also officers and (ii) by employee stock plans in which employee participants do not have the right to determine confidentially whether shares held subject to the plan will be tendered in a tender or exchange offer; or
- at or subsequent to such time, the business combination is approved by the board of directors and authorized at an annual or special meeting of stockholders, and not by written consent, by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding voting stock that is not owned by the interested stockholder.

With certain exceptions, an "interested stockholder" under Section 203 of the DGCL is a person or group who or which owns fifteen percent (15%) or more of the corporation's outstanding voting stock (including any rights to acquire stock pursuant to an option, warrant, agreement, arrangement or understanding, or upon the exercise of conversion or exchange rights, and stock with respect to which the person has voting rights only), or is an affiliate or associate of the corporation and was the owner of fifteen percent (15%) or more of such voting stock at any time within the previous three (3) years.

In general, Section 203 of the DGCL defines a business combination to include:

- any merger or consolidation involving the corporation or any of its subsidiaries with the interested stockholder;
- any sale, transfer, pledge or other disposition of ten percent (10%) or more of the assets of the corporation involving the interested stockholder;

- subject to certain exceptions, any transaction that results in the issuance or transfer by the corporation of any stock of the corporation or any of its subsidiaries to the interested stockholder;
- any transaction involving the corporation or any of its subsidiaries that has the effect of increasing the proportionate share of the stock or any class or series of the corporation or of any such subsidiary beneficially owned by the interested stockholder; or
- the receipt by the interested stockholder of the benefit of any loans, advances, guarantees, pledges or other financial benefits provided by or through the corporation or any of its subsidiaries.

A Delaware corporation, such as Intel, may "opt out" of this provision with an express provision in its original certificate of incorporation or an express provision in its certificate of incorporation or bylaws resulting from a stockholders' amendment approved by at least a majority of the outstanding voting shares. However, Intel has not "opted out" of this provision. Section 203 could prohibit or delay mergers or other takeover or change-in-control attempts and, accordingly, may discourage attempts to acquire Intel.

Section 253 of the DGCL authorizes the board of directors of a Delaware corporation that owns ninety percent (90%) or more of each of the outstanding classes of stock of a subsidiary that are entitled to vote on a merger to merge the subsidiary into itself without any requirement for action to be taken by the board of directors of the subsidiary.

Section 251(h) of the DGCL, subject to certain exceptions, permits parties entering into a merger agreement to "opt in" to eliminate a target stockholder vote on a back-end merger following a tender or exchange offer in which the acquirer accumulates sufficient shares to approve the merger agreement (a majority unless the target has adopted a higher vote requirement) but less than the 90% necessary to effect a short-form merger.

V. THE IRISH PLANS

5.1 Purpose of the Irish Plans

The purpose of the Irish Plans is to provide employees of the Company and its participating subsidiaries in Ireland an opportunity to purchase Shares under a tax-favored arrangement.

5.2 Eligibility

To be eligible to participate, an individual must be an Intel regular full-time or an Intel regular part-time employee of Intel Ireland from whom Intel deducts pay-as-you-earn ("PAYE") tax and Pay Related Social Insurance ("PRSI"), and the benefits apply only in respect of the period of service for which such deductions are actually made. The individual must be an active employee on the day on which the Shares are purchased.

5.3 Participation in the Irish Plans

The Irish Plans are offered to employees four times each year. The Intel Ireland Profit Sharing Scheme is offered to eligible employees of Intel Ireland Limited, and Intel Shannon Profit Sharing Scheme is offered to eligible employees of Intel Research and Development Ireland Ltd. In July and October 2016 and April 2017 employees may make contributions from the QPB towards the purchase of Shares. In January 2017, employees may make contributions from the APB and QPB towards the purchase of Shares. Under the QPB, Intel pays eligible employees cash bonuses each January, April, July and October based on Intel's profits and the total cost of a day's pay for all eligible employees worldwide. Generally, full-time employees, part-time employees and interns are eligible to participate in the QPB.

Eligible employees are offered participation in the Irish Plans and may decide to enroll by completing the enrollment process by the deadline prior to each offering period as determined by the Company. To participate in the Irish Plans, eligible employees must complete the Annual Performance Bonus (APB) Election Form on the Company's intranet. Eligible employees may elect to allocate all or part of the Bonus in whole percentages, subject to the applicable limitations set forth in the Annual Performance Bonus (APB) Election Form, to acquire Shares. Eligible Employees may cancel their investment in the Irish Plans by electing 0% of the Bonus and any funds remaining in their Irish Plan account will be paid to them in cash without interest.

The maximum amount of annual contributions an employee may make to the Irish Plans is €12,700 from bonuses. An employee can invest an APB target of 1.01% of Base pay multiplied by the multiplier, into the Irish Plans.

If an employee chooses not to participate, he or she is not required to invest his or her bonuses towards the purchase of Shares in the Irish Plans.

The purchase price will be the market price per Share on the NASDAQ on the date the Shares are purchased.

5.4 Trustee and Delivery of Shares

The trust is administered by a trustee, Mercer Ltd. at Share Schemes Department – CHG-8, Charlotte House, Charlemont Street, Dublin 2, Ireland, or such other trustee as the Company may appoint. The trustee will acquire the Shares on the open market on the NASDAQ and hold them on the Irish Participant's behalf. The trustee will provide details of the Shares purchased to each Irish Participant. The trustee is also the recordkeeper and administrator of the Irish Plans.

Shares will remain in the trustee's name for the period of retention (as defined in the Irish Plans). During this period of retention (which is normally two years from the date of the allocation), the Irish Participant may not sell, gift or pledge the Shares unless (i) the Irish Participant ceases to be an employee due to injury, disability or redundancy or (ii) the Irish Participant reaches the age of 66.

After two years, the Irish Participant may instruct the trustee to sell or transfer the Shares. However, if the Irish Participant instructs the trustee to sell or transfer Shares within three years from the date of allocation, the Irish Participant will be liable for income tax on the purchase price of the Shares and the income tax due will be offset against the tax liability at sale. Accordingly, the trustee will generally hold the Shares for three years from the date of allocation, unless instructed otherwise. Provided the Shares are not sold before the three years following the date of allocation, no income tax will be due on the value of the Shares and capital gains tax ("CGT") will be due at sale. Please also refer to Section B. 13.6 of this prospectus.

During the time the Shares are held by the trustee, the Irish Participant can give written instructions to the trustee with regard to the exercise of the rights attached to the Shares.

On May 19, 2016, subsequent to the end of the first quarter of 2016, Intel issued $500 million aggregate principal amount of 1.700% Senior Notes due 2021 (the “2021 Notes”), $1.00 billion aggregate principal amount of 2.600% Senior Notes due 2026 (the “2026 Notes”) and $1.25 billion aggregate principal amount of 4.100% Senior Notes due 2046 (the “2046 Notes” and, together with the 2021 Notes and the 2026 Notes, the “Notes”). The aggregate principal amount of the Notes is $2.75 billion, and the net proceeds from the offering are approximately $2.74 billion, before expenses and before deducting underwriting discounts.

6.3 Indirect and Contingent Indebtedness

The information contained in this Section 6.3 is excerpted from (i) “Note 17: Commitments” of Intel’s Form 10-K; and (ii) “Note 21. Contingencies” of Intel’s Form 10-Q.

Commitments

A portion of our capital equipment and certain facilities are under operating leases that expire at various dates through 2030. Additionally, portions of our real property are under leases that expire at various dates through 2062. Rental expense was $253 million in 2015 ($257 million in 2014 and $270 million in 2013).

Minimum rental commitments under all non-cancelable leases with an initial term in excess of one year were as follows as of December 26, 2015:

(In Millions)
2016	$	234
2017		209
2018		167
2019		144
2020		120
2021 and thereafter		326
Total	$	1,200

Commitments for construction or purchase of property, plant and equipment totaled $5.7 billion as of December 26, 2015 ($3.5 billion as of December 27, 2014), a majority of which will be due within the next 12 months. Other purchase obligations and commitments totaled approximately $4.0 billion as of December 26, 2015 (approximately $2.5 billion as of December 27, 2014). Other purchase obligations and commitments include payments due under various types of licenses and agreements to purchase goods or services, as well as payments due under non-contingent funding obligations. Funding obligations include agreements to fund various projects with other companies. In addition, we have various contractual commitments with Micron Technology, Inc. and IMFT. For further information on these contractual commitments, see "Note 5: Cash and Investments" in Intel's Form 10-K.

During 2012, we entered into a series of agreements with ASML intended to accelerate the development of extreme ultraviolet lithography projects and deep ultraviolet immersion lithography projects, including generic developments applicable to both 300mm and 450mm. Certain of these agreements were amended in 2014. Under the amended agreements, Intel agreed to provide R&D funding totaling €829 million over five years and committed to advance purchase orders for a specified number of tools from ASML. Our remaining obligation, contingent upon ASML achieving certain milestones, is approximately €367 million, or $403 million, as of December 26, 2015. As our obligation is contingent upon ASML achieving certain milestones, we have excluded this obligation from other purchase obligations and commitments.

Legal Proceedings

We are a party to various legal proceedings, including those noted in this section. Although management at present believes that the ultimate outcome of these proceedings, individually and in the aggregate, will not materially harm our financial position, results of operations, cash flows, or overall trends, legal proceedings and related government investigations are subject to inherent uncertainties, and unfavorable rulings or other events could occur. Unfavorable resolutions could include substantial monetary damages. In addition, in matters for which injunctive relief or other conduct remedies are sought, unfavorable resolutions could include an injunction or other order prohibiting us from selling one or more products at all or in particular ways, precluding particular business practices, or requiring other remedies. An unfavorable outcome may result in a material adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial position, and overall trends. We might also conclude that settling one or more such matters is in the best interests of our stockholders, employees and customers, and any such settlement could include substantial payments. Except as specifically described below, we have not concluded that settlement of any of the legal proceedings noted in this section is appropriate at this time.

Government Competition Matters and Consumer Class Actions

A number of proceedings generally have challenged and continue to challenge certain of our competitive practices. The allegations in these proceedings vary and are described in more detail in the following paragraphs. In general, they contend that we improperly conditioned price rebates and other discounts on our microprocessors on exclusive or near-exclusive dealing by some of our customers; and they allege that our software compiler business unfairly preferred Intel® microprocessors over competing microprocessors and that, through the use of our compilers and other means, we have caused the dissemination of inaccurate and misleading benchmark results concerning our microprocessors. Based on the procedural posture of the various remaining competition matters, which we describe in the following paragraphs, our investment of resources to explain and defend our position has declined as compared to the period 2005-2011. Nonetheless, certain of the matters remain active, and these challenges could continue for a number of years, potentially requiring us to invest additional resources. We believe that we compete lawfully and that our marketing, business, intellectual property, and other challenged practices benefit our customers and our stockholders, and we will continue to conduct a vigorous defense in the remaining proceedings.

In 2001, the European Commission ("EC") commenced an investigation regarding claims by Advanced Micro Devices, Inc. ("AMD") that we used unfair business practices to persuade customers to buy our microprocessors. We received numerous requests for information and documents from the EC and we responded to each of those requests. The EC issued a Statement of Objections in July 2007 and held a hearing on that Statement in March 2008. The EC issued a Supplemental Statement of Objections in July 2008. In May 2009, the EC issued a decision finding that we had violated Article 82 of the EC Treaty and Article 54 of the European Economic Area Agreement. In general, the EC found that we violated Article 82 (later renumbered as Article 102 by a new treaty) by offering alleged "conditional rebates and payments" that required our customers to purchase all or most of their x86 microprocessors from us. The EC also found that we violated Article 82 by making alleged "payments to prevent sales of specific rival products." The EC imposed a fine in the amount of €1.1 billion ($1.4 billion as of May 2009), which we subsequently paid during the third quarter of 2009, and ordered us to "immediately bring to an end the infringement referred to in" the EC decision.

The EC decision contained no specific direction on whether or how we should modify our business practices. Instead, the decision stated that we should "cease and desist" from further conduct that, in the EC's opinion, would violate applicable law. We took steps, which are subject to the EC's ongoing review, to comply with that decision pending appeal. We had discussions with the EC to better understand the decision and to explain changes to our business practices.

We appealed the EC decision to the Court of First Instance (which has been renamed the General Court) in July 2009. The hearing of our appeal took place in July 2012. In June 2014, the General Court rejected our appeal in its entirety. In August 2014, we filed an appeal with the European Court of Justice. In November 2014, Intervener Association for Competitive Technologies filed comments in support of Intel's grounds of appeal. The EC and interveners filed briefs in November 2014, we filed a reply in February 2015, and the EC filed a rejoinder in April 2015. The Court of Justice has scheduled oral argument for June 2016.

At least 82 separate class-action lawsuits were filed in the U.S. District Courts for the Northern District of California, Southern District of California, District of Idaho, District of Nebraska, District of New Mexico, District of Maine, and District of Delaware, as well as in various California, Kansas, and Tennessee state courts. These actions generally repeat the allegations made in a now-settled lawsuit filed against us by AMD in June 2005 in the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware (AMD litigation). Like the AMD litigation, these class-action lawsuits allege that we engaged in various actions in violation of the Sherman Act and other laws by, among other things: providing discounts and rebates to our manufacturer and distributor customers conditioned on exclusive or near-exclusive dealing that allegedly unfairly interfered with AMD's ability to sell its microprocessors; interfering with certain AMD product launches; and interfering with AMD's participation in certain industry standards-setting groups. The class actions allege various consumer injuries, including that consumers in various states have been injured by paying higher prices for computers containing our microprocessors.

All of the federal and state class actions other than the California class actions were transferred by the Multidistrict Litigation Panel to the U.S. District Court in Delaware for all pre-trial proceedings and discovery (MDL proceedings). The Delaware district court appointed a Special Master to address issues in the MDL proceedings, as assigned by the court. In July 2010, the Special Master denied the MDL plaintiffs' motion to certify a class of members who purchased certain personal computers containing products sold by us. In July 2014, the district court affirmed the Special Master's ruling and issued an order denying the MDL plaintiffs' motion for class certification. In August 2014, plaintiffs filed a petition for interlocutory appeal of the district court's decision with the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, which the Third Circuit denied in October 2014. In December 2014, we filed a motion for summary judgment on the claims of the remaining individual plaintiffs. We subsequently negotiated a settlement of the claims and the case was dismissed in September 2015.

All California class actions were consolidated in the Superior Court of California in Santa Clara County. In March 2008, the plaintiffs in the California actions moved for class certification, which we opposed. In February 2015, the court granted plaintiffs' request for leave to retain a new expert and to amend their previous motion for class certification. In March 2016, the court denied plaintiffs' amended class certification motion, and plaintiffs filed a motion for reconsideration, which is scheduled for hearing in June 2016. Given the procedural posture and the nature of these cases, we are unable to make a reasonable estimate of the potential loss or range of losses, if any, arising from these matters.

Shareholder Derivative Litigation regarding In re High Tech Employee Antitrust Litigation

In March 2014, the Police Retirement System of St. Louis ("PRSSL") filed a shareholder derivative action in the Superior Court of California in Santa Clara County against Intel, certain current and former members of our Board, and a current officer. The complaint alleges that the defendants breached their duties to the company by participating in, or allowing, purported antitrust violations, which were alleged in a now-settled antitrust class action lawsuit captioned In re High Tech Employee Antitrust Litigation claiming that Intel, Adobe Systems Incorporated, Apple Inc., Google Inc., Intuit Inc., Lucasfilm Ltd., and Pixar conspired to suppress their employees' compensation. In March 2014, a second plaintiff, Barbara Templeton, filed a substantially similar derivative suit in the same court. In May 2014, a third shareholder, Robert Achermann, filed a substantially similar derivative action in the same court. The court consolidated the three actions into one, which is captioned In re Intel Corporation Shareholder Derivative Litigation. Plaintiffs filed a consolidated complaint in July 2014. In August 2015, the court granted our motion to dismiss the consolidated complaint. The plaintiffs thereafter filed a motion for reconsideration and a motion for new trial, both of which the court denied in October 2015. In November 2015, plaintiffs PRSSL and Templeton appealed the court's decision.

In June 2015, the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers ("IBEW") filed a shareholder derivative action in the Chancery Court in Delaware against Intel, certain current and former members of our Board, and a current officer. The lawsuit makes allegations that are substantially similar to those in the California shareholder derivative litigation described above, but contain additional allegations regarding breach of the duty of disclosure surrounding the In re High Tech Employee Antitrust Litigation and that the Intel 2013 and 2014 proxy statements were false and misleading in that they misrepresented the effectiveness of the Board's oversight of compliance issues at Intel and the Board's compliance with Intel's Code of Conduct and Board of Director Guidelines on Significant Corporate Governance Issues. In October 2015, the court stayed the IBEW lawsuit for six months pending further developments in the California case. In March 2016, Intel and IBEW entered into a stipulated dismissal pursuant to which IBEW dismissed its complaint but may re-file upon the withdrawal or final resolution of the appeal in the California shareholder derivative litigation.

In April 2016, John Esposito filed a shareholder derivative action in the Superior Court of California in Santa Clara County against Intel, current members of our Board, and certain former officers and employees. Esposito made a demand on our Board in 2013 to investigate whether our officers or directors should be sued for their participation in the events described in In re High Tech Employee Antitrust Litigation. In November 2015, our Board decided not to take further action on Esposito's demand based on the recommendation of the Audit Committee of the Board after its investigation of relevant facts and circumstances. Esposito seeks to set aside such decision, and alleges that the Board was not disinterested in making that decision and that the investigation was inadequate.

McAfee, Inc. Shareholder Litigation

On August 19, 2010, we announced that we had agreed to acquire all of the common stock of McAfee, Inc. ("McAfee") for $48.00 per share. Four McAfee shareholders filed putative class-action lawsuits in Santa Clara County, California Superior Court challenging the proposed transaction. The cases were ordered consolidated in September 2010. Plaintiffs filed an amended complaint that named former McAfee board members, McAfee and Intel as defendants, and alleged that the McAfee board members breached their fiduciary duties and that McAfee and Intel aided and abetted those breaches of duty. The complaint requested rescission of the merger agreement, such other equitable relief as the court may deem proper, and an award of damages in an unspecified amount. In June 2012, the plaintiffs' damages expert asserted that the value of a McAfee share for the purposes of assessing damages should be $62.08.

In January 2012, the court certified the action as a class action, appointed the Central Pension Laborers' Fund to act as the class representative, and scheduled trial to begin in January 2013. In March 2012, defendants filed a petition with the California Court of Appeal for a writ of mandate to reverse the class certification order; the petition was denied in June 2012. In March 2012, at defendants' request, the court held that plaintiffs were not entitled to a jury trial, and ordered a bench trial. In April 2012, plaintiffs filed a petition with the California Court of Appeal for a writ of mandate to reverse that order, which the court of appeal denied in July 2012. In August 2012, defendants filed a motion for summary judgment. The trial court granted that motion in November 2012, and entered final judgment in the case in February 2013. In April 2013, plaintiffs appealed the final judgment. Intel, McAfee, and McAfee's board of directors filed an opposition to plaintiff's appeal in December 2014. Because the resolution of the appeal may materially impact the scope and nature of the proceeding, we are unable to make a reasonable estimate of the potential loss or range of losses, if any, arising from this matter. We dispute the class-action claims and intend to continue to defend the lawsuit vigorously.

VII. MAXIMUM DILUTION AND NET PROCEEDS

7.1 Maximum Dilution

The Shares under the SPP are offered pursuant to this prospectus to approximately 16,390 eligible employees (as of March 2016) in Austria, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Ireland, the Netherlands, Poland, Romania, Sweden and the United Kingdom. As indicated in Section 1.2 above, the maximum rate at which employees may purchase newly-issued Shares under the SPP may not exceed $25,000 worth of Shares (based on the market value of Shares as determined on the Commencement Date of each Subscription Period) per calendar year in which the right is outstanding at any time. However, as noted above, there are other limitations on Share purchases (such as Participants may not purchase more than 72,000 Shares per Subscription Period and no more than 5% of eligible compensation may be contributed for SPP purchases) which may result in employees not being able to purchase $25,000 worth of Shares in a calendar year.

Intel's Subscription Periods consist of the six-month periods commencing on each February 20 and August 20. Assuming that the Participants did not participate in the prior Subscription Period, the SPP limitations in addition to the $25,000 limitation described above are not exceeded and eligible employees enroll in the Subscription Period beginning on August 20, 2016, each Participant would be able to purchase a maximum of 793 whole Shares in February 2017 for a maximum of $21,226.23 in contributions per person. These amounts are calculated based on a hypothetical market value of $31.49 on May 26, 2016, which would result in a hypothetical Purchase Price of $26.767 (85% of $31.49) for the Subscription Periods which begin on August 20, 2016 and February 20, 2017. Participants would also be able to purchase additional Shares during the next Subscription Period (i.e., February 20, 2017 – August 19, 2017). Assuming that the Participants participate in the next Subscription Period and the SPP limitations in addition to the $25,000 limitation described above are not exceeded, each Participant would again be able to purchase a maximum of 793 whole Shares in August 2017, for a maximum of $21,226.23 in contributions per person. Assuming that all of the Participants would each purchase 1,586 Shares in the Subscription Periods beginning August 20, 2016 and February 20, 2017, the maximum number of newly issued Shares offered pursuant to this prospectus amounts to 25,994,540 Shares.

Based on the above assumptions, the holdings of a stockholder of Intel currently holding one percent (1%) of the total outstanding Share capital of Intel as of April 22, 2016, that is 47,220,000 Shares, and who would not participate in the offering, would be diluted as indicated in the following dilution table:

	Percentage of the total outstanding Shares	Total number of outstanding Shares
Before the offering (as of April 22, 2016)	1.00%	4,722,000,000
After issuance of 25,994,540 Shares under the SPP	0.9945%	4,747,994,540

7.2 Net Proceeds

Assuming the 16,390 eligible employees in Austria, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Ireland, the Netherlands, Poland, Romania, Sweden and the United Kingdom would purchase the maximum amount of Shares under the SPP offered pursuant to this prospectus, that is, a total of $42,452.46 each, then the gross proceeds to Intel in connection with the offer under the SPP pursuant to this prospectus would be $695,795,819.40. After deducting legal and accounting expenses in connection with the offer, the net proceeds, based on the above assumptions, would be approximately $695,695,819.40

PUBLIC BOARDS:
Workday, Inc.

Aneel Bhusri has been Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") at Workday, Inc. ("Workday"), a provider of enterprise cloud applications for human resources and finance headquartered in Pleasanton, California, since May 2014. Mr. Bhusri has served as a director of Workday from 2005 to the present, as President from January 2007 to September 2009, as Co-CEO from September 2009 to May 2014, and as Chairman from January 2012 to May 2014. He has also been a partner at Greylock Partners, a venture capital firm, from 1999 to 2015, and currently serves as an advisory partner. Before co-founding Workday in 2005, Mr. Bhusri held a number of leadership positions at PeopleSoft, including Senior Vice President responsible for product strategy, business development, and marketing, and vice chairman of the board. Mr. Bhusri received an MBA from Stanford University and holds bachelor's degrees in electrical engineering and economics from Brown University. He is a Crown Fellow at the Aspen Institute.

Mr. Bhusri brings to the Board senior leadership, cloud computing expertise, and operational experience from his experience as CEO and chairman of an enterprise cloud applications company, his prior work in product, marketing, and business development of another human resources application company, and his role as partner of several venture capital firms. Mr. Bhusri's more than 20 years of experience in enterprise software innovation and cloud computing brings depth to the Board in areas that are important to Intel's business and in today's connected world.

Andy D. Bryant

OTHER CURRENT PUBLIC BOARDS:
Columbia Sportswear
and McKesson
Corporation

Andy D. Bryant has been Chairman of the Board since May 2012. Mr. Bryant served as Vice Chairman of the Board from July 2011 to May 2012. Mr. Bryant joined Intel in 1981, became CFO in February 1994, and was promoted to Senior Vice President in January 1999. In December 1999, he was promoted to Executive Vice President and his role expanded to Chief Financial and Enterprise Services Officer. In October 2007, Mr. Bryant was named Chief Administrative Officer ("CAO"), a position he held until January 2012. In 2009, Mr. Bryant's responsibilities expanded to include the Technology and Manufacturing Group. Mr. Bryant serves on the board of directors of Columbia Sportswear and McKesson Corporation.

Mr. Bryant brings senior leadership, financial, strategic, and global expertise to the Board from his former service as CFO and CAO of Intel. Mr. Bryant has budgeting, accounting controls, and forecasting experience and expertise from his work in Intel Finance, as CFO and as CAO. Mr. Bryant has been responsible for manufacturing, human resources, information technology, and finance. Mr. Bryant has regularly attended Intel Board meetings for more than 18 years in his capacity as CFO and CAO, and has direct experience as a board member through his service on other public company boards. After evaluating the Board's corporate governance guideline regarding retirement of corporate officers, the Board determined to re-nominate Mr. Bryant because it believes that Mr. Bryant continues to be best positioned to support the independent directors through his service as a key member and Chairman of the Board with strong leadership skills and financial experience. The Board believes that Mr. Bryant's contributions since becoming Chairman in 2012 and his expertise and experience are invaluable to the Board in the current climate. The Board, therefore, decided to nominate Mr. Bryant for an additional term as a director and Chairman of the Board.

On April 19, 2016, Intel announced a CFO succession plan. Mr. Smith, will transition to a new role at the Company, leading sales, manufacturing and operations once his successor is in place. The Company is beginning a formal search process for a new CFO that will assess both internal and external candidates. Mr. Smith will remain firmly focused on his CFO role and duties throughout the search and transition process.

8.3 Fraudulent Offences and Bankruptcy, Etc.

For at least the previous five (5) years, none of the directors or executive officers of Intel has:

- (a) been convicted in relation to fraudulent offenses;
- (b) been associated with any bankruptcies, receiverships or liquidations when acting in their capacity of directors or executive officers of Intel; or
- (c) been subject to any official public incrimination and/or sanctions by statutory or regulatory securities, commodities, commercial or investment authorities (including designated professional bodies) or ever been disqualified by a court from acting as a member of the administrative, management or supervisory bodies of an issuer or from acting in the management or conduct of the affairs of any issuer.

There is no family relationship among any Intel executive officers or directors.

8.4 Conflicts of Interest

Director Independence

The Board has determined that each of the following non-employee directors qualifies as “independent” in accordance with the published listing requirements of NASDAQ: Ambassador Barshefsky, Mr. Bhusri, Ms. Decker, Mr. Donahoe, Mr. Hundt, Dr. Plummer, Mr. Pottruck, Mr. Yeary, and Dr. Yoffie. Because Mr. Krzanich and Mr. Bryant are employed by Intel, they do not qualify as independent.

The NASDAQ rules have objective tests and a subjective test for determining who is an “independent director.” Under the objective tests, a director cannot be considered independent if:

- The director is, or at any time during the past three years was, an employee of the company;
- The director or a family member of the director accepted any compensation from the company in excess of $120,000 during any period of 12 consecutive months within the three years preceding the independence determination (subject to certain exclusions, including, among other things, compensation for Board or Board committee service);
- A family member of the director is, or at any time during the past three years was, an executive officer of the company;
- The director or a family member of the director is a partner in, a controlling stockholder of, or an executive officer of an entity to which the company made, or from which the company received, payments in the current or any of the past three fiscal years that exceeded 5% of the recipient’s consolidated gross revenue for that year, or $200,000, whichever was greater (subject to certain exclusions);
- The director or a family member of the director is employed as an executive officer of an entity for which at any time during the past three years, any of the executive officers of the company served on the compensation committee of such other entity; or
- The director or a family member of the director is a current partner of the company’s outside auditor, or at any time during the past three years was a partner or employee of the company’s outside auditor, and who worked on the company’s audit.

The subjective test states that an independent director must be a person who lacks a relationship that, in the opinion of the Board, would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a director. The Board has not established categorical standards or guidelines to make these subjective determinations, but considers all relevant facts and circumstances.

In addition to the Board-level standards for director independence, the directors who serve on the Audit Committee each satisfy standards established by the SEC, as no member of the Audit Committee accepts directly or indirectly any consulting, advisory, or other compensatory fee from the company other than their director compensation, or otherwise has an affiliate relationship with the company. Similarly, the members of the Compensation Committee each qualify as independent under NASDAQ standards. Under these standards, the Board considered that none of the members of the Compensation Committee accept directly or indirectly any consulting, advisory, or other compensatory fee from the company other than their director compensation, and that none have any affiliate relationships with the company or other relationships that would impair the director’s judgment as a member of the Compensation Committee.

Transactions Considered in Independence Determinations

In making its independence determinations, the Board considered transactions that occurred since the beginning of 2013 between Intel and entities associated with the independent directors or members of their immediate families.

All of the non-employee directors qualified as “independent” under the objective tests. In making its subjective determination that each non-employee director is independent, the Board reviewed and discussed additional information provided by the directors and the company with regard to each director’s business and personal activities as they may relate to Intel and Intel’s management. The Board considered the transactions in the context of the NASDAQ objective standards, the special standards established by the SEC and NASDAQ for members of audit and compensation committees, and the special SEC and U.S. Internal Revenue Service standards for compensation committee members. Based on this review, as required by the NASDAQ rules, the Board made a subjective determination that, based on the nature of the directors' relationships with the entity and/or the amount involved, no relationships exist that, in the opinion of the Board, impair the directors' independence. The Board's independence determinations took into account the following transactions:

Business Relationships. Each of our non-employee directors or one of his or her immediate family members is, or was during the previous three fiscal years, a non-management director, trustee, advisor, or executive or served in a similar position at another entity that did business with Intel at some time during those years. The business relationships were ordinary course dealings as a supplier or purchaser of goods or services; licensing or research arrangements; facility, engineering, and equipment fees; or commercial paper or similar financing arrangements in which Intel or an affiliate participated as a creditor. Payments to or from each of these entities constituted less than the greater of $200,000 or 1% of each of Intel's and the recipient's annual revenue, respectively, in each of the past three years, except as discussed below.

- Ambassador Barshefsky is a Partner at the law firm WilmerHale. Ambassador Barshefsky does not provide any legal services to Intel, and she does not receive any compensation from the firm that is generated by or related to our payments to the firm. Intel engages a number of law firms, and has engaged WilmerHale in various significant matters since 1997, before Ambassador Barshefsky joined either the firm or Intel's Board. Recognizing that proxy advisory firms have questioned professional advisory relationships between companies and a director's firm, the Board carefully reviewed the nature of Intel's engagement of WilmerHale and the services rendered, including the expertise and relevant experience of the firm, the firm's and specific partners' knowledge of Intel and its business and past legal engagements, and the fees paid in such engagements, and determined that Ambassador Barshefsky's service on Intel's Board should not impair Intel's ability to engage WilmerHale when Intel determines such engagements to be in the best interest of Intel and its stockholders. The Board is satisfied that WilmerHale, when engaged for legal work, is chosen by Intel's legal group on the basis of the directly relevant factors of experience, expertise, and efficiency. The fees and expenses paid WilmerHale represented less than 5% of the firm's annual revenue in each of the past three years, and represented less than 0.1% of Intel's revenue in each year. After considering these fees and expenses and being briefed on the policies and procedures that WilmerHale has instituted to confirm that Ambassador Barshefsky has no professional involvement or financial interest in Intel's dealings with the firm, the Board (with Ambassador Barshefsky recused) unanimously determined that Intel's professional engagement of WilmerHale does not impair Ambassador Barshefsky's independence.
- Mr. Bhusri is CEO and director of Workday, a company with which Intel engages in ordinary course business transactions. The Board carefully reviewed the nature of Intel's transactions with Workday, which primarily related to human resource management solutions contract and software subscription services, and Mr. Bhusri's position as CEO and executive director at Workday. The fees paid Workday represented less than 1.5% of Workday's annual revenue in 2015, and represented less than 0.03% of Intel's revenue in 2015. After considering these fees, the Board (with Mr. Bhusri recused) unanimously determined that Intel's business transactions with Workday do not impair Mr. Bhusri's independence.
- Mr. Bhusri is a member of the board of directors of Cloudera, a company with which Intel holds over 10% ownership interest and engages in ordinary course business transactions. The Board carefully reviewed the nature of Intel's transactions with Cloudera, which primarily related to subscription licenses and software support services, and Mr. Bhusri's position as a non-management director at Cloudera. The fees paid Cloudera represented less than 3.5% of Cloudera's annual revenue in each of the past two years, and represented less than 0.02% of Intel's revenue in each year. After considering these fees, the Board (with Mr. Bhusri recused) unanimously determined that Intel's business transactions with Cloudera do not impair Mr. Bhusri's independence.

- Dr. Plummer is a member of the board of directors of Cadence, a company with which Intel engages in ordinary course business transactions. The Board carefully reviewed the nature of Intel's transactions with Cadence, which primarily related to electronic design automation software services, and technology contracts, and Dr. Plummer's position as a non-management director at Cadence. The fees paid Cadence represented less than 5.4% of Cadence's annual revenue in each of the past three years, and represented less than 0.2% of Intel's revenue in each year. After considering these fees, the Board (with Dr. Plummer recused) unanimously determined that Intel's business transactions with Cadence do not impair Dr. Plummer's independence.

Charitable Contributions. Mr. Donahoe, Mr. Hundt, Dr. Plummer, Mr. Pottruck, Mr. Yeary, Dr. Yoffie, or one of their immediate family members is serving, or has each served during the previous three fiscal years, as an executive, professor, or other employee for one or more colleges or universities or as a director, executive, or employee of a charitable entity that received matching or other charitable contributions from Intel during those years. Charitable contributions to each of these entities (including matching and discretionary contributions by Intel and the Intel Foundation) constituted less than $120,000 in each of the past three years, as discussed below.

- Mr. Hundt was a member of the Advisory Board for the Yale School of Management, the graduate business school of Yale University, from 1996 until 2014. The Intel Foundation contributed less than $5,000 in 2013 and 2014 to match Intel employee charitable contributions to Yale University, amounting to less than 0.001% of Yale University's consolidated annual revenue for each of 2013 and 2014.
- Dr. Plummer is a Professor of Electrical Engineering, and was the Dean of the School of Engineering at Stanford University from 1999 until 2014. The Intel Foundation contributed less than $20,000 in each of the past three years to match Intel employee charitable contributions to Stanford University and employee volunteer hours at Stanford under the Intel Involved Matching Grant Program. The Intel Foundation also contributed $20,000 in 2013 to support the university's RISE (Raising Interest in Science and Engineering) Summer Internship Program for high school students, amounting to less than 0.001% of Stanford's consolidated annual revenue for each of the past three years.
- Mr. Pottruck is a Senior Fellow, Advisory Board Member, and Lecturer at the Wharton School of Business of the University of Pennsylvania. The Intel Foundation contributed less than $15,000 in each of the past three years to match Intel employee charitable contributions to the University of Pennsylvania, amounting to less than 0.001% of the University of Pennsylvania's consolidated annual revenue for each of the past three years.
- Dr. Yoffie is a Professor at Harvard Business School, the graduate business school of Harvard University. The Intel Foundation contributed less than $5,000 in each of the past three years to match Intel employee charitable contributions to Harvard University, amounting to less than 0.001% of Harvard's consolidated annual revenue for each of the past three years.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

The Board's Audit Committee is responsible for review, approval, or ratification of "related-person transactions" involving Intel or its subsidiaries and related persons. Under SEC rules, a "related person" is a director, officer, nominee for director, or a greater than 5% stockholder of the company since the beginning of the previous fiscal year, and their immediate family members. Intel has adopted written policies and procedures that apply to any transaction or series of transactions in which the company or a subsidiary is a participant, the amount involved exceeds $120,000, and a related person has a direct or indirect material interest.

The Audit Committee has determined that, barring additional facts or circumstances, a related person does not have a direct or indirect material interest in the following categories of transactions:

- any transaction with another company for which a related person's only relationship is as an employee (other than an executive officer), director, or beneficial owner of less than 10% of that company's shares, if the amount involved does not exceed the greater of $1 million or 2% of that company's total annual revenue;
- any charitable contribution, grant, or endowment by Intel or the Intel Foundation to a charitable organization, foundation, or university for which a related person's only relationship is as an employee (other than an executive officer) or a director, if the amount involved does not exceed the lesser of $1 million or 2% of the charitable organization's total annual receipts, or any matching contribution, grant, or endowment by the Intel Foundation;
- compensation to executive officers determined by the Compensation Committee;
- compensation to directors determined by the Board;
- transactions in which all security holders receive proportional benefits; and
- banking-related services involving a bank depository of funds, transfer agent, registrar, trustee under a trust indenture, or similar service.

Intel personnel in the Legal and Finance departments review transactions involving related persons that are not included in one of the preceding categories. If they determine that a related person could have a significant interest in such a transaction, the transaction is forwarded to the Audit Committee for review. The Audit Committee determines whether the related person has a material interest in a transaction and may approve, ratify, rescind, or take other action with respect to the transaction in its discretion. The Audit Committee reviews all material facts related to the transaction and takes into account, among other factors it deems appropriate, whether the transaction is on terms no more favorable than terms generally available to an unaffiliated third party under the same or similar circumstances; the extent of the related person's interest in the transaction; and, if applicable, the availability of other sources of comparable products or services.

Since the beginning of 2015, there were no related-person transactions under the relevant standards.

Code of Conduct

Our Code of Conduct applies to our directors with respect to their Intel-related activities, as well as to our executive officers and other employees. We expect our directors, executives, and other employees to avoid any activity that is or has the appearance of being a conflict of interest with Intel. This includes not engaging in activities that compete with or are adverse to Intel, or that interfere with the proper performance of duties or responsibilities to Intel, and not using confidential company information, company assets, or their position at Intel for personal gain in violation of our policy.

Directors and executive officers must inform us of any situation that may be perceived as a conflict of interest with Intel. The Board oversees resolution of any conflict or apparent conflict involving a director or executive officer, and may enlist the Legal department to determine whether a conflict exists, and if so, how to resolve it. Any waivers of these conflict rules with regard to a director or an executive officer require the prior approval of the Board. Our Code of Conduct is our code-of-ethics document. Our Code of Conduct is posted on our web site at www.intel.com/governance

Post-Employment Compensation Arrangements

Intel does not provide change in control benefits to executive officers. Intel provides limited post-employment compensation arrangements to executive officers, including the listed officers i.e., Intel's five current and former executive officers identified in the "Compensation Discussion and Analysis" section of Intel's Definitive Proxy Statement, filed with the SEC on April 4, 2016 ("Intel's Proxy Statement")), consisting of:

- An employee-funded 401(k) savings plan;
- A discretionary company-funded retirement contribution plan, and a company-funded pension plan, each of which is intended to be tax-qualified and available to most U.S. employees;
- A non-tax-qualified supplemental deferred compensation plan for certain highly compensated employees; and
- Retirement acceleration provisions for equity awards.

The company-funded pension plan was closed to new hires starting January 1, 2011.

The Compensation Committee allows the listed officers to participate in these plans to encourage the officers to save for retirement and to assist the company in retaining the listed officers. The terms governing the retirement or deferred compensation benefits under these plans for the executive officers are the same as those available to other eligible employees in the United States.

Intel does not make matching contributions based on the amount of employee contributions under any of these plans. Instead, Intel's contribution consists of a discretionary cash contribution determined annually by the committee for executive officers, and by the CEO for other employees. These contribution percentages have historically been the same for executive officers and other employees but are made to different plans depending on employee grade level and start date.

For 2015, Intel's discretionary contribution (including allocable forfeitures) for eligible U.S. employees, including executive officers, in the applicable plan equaled 5% of eligible salary (which included annual and quarterly incentive cash payments as applicable). To the extent that the amount of the contribution is limited by the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (tax code), Intel credits the additional amount to the non-qualified deferred compensation plan. Effective January 1, 2015, plan assets contributed for U.S. participants and discretionary employer contributions are participant-directed.

Personal Benefits

Intel provides perquisites to executive officers when the Compensation Committee determines that such arrangements are appropriate and consistent with Intel's business objectives. In 2015, Intel offered the listed officers certain financial planning services and provided security arrangements for certain listed officers. In addition, in 2015, our Board determined to enhance the personal security for our CEO in response to specific job-related situations. We do not consider these additional security measures to be a personal benefit for Mr. Krzanich, but rather appropriate expenses for the benefit of Intel that arise out of his employment and are necessary to his job performance. Intel also provides matching charitable contributions for all employees of up to $10,000.

Employment Contracts and Change in Control Arrangements

All of Intel's listed officers are employed at will without employment agreements (subject only to the effect of local labor laws), and we do not maintain any payment arrangements that would be triggered by a "change in control" of Intel. From time to time, we have implemented voluntary separation programs to encourage headcount reduction in particular parts of the company, and these programs have offered separation payments to departing employees. However, executive officers generally have not been eligible for any of these programs or other severance payment arrangements, nor do we generally retain executive officers following retirement on a part-time or consultancy basis.

On July 1, 2015, the company entered into a Transition Agreement with then President James, pursuant to which she agreed to remain in her position until January 29, 2016 in exchange for $4 million.

Other Potential Post-Employment Payments

SEC rules require companies to report the amount of benefits that are triggered by termination of employment. These amounts are reported in the tables under the headings “Accelerated Option Awards” and “Accelerated Stock Awards” in Intel’s Proxy Statement. As noted above, we do not maintain arrangements for listed officers that are triggered by a change in control.

The tables on pages 66 - 67 of Intel’s Proxy Statement report the value of all forms of compensation that would be available to the listed officers upon the specified events, an amount that is sometimes referred to as the “walk-away” amount. This amount includes the value of vested equity awards that the listed officer is entitled to regardless of whether employment is terminated, and the value of vested deferred compensation and retirement benefits that are also reported in the tables above.

The amounts in the tables on pages 66 - 67 of Intel’s Proxy Statement assume that the listed officer left Intel effective December 26, 2015 (except as otherwise noted) and are based on the price per Share on the last trading day of the fiscal year ($34.98 on December 24, 2015). Amounts actually received if any of the listed officers cease to be employed will vary based on factors such as the timing during the year of any such event, the company’s stock price, the listed officer’s age, and any changes to our benefit arrangements and policies.

9.1 Directors’ and Executive Officers’ Holdings of Shares and Options

The following table presents the beneficial ownership of our Shares by each of our directors and listed officers, and all of our directors and executive officers as a group. This information is as of February 25, 2016, except as otherwise indicated in the notes to the table. Amounts reported under “Number of Shares of Common Stock Beneficially Owned as of February 25, 2016” include the number of Shares subject to RSUs and stock options that become exercisable or vest within 60 days of February 25, 2016 (which are shown in the columns to the right). Our listed officers are the CEO, the CFO, and the three other most highly compensated executive officers during 2015. Except as otherwise indicated and subject to applicable community property laws, each owner has sole voting and investment power with respect to the securities listed. Unless indicated otherwise, the address of each person named in the table is c/o Intel Corporation, 2200 Mission College Boulevard, Santa Clara, California 95054, U.S.A.

9.2 Employee Equity Incentive Plans

Our equity incentive plans are broad-based, long-term programs intended to attract and retain talented employees and align stockholder and employee interests.

In May 2015, stockholders approved an extension of the expiration date of the 2006 Equity Incentive Plan (the "2006 Plan") to June 2018 and approved an additional 34 million Shares for issuance. Under the 2006 Plan, 753 million Shares are available for issuance as equity awards to employees and non-employee directors through June 2018. As of April 2, 2016, 252 million Shares remained available for future grant under the 2006 Plan through June 2018.

Going forward, we may assume the equity incentive plans and the outstanding equity awards of certain acquired companies. Once they are assumed, we do not grant additional Shares under those plans. The stock options and RSUs assumed generally retain their terms and conditions as they were originally granted.

In connection with our completed acquisition of Altera, we assumed two of their equity incentive plans with outstanding unvested stock options and RSUs. The assumed stock options and restricted stock units generally retained the terms and conditions under which they were originally granted. We will not grant additional shares under these assumed plans.

We grant RSUs with both a market condition and a service condition (market-based RSUs), referred to in Intel's Proxy Statement as outperformance stock units ("OSUs"), to a group of senior officers, employees, and non-employee directors. For OSUs granted in 2015, the number of Shares to be received at vesting will range from 0% to 200% of the target amount, based on total stockholder return ("TSR") on our Shares measured against the benchmark TSR of a peer group over a three-year period. TSR is a measure of stock price appreciation plus any dividends paid in this performance period. As of December 26, 2015, 4.7 million OSUs were outstanding. These OSUs accrue dividend equivalents and generally vest three years and one month from the grant date. RSU and option awards generally vest over four years from the grant date. Stock options generally expire seven years from the date of grant.

In May 2015, stockholders approved an extension of the expiration date of the SPP to August 2021. The SPP allows eligible employees to purchase Shares at 85% of the value of our Shares on specific dates. Under the SPP, 373 million Shares are available for issuance through August 2021. As of April 2, 2016, 172 million Shares remained available for issuance under the SPP through August 2021.

Restricted Stock Unit Awards

RSU activity in the first three months of 2016 was as follows:

	Number of RSUs (In Millions)	Weighted Average Grant-Date Fair Value
December 26, 2015	107.4	$ 26.93
Granted	8.3	$ 32.39
Assumed in acquisition	7.3	$ 33.79
Vested	(5.3)	$ 28.89
Forfeited	(1.8)	$ 27.47
April 2, 2016	115.9	$ 27.66

The aggregate fair value of awards that vested in the first three months of 2016 was $165 million, which represents the market value of our Shares on the date that the RSUs vested. The grant-date fair value of awards that vested in first three months of 2016 was $153 million. The number of RSUs vested includes Shares that we withheld on behalf of employees to satisfy the minimum statutory tax withholding requirements. RSUs that are expected to vest are net of estimated future forfeitures.

As of April 2, 2016, 6.9 million of the outstanding RSUs were market-based RSUs.

Stock Option Awards

As of December 26, 2015, options outstanding that have vested and are expected to vest were as follows:

	Number of Options (In Millions)	Weighted Average Exercise Price	Weighted Average Remaining Contractual Term (In Years)	Aggregate Intrinsic Value (In Millions)
Vested	43.8	$ 21.07	1.8	$ 609

	Number of Options (In Millions)	Weighted Average Exercise Price	Weighted Average Remaining Contractual Term (In Years)	Aggregate Intrinsic Value (In Millions)
Expected to vest	9.6	$ 24.07	4.1	$ 104
Total	53.4	$ 21.61	2.2	$ 713

Aggregate intrinsic value represents the difference between the exercise price and $34.98, the closing price of our Shares on December 24, 2015, as reported on the NASDAQ, for all in-the-money options outstanding. Options outstanding that are expected to vest are net of estimated future option forfeitures.

Options with a fair value of $42 million completed vesting in 2015 ($68 million in 2014 and $186 million in 2013). As of December 26, 2015, there was $13 million in unrecognized compensation costs related to stock options granted under our equity incentive plans. We expect to recognize those costs over a weighted average period of approximately eight months.

Stock option activity for each period was as follows:

	Number of Options (In Millions)	Weighted Average Exercise Price
December 29, 2012	202.8	$ 20.20
Granted	20.1	$ 22.99
Exercised	(65.0)	$ 18.76
Cancelled and forfeited	(3.0)	$ 22.58
Expired	(1.9)	$ 22.56
December 28, 2013	153.0	$ 21.10

These options will expire if they are not exercised by specific dates through April 2021. Option exercise prices for options exercised during the three-year period ended December 26, 2015 ranged from $1.12 to $27.42.

Stock Purchase Plan

Approximately 77% of our employees were participating in our SPP as of December 26, 2015 (76% in 2014 and 76% in 2013). Employees purchased 15.8 million Shares in 2015 for $421 million under the SPP (19.4 million Shares for $393 million in 2014 and 20.5 million Shares for $369 million in 2013). Employees purchased 9.2 million Shares in the first three months of 2016 for $227 million (8.1 million Shares in the first three months of 2015 for $234 million) under the SPP.

X. WORKING CAPITAL STATEMENT

Intel believes that it has sufficient financial resources to meet its business requirements in the next 12 months, including capital expenditures for worldwide manufacturing and assembly and test; working capital requirements; and potential dividends, common stock repurchases, debt service, acquisitions, and strategic investments.

XI. SELECTED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

11.1 Selected Financial Data

The selected consolidated financial data of Intel set out in this prospectus have been prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP. The following selected consolidated statements of income and statements of cash flows data for the years ended December 26, 2015, December 27, 2014, and December 28, 2013, and selected consolidated balance sheet data as of December 26, 2015, and December 27, 2014, are derived from Intel's audited consolidated financial statements contained on pages 31 and 61 – 123 of Intel's Form 10-K. The selected consolidated balance sheet data as of December 28, 2013, are derived from Intel's audited consolidated financial statements contained on pages 55 – 116 of Intel's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 27, 2014, filed with the SEC on February 13, 2015, which is available, free of charge, on the website of the SEC. The following selected consolidated statements of income and statements of cash flows data for the three months ended April 2, 2016, and March 28, 2015, and consolidated balance sheet data as of April 2, 2016, are derived from Intel's unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements contained on pages 2 – 34 of Intel's Form 10-Q.

(1) In the first quarter of 2016, Intel elected to early adopt an amended U.S. accounting standard requiring that Intel classify all deferred tax assets and liabilities as non-current on the consolidated balance sheet instead of separating deferred taxes into current and non-current. The amended standard was adopted on a retrospective basis and resulting in a reduction of Intel's total assets for all periods presented.

During the fourth quarter of 2015, the closing stock price conversion right condition of the 2009 debentures continues to be met and the debentures will be convertible at the option of the holders during the first quarter of 2016. The excess of the amount of cash payable if converted over the carrying amount of the 2009 debentures was classified as temporary equity on Intel's consolidated balance sheet. For further information, see "Note 15: Borrowings" in Part II, Item 8 of Intel's Form 10-K.

During 2013, 2015 and 2016, management approved several restructuring actions, including targeted workforce reductions as well as exit of certain businesses and facilities. For further information, see "Note 13: Restructuring and Asset Impairment Charges" in Part II, Item 8 of Intel's Form 10-K, and "Note 12.

Restructuring and Asset Impairment Charges" in Part I, Item 1 of Intel's Form 10-Q. Please also refer to the 2016 Restructuring Program described above in Element B.4a.

XII. DOCUMENTS ON DISPLAY

Intel uses its Investor Relations web site, www.intc.com, as a routine channel for distribution of important information, including news releases, analyst presentations, and financial information. Intel posts filings on its website the same day they are electronically filed with, or furnished to, the SEC, including its annual and quarterly reports on Forms 10-K and 10-Q and current reports on Form 8-K; its proxy statements; and any amendments to those reports or statements. Intel posts its quarterly and annual earnings results on its Investor Relations website, at www.intc.com/results.cfm, and does not distribute its financial results via a news wire service. All such postings and filings are available on Intel's Investor Relations web site free of charge. In addition, Intel's Investor Relations web site allows interested persons to sign up to automatically receive e-mail alerts when the Company posts news releases and financial information. The SEC's web site, www.sec.gov, contains reports, proxy and information statements, and other information regarding issuers that file electronically with the SEC.

Intel's Form 10-K, Intel's Form 10-Q and Intel's Proxy Statement, referred to in this prospectus, may be obtained free of charge upon request by an employee.

Intel expects to issue, on July 20, 2016, its earnings release for the quarter ended July 2, 2016. The quarterly report on Form 10-Q for such quarter will be filed with the SEC no later than August 11, 2016. The annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2016, will be filed with the SEC no later than March 1, 2017. These documents will be available on the websites of Intel and the SEC, indicated above.

XIII. TAX CONSEQUENCES

13.1 Austrian Tax Consequences

The following summary is based on the income and social tax laws in effect in Austria as of the date of this prospectus. Tax and other laws are complex and can change frequently. As a result, the information below may be out of date at the time the Participant purchases Shares or sells Shares under the SPP.

The following applies only to Participants who are Austrian residents for tax purposes. If the Participant is a citizen or resident of another country, transfers employment and/or residency between countries after enrollment, or is considered a resident of another country for local law purposes, the income and social tax information below may not be applicable in the same manner. Furthermore, this information is general in nature and does not discuss all of the various laws, rules and regulations that may apply. It may not apply to each Participant's particular tax or financial situation, and Intel is not in a position to assure him or her of any particular tax result.

The Participants are strongly advised to consult their own independent personal tax advisors as to how the tax or other laws in their country apply to their specific situations.

Enrollment in the SPP

The Participant is not subject to tax when he or she enrolls in the SPP or a new Subscription Period begins.

Purchase of Shares

At purchase, the Participant will be subject to income tax and social taxes on the difference between the value of the Shares on the Purchase Date and the Purchase Price.

Dividends

If Shares are acquired under the SPP, dividends may be paid with respect to those Shares if Intel, in its discretion, declares a dividend. Any dividends paid will be subject to tax in Austria if the Participant exceeds both the exemption for dividend income and the exemption for other forms of income not subject to wage tax withholding. Any dividends paid will also be subject to U.S. federal tax withheld at source. The Participant may be entitled to a tax credit in Austria for the U.S. federal tax withheld.

Sale of Shares

When the shares acquired under the SPP are subsequently sold, the Participant will be subject to tax on the difference between the sale price and the value of the Shares on the Purchase Date.

Withholding and Reporting

The Participant's employer is required to report and withhold income tax and social taxes at purchase. It is the Participant's responsibility to report and pay taxes due as a result of the sale of Shares or the receipt of any dividends.

13.2 Danish Tax Consequences

The following summary is based on the income and social tax laws in effect in Denmark as of the date of this prospectus. Tax and other laws are complex and can change frequently. As a result, the information below may be out of date at the time the Participant purchases Shares or sells Shares under the SPP.

The following applies only to Participants who are Danish residents for tax purposes. If the Participant is a citizen or resident of another country, transfers employment and/or residency between countries after enrollment, or is considered a resident of another country for local law purposes, the income and social tax information below may not be applicable in the same manner. Furthermore, this information is general in nature and does not discuss all of the various laws, rules and regulations that may apply. It may not apply to each Participant's particular tax or financial situation, and Intel is not in a position to assure him or her of any particular tax result.

The Participants are strongly advised to consult their own independent personal tax advisors as to how the tax or other laws in their country apply to their specific situations.

Enrollment in the SPP

The Participant is not subject to tax when he or she enrolls in the SPP or a new Subscription Period begins.

Purchase of Shares

At purchase, the Participant will be subject to income tax and social taxes on the difference between the value of the Shares on the Purchase Date and the Purchase Price. Church taxes, which vary by municipality, may also apply.

Dividends

If Shares are acquired under the SPP, dividends may be paid with respect to those Shares if Intel, in its discretion, declares a dividend. Any dividends paid will be subject to share income tax in Denmark and also to U.S. federal tax withheld at source. The Participant may be entitled to a tax credit in Denmark for the U.S. federal tax withheld.

Sale of Shares

When the shares acquired under the SPP are subsequently sold, the Participant will be subject to share income tax on the difference between the sale price and the value of the Shares on the Purchase Date.

Withholding and Reporting

The Participant's employer is required to report, but not withhold income tax or social taxes at purchase. Since no income tax or social tax withholding is required, Participants are responsible for making any required payments directly to the government. It is also the Participant's responsibility to report and pay taxes as a result of the sale of Shares or the receipt of any dividends.

13.3 Finnish Tax Consequences

The following summary is based on the income and social tax laws in effect in Finland as of the date of this prospectus. Tax and other laws are complex and can change frequently. As a result, the information below may be out of date at the time the Participant purchases Shares or sells Shares under the SPP.

The following applies only to Participants who are Finnish residents for tax purposes. If the Participant is a citizen or resident of another country, transfers employment and/or residency between countries after enrollment, or is considered a resident of another country for local law purposes, the income and social tax information below may not be applicable in the same manner. Furthermore, this information is general in nature and does not discuss all of the various laws, rules and regulations that may apply. It may not apply to each Participant's particular tax or financial situation, and Intel is not in a position to assure him or her of any particular tax result.

The Participants are strongly advised to consult their own independent personal tax advisors as to how the tax or other laws in their country apply to their specific situations.

Enrollment in the SPP

The Participant is not subject to tax when he or she enrolls in the SPP or a new Subscription Period begins.

Purchase of Shares

At purchase, the Participant will be subject to income tax, social taxes (including the health insurance premium) and church tax, if applicable, on the difference between the value of the Shares on the Purchase Date and the Purchase Price.

Dividends

If Shares are acquired under the SPP, dividends may be paid with respect to those Shares if Intel, in its discretion, declares a dividend. Any dividends paid will be subject to income tax in Finland and also to U.S. federal tax withheld at source. The Participant may be entitled to a tax credit in Finland for the U.S. federal tax withheld.

Sale of Shares

When the shares acquired under the SPP are subsequently sold, the Participant will be subject to tax, generally on the difference between the sale price and the value of the Shares on the Purchase Date. However, when determining the taxable gain, the Participant may deduct from the sales price of the Shares sold either: (A) the acquisition cost of the Shares (i.e., the purchase price plus the discount at purchase) plus any costs the Participant incurs in connection with the gains, or (B) a deemed acquisition cost of 20% of the sales price. If method (B) is used, no other costs relating to acquiring or selling the Shares can be deducted. If the Shares are held for at least 10 years, a deemed acquisition cost of 40% of the sales price is used for method (B).

Withholding and Reporting

The Participant's employer is required to report and withhold income tax, social taxes (including the health insurance premium) and church tax, if applicable, at purchase. It is the Participant's responsibility to report and pay taxes due as a result of the sale of Shares or the receipt of any dividends.

13.4 French Tax Consequences

The following summary is based on the income and social tax laws in effect in France as of the date of this prospectus. Tax and other laws are complex and can change frequently. As a result, the information below may be out of date at the time the Participant purchases Shares or sells Shares under the SPP.

The following applies only to Participants who are French residents for tax purposes. If the Participant is a citizen or resident of another country, transfers employment and/or residency between countries after enrollment, or is considered a resident of another country for local law purposes, the income and social tax information below may not be applicable in the same manner. Furthermore, this information is general in nature and does not discuss all of the various laws, rules and regulations that may apply. It may not apply to each Participant's particular tax or financial situation, and Intel is not in a position to assure him or her of any particular tax result.

The Participants are strongly advised to consult their own independent personal tax advisors as to how the tax or other laws in their country apply to their specific situations.

Enrollment in the SPP

The Participant is not subject to tax when he or she enrolls in the SPP or a new Subscription Period begins.

Purchase of Shares

At purchase, the Participant will be subject to income tax and social security contributions on the difference between the value of the Shares on the Purchase Date and the Purchase Price.

Wealth Tax

The Shares acquired under the SPP are included in the Participant's personal estate for wealth tax purposes.

Dividends

If Shares are acquired under the SPP, dividends may be paid with respect to those Shares if Intel, in its discretion, declares a dividend. Any dividends paid with respect to the Shares will be subject to personal income tax in France in principle after application of an allowance. The gross amount of any dividends will be subject to additional social taxes in France. The Participant may have to file a tax return and pay advance income tax and social taxes, on the gross amount of the dividends, within 15 days of the month following the receipt of the dividends depending on the Participant's personal tax situation. In the year following the year of receipt of the dividends, the Participant will need to report the amount of the dividends and advance taxes paid in connection with the dividends in his or her tax return and may be entitled to a refund or may need to pay additional personal income tax.

Any dividends paid will also be subject to U.S. federal tax withheld at the source. The Participant may be entitled to a tax credit against his or her French income tax, provided that there is fulfillment of the formalities of the August 31, 1994 tax treaty between France and the United States.

Surtax

An additional 3% surtax on all types of income exceeding €250,000 (for single taxpayers) or €500,000 (for married taxpayers), and a 4% surtax on income exceeding €500,000 (for single taxpayers) or €1,000,000 (for married taxpayers). This surtax will apply to all types of income received during the tax year (including the difference between the value of the Shares on the Purchase Date and the Purchase Price, any capital gains at sale of the Shares and the receipt of any dividends). If the Participant may be subject to the surtax, the Participant should contact his or her personal tax advisor regarding the availability of a surtax reduction.

Sale of Shares

When the shares acquired under the SPP are subsequently sold, the Participant will be subject to tax on the difference between the net sale price and the value of the Shares on the Purchase Date. A rebate may apply, depending on the amount of time the Shares were held. Additional social taxes are also due on the capital gain, a portion of which is deductible for French personal income tax purposes in the year during which the payment of such social taxes is made.

Withholding and Reporting

The Participant's employer is required to report the income but is not required to withhold income tax at purchase, provided the Participant remains a French tax resident and works continuously in France from the start of the relevant Subscription Period to purchase. In this case, since no income tax withholding is required, the Participant is responsible for making any required payments directly to the government.

The Participant's employer will report and withhold social security contributions at purchase. It is the Participant's responsibility to report and pay taxes due as a result of the sale of Shares or the receipt of any dividends.

13.5 German Tax Consequences

The following summary is based on the income and social tax laws in effect in Germany as of the date of this prospectus. Tax and other laws are complex and can change frequently. As a result, the information below may be out of date at the time the Participant purchases Shares or sells Shares under the SPP.

The following applies only to Participants who are German residents for tax purposes. If the Participant is a citizen or resident of another country, transfers employment and/or residency between countries after enrollment, or is considered a resident of another country for local law purposes, the income and social tax information below may not be applicable in the same manner. Furthermore, this information is general in nature and does not discuss all of the various laws, rules and regulations that may apply. It may not apply to each Participant's particular tax or financial situation, and Intel is not in a position to assure him or her of any particular tax result.

The Participants are strongly advised to consult their own independent personal tax advisors as to how the tax or other laws in their country apply to their specific situations.

Enrollment in the SPP

The Participant is not subject to tax when he or she enrolls in the SPP or a new Subscription Period begins.

Purchase of Shares

At purchase, the Participant will be subject to income tax and social taxes on the difference between the value of the Shares on the Purchase Date and the Purchase Price. The Participant will also be subject to a solidarity surcharge and, if applicable, church tax on the income tax liability.

Dividends

If Shares are acquired under the SPP, dividends may be paid with respect to those Shares if Intel, in its discretion, declares a dividend. Any dividends paid will be subject to tax at a flat rate (plus solidarity surcharge and, if applicable, church tax on the tax liability). Any dividends paid will also be subject to U.S. federal tax withheld at source. The Participant may be entitled to a tax credit against his or her German income tax for the U.S. federal tax withheld.

Sale of Shares

When the shares acquired under the SPP are subsequently sold, the Participant will be subject to tax, generally at a flat rate, on the difference between the sale price and the value of the Shares on the Purchase Date (assuming the Participant does not hold, and has not held at any time during the last five years, 1% or more of the stated capital of Intel and the shares are not held as a business asset). The Participant will also be subject to solidarity surcharge and, if applicable, church tax on the tax liability.

Withholding and Reporting

The Participant's employer is required to report and withhold income tax, social taxes, surcharge and, applicable, church tax at purchase. It is the Participant's responsibility to report and pay taxes due as a result of the sale of Shares or the receipt of any dividends.

13.6 Irish Tax Consequences

The following summary is based on the income and social tax laws in effect in Ireland as of the date of this prospectus. Tax and other laws are complex and can change frequently. As a result, the information below may be out of date at the time the Participant purchases Shares or sells Shares under the SPP or Irish Plans, as applicable.

The following applies only to Participants who are Irish residents for tax purposes. If the Participant is a citizen or resident of another country, transfers employment and/or residency between countries after enrollment, or is considered a resident of another country for local law purposes, the income and social tax information below may not be applicable in the same manner. Furthermore, this information is general in nature and does not discuss all of the various laws, rules and regulations that may apply. It may not apply to each Participant's particular tax or financial situation, and Intel is not in a position to assure him or her of any particular tax result.

The Participants are strongly advised to consult their own independent personal tax advisors as to how the tax or other laws in their country apply to their specific situations.

THE SPP

Enrollment in the SPP

The Participant is not subject to tax when he or she enrolls in the SPP or a new Subscription Period begins.

Purchase of Shares

At purchase, the Participant will be subject to income tax, the Universal Social Charge ("USC") and PRSI on the difference between the value of the Shares on the Purchase Date and the Purchase Price.

Dividends

If Shares are acquired under the SPP, dividends may be paid with respect to those Shares if Intel, in its discretion, declares a dividend. Any dividends paid will be subject to tax in Ireland and also to U.S. federal tax withheld at source. The Participant may be entitled to a tax credit against his or her Irish income tax for the U.S. federal tax withheld.

Sale of Shares

When the shares acquired under the SPP are subsequently sold, the Participant will be subject to tax on the difference between the sale price and the value of the Shares on the Purchase Date, subject to the Participant's annual capital gains tax exemption.

Withholding and Reporting

The Participant's employer will withhold and report income tax, the PRSI and the USC at purchase.

The Participant is required to report the purchase of Shares on his or her annual tax return on or before 31 October following the end of the tax year in which the Shares were purchased. It is also the Participant's responsibility to report and pay taxes due as a result of the sale of Shares or the receipt of any dividends.

THE IRISH PLANS

Enrollment in the Irish Plans

The Irish Participant will not be subject to tax when he or she enrolls in the Irish Plans.

Purchase of Shares

The Irish Participant will not be subject to income tax when he or she is allocated Shares under the Irish Plans (assuming applicable limits are not exceeded), but Universal Social Charge ("USC") and PRSI (employee) will be due on the value of the Shares appropriated.

Dividends

If Shares are acquired under the Irish Plans, dividends may be paid with respect to those Shares if Intel, in its discretion, declares a dividend. Any dividends paid will be subject to tax in Ireland and to U.S. federal tax withheld at source. The Irish Participant may be entitled to a tax credit for the U.S. federal tax withheld.

Sale or Transfer of Shares

If the Irish Participant leaves the Shares with the trustee for three years following the purchase, the Irish Participant will have no liability for income tax on the value of the Shares.

If the Irish Participant requests a transfer of Shares from the trustee within three years of allocation, he or she will be required to pay to the trustee, prior to the transfer, an amount equal to the income tax payable at the Irish Participant's marginal income tax rate on the amount the Irish Participant originally paid for the Shares. The trustee will pay this tax to the Revenue Commissioners and it will be set against the Irish Participant's final liability for income tax arising out of the transfer of Shares.

If the sale proceeds of any Shares sold by the trustee on behalf of an Irish Participant or by the Irish Participant are greater than the original value of the Shares acquired under the Irish Plans, then the difference between the sale price and the fair market value of the Shares on the Purchase Date will be subject to capital gains tax ("CGT") to the extent it exceeds the Irish Participant's annual CGT exemption.

Withholding and Reporting

The Irish Participant's employer is not required to withhold income tax or social taxes when the Shares are purchased under the Irish Plans. However, the trustee will report the bonuses granted, the allocation and appropriation of Shares under the Irish Plans, and certain other information to the Revenue Commissioners. It is the Irish Participant's responsibility to report and pay any taxes resulting from the early transfer of Shares, the sale of Shares and the receipt of any dividends.

13.7 Dutch Tax Consequences

The following summary is based on the income and social tax laws in effect in the Netherlands as of the date of this prospectus. Tax and other laws are complex and can change frequently. As a result, the information below may be out of date at the time the Participant purchases Shares or sells Shares under the SPP.

The following applies only to Participants who are Dutch residents for tax purposes. If the Participant is a citizen or resident of another country, transfers employment and/or residency between countries after enrollment, or is considered a resident of another country for local law purposes, the income and social tax information below may not be applicable in the same manner. Furthermore, this information is general in nature and does not discuss all of the various laws, rules and regulations that may apply. It may not apply to each Participant's particular tax or financial situation, and Intel is not in a position to assure him or her of any particular tax result.

The Participants are strongly advised to consult their own independent personal tax advisors as to how the tax or other laws in their country apply to their specific situations.

Enrollment in the SPP

The Participant is not subject to tax when he or she enrolls in the SPP or a new Subscription Period begins.

Purchase of Shares

At purchase, the Participant will be subject to income tax and social taxes on the difference between the value of the Shares on the Purchase Date and the Purchase Price.

Investment Yield Tax

The Shares acquired under the SPP are included in the Participant's personal estate for investment yield tax purposes.

Dividends

If Shares are acquired under the SPP, dividends may be paid with respect to those Shares if Intel, in its discretion, declares a dividend. Any dividends paid will be not subject to tax in the Netherlands (provided the Participant holds less than a 5% interest in Intel as a private investment), but will be subject to U.S. federal tax withheld at source. The Participant may be entitled to a tax credit against his or her Dutch income tax for the U.S. federal tax withheld.

Sale of Shares

When the shares acquired under the SPP are subsequently sold, the Participant will not be subject to tax (provided the Participant holds less than a 5% interest in Intel).

Withholding and Reporting

The Participant's employer is required to report and withhold income tax and social taxes at purchase. It is the Participant's responsibility to report and pay taxes due as a result of the sale of Shares or the receipt of any dividends.

13.8 Polish Tax Consequences

The following summary is based on the income and social tax laws in effect in Poland as of the date of this prospectus. Tax and other laws are complex and can change frequently. As a result, the information below may be out of date at the time the Participant purchases Shares or sells Shares under the SPP.

The following applies only to Participants who are Polish residents for tax purposes. If the Participant is a citizen or resident of another country, transfers employment and/or residency between countries after enrollment, or is considered a resident of another country for local law purposes, the income and social tax information below may not be applicable in the same manner. Furthermore, this information is general in nature and does not discuss all of the various laws, rules and regulations that may apply. It may not apply to each Participant's particular tax or financial situation, and Intel is not in a position to assure him or her of any particular tax result.

The Participants are strongly advised to consult their own independent personal tax advisors as to how the tax or other laws in their country apply to their specific situations.

Enrollment in the SPP

The Participant is not subject to tax when he or she enrolls in the SPP or a new Subscription Period begins.

Purchase of Shares

At purchase, the Participant will be subject to income tax, but not social taxes, on the difference between the value of the Shares on the Purchase Date and the Purchase Price.

Dividends

If Shares are acquired under the SPP, dividends may be paid with respect to those Shares if Intel, in its discretion, declares a dividend. Any dividends paid will be subject to tax in Poland and also to U.S. federal tax withheld at source. The Participant may be entitled to a tax credit against his or her Polish income tax for the U.S. federal tax withheld.

Sale of Shares

When the shares acquired under the SPP are subsequently sold, the Participant will be subject to tax on the difference between the sale price and Purchase Price. However, the portion of the gain at sale that was taxed at purchase should constitute a tax-deductible cost.

Withholding and Reporting

The Participant's employer is not required to report or withhold income tax at purchase. Since no income tax is required, Participants are responsible for making any required payments directly to the government. It is also the Participant's responsibility to report and pay taxes due as a result of the sale of Shares or the receipt of any dividends.

13.9 Romanian Tax Consequences

The following summary is based on the income and social tax laws in effect in Romania as of the date of this prospectus. Tax and other laws are complex and can change frequently. As a result, the information below may be out of date at the time the Participant purchases Shares or sells Shares under the SPP.

The following applies only to Participants who are Romanian residents for tax purposes. If the Participant is a citizen or resident of another country, transfers employment and/or residency between countries after enrollment, or is considered a resident of another country for local law purposes, the income and social tax information below may not be applicable in the same manner. Furthermore, this information is general in nature and does not discuss all of the various laws, rules and regulations that may apply. It may not apply to each Participant's particular tax or financial situation, and Intel is not in a position to assure him or her of any particular tax result.

The Participants are strongly advised to consult their own independent personal tax advisors as to how the tax or other laws in their country apply to their specific situations.

Enrollment in the SPP

The Participant is not subject to tax when he or she enrolls in the SPP (or is offered the opportunity to participate in the SPP).

Purchase of Shares

At purchase, the Participant will be subject to income tax and social insurance contributions on the difference between the value of the Shares on the Purchase Date and the Purchase Price.

Dividends

If Shares are acquired under the SPP, dividends may be paid with respect to those Shares if Intel, in its discretion, declares a dividend. Any dividends paid will be subject to dividend tax in Romania and to U.S. federal withholding tax. The Participant may be entitled to a tax credit in Romania for the U.S. federal tax withheld.

Sale of Shares

When the shares acquired under the SPP are subsequently sold, the Participant will be subject to tax on the difference between the sale price and the value of the Shares on the Purchase Date (or the difference between the sale price and the Purchase Price if the Participant was not taxed at purchase).

Withholding and Reporting

The Participant's employer will withhold and report income tax and social insurance contributions on the taxable amount at purchase. It is the Participant's responsibility to report and pay taxes due as a result of sale of Shares or the receipt of any dividends on his or her own tax return.

13.10 Swedish Tax Consequences

The following summary is based on the income and social tax laws in effect in Sweden as of the date of this prospectus. Tax and other laws are complex and can change frequently. As a result, the information below may be out of date at the time the Participant purchases Shares or sells Shares under the SPP.

The following applies only to Participants who are Swedish residents for tax purposes. If the Participant is a citizen or resident of another country, transfers employment and/or residency between countries after enrollment, or is considered a resident of another country for local law purposes, the income and social tax information below may not be applicable in the same manner. Furthermore, this information is general in nature and does not discuss all of the various laws, rules and regulations that may apply. It may not apply to each Participant's particular tax or financial situation, and Intel is not in a position to assure him or her of any particular tax result.

The Participants are strongly advised to consult their own independent personal tax advisors as to how the tax or other laws in their country apply to their specific situations.

Enrollment in the SPP

The Participant is not subject to tax when he or she enrolls in the SPP or a new Subscription Period begins.

Purchase of Shares

At purchase, the Participant will be subject to income tax, but not social taxes (except the general pension contribution), on the difference between the value of the Shares on the Purchase Date and the Purchase Price.

Dividends

If Shares are acquired under the SPP, dividends may be paid with respect to those Shares if Intel, in its discretion, declares a dividend. Any dividends paid will be subject to capital income tax in Sweden and also to U.S. federal tax withheld at source. The Participant may be entitled to a tax credit in Sweden for the U.S. federal tax withheld.

Sale of Shares

When the shares acquired under the SPP are subsequently sold, the Participant will be subject to tax on the capital gain (i.e., the difference between the sale price and the value of the Shares on the Purchase Date). As an alternative, the Participant may elect to calculate the taxable capital gain as the sale price of the shares less 20%.

Withholding and Reporting

The Participant's employer is required to report and withhold income tax at purchase. It is the Participant's responsibility to report and pay taxes due as a result of the sale of Shares or the receipt of any dividends.

13.11 United Kingdom Tax Consequences

The following summary is based on the income and social tax laws in effect in the United Kingdom (the "U.K.") as of the date of this prospectus. Tax and other laws are complex and can change frequently. As a result, the information below may be out of date at the time the Participant purchases Shares or sells Shares under the SPP.

The following applies only to Participants who are resident and ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom. If the Participant is a citizen or resident of another country, transfers employment and/or residency between countries after enrollment, or is considered a resident of another country for local law purposes or if he or she is not treated as resident, ordinarily resident and domiciled in the United Kingdom, then the income and social tax information below may not be applicable in the same manner. Furthermore, this information is general in nature and does not discuss all of the various laws, rules and regulations that may apply. It may not apply to each Participant's particular tax or financial situation, and Intel is not in a position to assure him or her of any particular tax result.

The Participants are strongly advised to consult their own independent personal tax advisors as to how the tax or other laws in their country apply to their specific situations.

Enrollment in the SPP

The Participant is not subject to tax when he or she enrolls in the SPP or a new Subscription Period begins.

Purchase of Shares

At purchase, the Participant will be subject to income tax and employees' national insurance contributions ("NICs") on the difference between the value of the Shares on the Purchase Date and the Purchase Price.

Dividends

If Shares are acquired under the SPP, dividends may be paid with respect to those Shares if Intel, in its discretion, declares a dividend. Any dividends paid will be subject to tax in the U.K. and to U.S. federal tax withheld at source. The Participant may be entitled to a tax credit against his or her U.K. income tax for the U.S. federal tax withheld.

Sale of Shares

When the shares acquired under the SPP are subsequently sold, the Participant will be subject to tax on the difference between the sale price and the value of the Shares on the Purchase Date, subject to an annual exemption.

Withholding and Reporting

The Participant's employer is required to report and withhold income tax and NICs at purchase. It is the Participant's responsibility to report and pay taxes due as a result of the sale of Shares or the receipt of any dividends.

EXHIBIT I

INTEL CORPORATION 2006 STOCK PURCHASE PLAN, AS AMENDED AND RESTATED

INTEL CORPORATION

2006 STOCK PURCHASE PLAN

SECTION 1. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Plan is to provide an opportunity for Employees of Intel Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“Intel”) and its Participating Subsidiaries (collectively Intel and its Participating Subsidiaries shall be referred to as the “Company”), to purchase Common Stock of Intel and thereby to have an additional incentive to contribute to the prosperity of the Company. It is the intention of the Company that the Plan (excluding any sub-plans thereof except as expressly provided in the terms of such sub-plan) qualify as an “Employee Stock Purchase Plan” under Section 423 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), and the Plan shall be administered in accordance with this intent. In addition, the Plan authorizes the grant of options pursuant to sub-plans or special rules adopted by the Committee designed to achieve desired tax or other objectives in particular locations outside of the United States or to achieve other business objectives in the determination of the Committee, which sub-plans shall not be required to comply with the requirements of Section 423 of the Code or all of the specific provisions of the Plan, including but not limited to terms relating to eligibility, Subscription Periods or Purchase Price.

SECTION 2. DEFINITIONS

- (a) “Applicable Law” shall mean the legal requirements relating to the administration of an employee stock purchase plan under applicable U.S. state corporate laws, U.S. federal and applicable state securities laws, the Code, any stock exchange rules or regulations and the applicable laws of any other country or jurisdiction, as such laws, rules, regulations and requirements shall be in place from time to time.
- (b) “Board” shall mean the Board of Directors of Intel.
- (c) “Code” shall mean the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as such is amended from time to time, and any reference to a section of the Code shall include any successor provision of the Code.
- (d) “Commencement Date” shall mean the last Trading Day prior to February 1 for the Subscription Period commencing on February 20 and the last Trading Day prior to August 1 for the Subscription Period commencing on August 20.
- (e) “Committee” shall mean the Compensation Committee of the Board or the subcommittee, officer or officers designated by the Compensation Committee in accordance with Section 15 of the Plan (to the extent of the duties and responsibilities delegated by the Compensation Committee of the Board).
- (f) “Common Stock” shall mean the common stock of Intel, par value $.001 per share, or any securities into which such Common Stock may be converted.
- (g) “Compensation” shall mean the total compensation paid by the Company to an Employee with respect to a Subscription Period, including salary, commissions, overtime, shift differentials, payouts from Intel’s Employee Cash Bonus Program (ECBP), payouts from the Employee Bonus (EB) program, and all or any portion of any item of compensation considered by the Company to be part of the Employee’s regular earnings, but excluding items not considered by the Company to be part of the Employee’s regular earnings. Items excluded from the definition of “Compensation” include but are not limited to such items as relocation bonuses, expense reimbursements, certain bonuses paid in connection with mergers and acquisitions, author incentives, recruitment and referral bonuses, foreign service premiums, differentials and allowances, imputed income pursuant to Section 79 of the Code, income realized as a result of participation in any stock option, restricted stock, restricted stock unit, stock purchase or similar equity plan maintained by Intel or a Participating Subsidiary, and tuition and other reimbursements. The Committee shall have the authority to determine and approve all forms of pay to be included in the definition of Compensation and may change the definition on a prospective basis.

- (h) "Effective Date" shall mean July 31, 2006.
- (i) "Employee" shall mean an individual classified as an employee (within the meaning of Code Section 3401(c) and the regulations thereunder) by Intel or a Participating Subsidiary on Intel's or such Participating Subsidiary's payroll records during the relevant participation period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no employee of Intel or a Participating Subsidiary shall be included within the definition of "Employee" if such person's customary employment is for less than twenty (20) hours per week or for less than five (5) months per year. Individuals classified as independent contractors, consultants, advisers, or members of the Board are not considered "Employees."
- (j) "Enrollment Period" shall mean, with respect to a given Subscription Period, that period beginning on the first (1st) day of February and August and ending on the nineteenth (19th) day of February and August during which Employees may elect to participate in order to purchase Common Stock at the end of that Subscription Period in accordance with the terms of this Plan. The duration and timing of Enrollment Periods may be changed or modified by the Committee.
- (k) "Exchange Act" shall mean the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended from time to time, and any reference to a section of the Exchange Act shall include any successor provision of the Exchange Act.
- (l) "Market Value" on a given date of determination (e.g., a Commencement Date or Purchase Date, as appropriate) shall mean the value of Common Stock determined as follows: (i) if the Common Stock is listed on any established stock exchange (not including an automated quotation system), its Market Value shall be the closing sales price for a share of the Common Stock (or the closing bid, if no sales were reported) on the date of determination as quoted on such exchange on which the Common Stock has the highest average trading volume, as reported in The Wall Street Journal or such other source as the Committee deems reliable, or (ii) if the Common Stock is listed on a national market system and the highest average trading volume of the Common Stock occurs through that system, its Market Value shall be the average of the high and the low selling prices reported on the date of determination, as reported in The Wall Street Journal or such other source as the Committee deems reliable, or (iii) if the Common Stock is regularly quoted by a recognized securities dealer but selling prices are not reported, its Market Value shall be the average of the mean of the closing bid and asked prices for the Common Stock on the date of such determination, as reported in The Wall Street Journal or such other source as the Committee deems reliable, or, (iv) in the absence of an established market for the Common Stock, the Market Value thereof shall be determined in good faith by the Board.
- (m) "Offering Price" shall mean the Market Value of a share of Common Stock on the Commencement Date for a given Subscription Period.
- (n) "Participant" shall mean a participant in the Plan as described in Section 5 of the Plan.
- (o) "Participating Subsidiary" shall mean a Subsidiary that has been designated by the Committee in its sole discretion as eligible to participate in the Plan with respect to its Employees.
- (p) "Plan" shall mean this 2006 Stock Purchase Plan, including any sub-plans or appendices hereto.
- (q) "Purchase Date" shall mean the last Trading Day of each Subscription Period.
- (r) "Purchase Price" shall have the meaning set out in Section 8(b).
- (s) "Securities Act" shall mean the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended from time to time, and any reference to a section of the Securities Act shall include any successor provision of the Securities Act.
- (t) "Stockholder" shall mean a record holder of shares entitled to vote such shares of Common Stock under Intel's by-laws.
- (u) "Subscription Period" shall mean a period of approximately six (6) months at the end of which an option granted pursuant to the Plan shall be exercised. The Plan shall be implemented by a series of Subscription Periods of approximately six (6) months duration, with new Subscription Periods commencing on each February 20 and August 20 occurring on or after the Effective Date and ending on the last Trading Day in the six (6) month period ending on the following August 19 and February 19, respectively. The duration and timing of Subscription Periods may be changed or modified by the Committee.

- (v) "Subsidiary" shall mean any entity treated as a corporation (other than Intel) in an unbroken chain of corporations beginning with Intel, within the meaning of Code Section 424(f), whether or not such corporation now exists or is hereafter organized or acquired by Intel or a Subsidiary.
- (w) "Trading Day" shall mean a day on which U.S. national stock exchanges and the NASDAQ National Market System are open for trading and the Common Stock is being publicly traded on one or more of such markets.

SECTION 3. ELIGIBILITY

- (a) Any Employee employed by Intel or by any Participating Subsidiary on a Commencement Date shall be eligible to participate in the Plan with respect to the Subscription Period first following such Commencement Date, provided that the Committee may establish administrative rules requiring that employment commence some minimum period (not to exceed 30 days) prior to a Commencement Date to be eligible to participate with respect to such Subscription Period. The Committee may also determine that a designated group of highly compensated Employees is ineligible to participate in the Plan so long as the excluded category fits within the definition of "highly compensated employee" in Code Section 414(q).
- (b) No Employee may participate in the Plan if immediately after an option is granted the Employee owns or is considered to own (within the meaning of Code Section 424(d)) shares of Common Stock, including Common Stock which the Employee may purchase by conversion of convertible securities or under outstanding options granted by Intel or its Subsidiaries, possessing five percent (5%) or more of the total combined voting power or value of all classes of stock of Intel or of any of its Subsidiaries. All Employees who participate in the Plan shall have the same rights and privileges under the Plan, except for differences that may be mandated by local law and that are consistent with Code Section 423(b)(5); provided that individuals participating in a sub-plan adopted pursuant to Section 17 which is not designed to qualify under Code section 423 need not have the same rights and privileges as Employees participating in the Code section 423 Plan. No Employee may participate in more than one Subscription Period at a time.

SECTION 4. SUBSCRIPTION PERIODS

The Plan shall generally be implemented by a series of six (6) month Subscription Periods with new Subscription Periods commencing on each February 20 and August 20 and ending on the last Trading Day in the six (6) month periods ending on the following August 19 and February 19, respectively, or on such other date as the Committee shall determine, and continuing thereafter until the Plan is terminated pursuant to Section 14 hereof. The first Subscription Period shall commence on August 21, 2006 and shall end on the last Trading Day on or before February 19, 2007. The Committee shall have the authority to change the frequency and/or duration of Subscription Periods (including the commencement dates thereof) with respect to future Subscription Periods if such change is announced at least thirty (30) days prior to the scheduled occurrence of the first Commencement Date to be affected thereafter.

SECTION 5. PARTICIPATION

- (a) An Employee who is eligible to participate in the Plan in accordance with its terms on a Commencement Date shall automatically receive an option in accordance with Section 8(a) and may become a Participant by completing and submitting, on or before the date prescribed by the Committee with respect to a given Subscription Period, a completed payroll deduction authorization and Plan enrollment form provided by Intel or its Participating Subsidiaries or by following an electronic or other enrollment process as prescribed by the Committee. An eligible Employee may authorize payroll deductions at the rate of any whole percentage of the Employee's Compensation, not to be less than two percent (2%) and not to exceed five percent (5%) of the Employee's Compensation (or such other percentages as the Committee may establish from time to time before a Commencement Date) of such Employee's Compensation on each payday during the Subscription Period. All payroll deductions will be held in a general corporate account or a trust account. No interest shall be paid or credited to the Participant with respect to such payroll deductions. Intel shall maintain or cause to be maintained a separate bookkeeping account for each Participant under the Plan and the amount of each Participant's payroll deductions shall be credited to such account. A Participant may not make any additional payments into such account, unless payroll deductions are prohibited under Applicable Law, in which case the provisions of Section 5(b) of the Plan shall apply.

- (b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Plan to the contrary, in locations where local law prohibits payroll deductions, an eligible Employee may elect to participate through contributions to his or her account under the Plan in a form acceptable to the Committee. In such event, any such Employees shall be deemed to be participating in a sub-plan, unless the Committee otherwise expressly provides that such Employees shall be treated as participating in the Plan. All such contributions will be held in a general corporate account or a trust account. No interest shall be paid or credited to the Participant with respect to such contributions.
- (c) Under procedures and at times established by the Committee, a Participant may withdraw from the Plan during a Subscription Period, by completing and filing a new payroll deduction authorization and Plan enrollment form with the Company or by following electronic or other procedures prescribed by the Committee. If a Participant withdraws from the Plan during a Subscription Period, his or her accumulated payroll deductions will be refunded to the Participant without interest, his or her right to participate in the current Subscription Period will be automatically terminated and no further payroll deductions for the purchase of Common Stock will be made during the Subscription Period. Any Participant who wishes to withdraw from the Plan during a Subscription Period, must complete the withdrawal procedures prescribed by the Committee before the last forty-eight (48) hours of such Subscription Period, subject to any changes to the rules established by the Committee pertaining to the timing of withdrawals, limiting the frequency with which Participants may withdraw and re-enroll in the Plan and may impose a waiting period on Participants wishing to re-enroll following withdrawal.
- (d) A Participant may not increase his or her rate of contribution through payroll deductions or otherwise during a given Subscription Period. A Participant may decrease his or her rate of contribution through payroll deductions one time only during a given Subscription Period and only during an open enrollment period or such other times specified by the Committee by filing a new payroll deduction authorization and Plan enrollment form or by following electronic or other procedures prescribed by the Committee. If a Participant has not followed such procedures to change the rate of contribution, the rate of contribution shall continue at the originally elected rate throughout the Subscription Period and future Subscription Periods; unless the Committee reduces the maximum rate of contribution provided in Section 5(a) and a Participant's rate of contribution exceeds the reduced maximum rate of contribution, in which case the rate of contribution shall continue at the reduced maximum rate of contribution. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent necessary to comply with Section 423(b)(8) of the Code for a given calendar year, the Committee may reduce a Participant's payroll deductions to zero percent (0%) at any time during a Subscription Period scheduled to end during such calendar year. Payroll deductions shall re-commence at the rate provided in such Participant's enrollment form at the beginning of the first Subscription Period which is scheduled to end in the following calendar year, unless terminated by the Participant as provided in Section 5(c).

SECTION 6. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

In the event any Participant terminates employment with Intel and its Participating Subsidiaries for any reason (including death) prior to the expiration of a Subscription Period, the Participant's participation in the Plan shall terminate and all amounts credited to the Participant's account shall be paid to the Participant or, in the case of death, to the Participant's heirs or estate, without interest. Whether a termination of employment has occurred shall be determined by the Committee. If a Participant's termination of employment occurs within a certain period of time as specified by the Committee (not to exceed 30 days) prior to the Purchase Date of the Subscription Period then in progress, his or her option for the purchase of shares of Common Stock will be exercised on such Purchase Date in accordance with Section 9 as if such Participant were still employed by the Company. Following the purchase of shares on such Purchase Date, the Participant's participation in the Plan shall terminate and all amounts credited to the Participant's account shall be paid to the Participant or, in the case of death, to the Participant's heirs or estate, without interest. The Committee may also establish rules regarding when leaves of absence or changes of employment status will be considered to be a termination of employment, including rules regarding transfer of employment among Participating Subsidiaries, Subsidiaries and Intel, and the Committee may establish termination-of-employment procedures for this Plan that are independent of similar rules established under other benefit plans of Intel and its Subsidiaries; provided that such procedures are not in conflict with the requirements of Section 423 of the Code.

SECTION 7. STOCK

Subject to adjustment as set forth in Section 11, the maximum number of shares of Common Stock which may be issued pursuant to the Plan shall be three hundred seventy-three million (373,000,000) shares. Notwithstanding the above, subject to adjustment as set forth in Section 11, the maximum number of shares that may be purchased by any Employee in a given Subscription Period shall be seventy two thousand (72,000) shares of Common Stock. If, on a given Purchase Date, the number of shares with respect to which options are to be exercised exceeds either maximum, the Committee shall make, as applicable, such adjustment or pro rata allocation of the shares remaining available for purchase in as uniform a manner as shall be practicable and as it shall determine to be equitable.

SECTION 8. OFFERING

- (a) On the Commencement Date relating to each Subscription Period, each eligible Employee, whether or not such Employee has elected to participate as provided in Section 5(a), shall be granted an option to purchase that number of whole shares of Common Stock (as adjusted as set forth in Section 11) not to exceed seventy two thousand (72,000) shares (or such lower number of shares as determined by the Committee), which may be purchased with the payroll deductions accumulated on behalf of such Employee during each Subscription Period at the purchase price specified in Section 8(b) below, subject to the additional limitation that no Employee participating in the Plan shall be granted an option to purchase Common Stock under the Plan if such option would permit his or her rights to purchase stock under all employee stock purchase plans (described in Section 423 of the Code) of Intel and its Subsidiaries to accrue at a rate which exceeds U.S. twenty-five thousand dollars (U.S. $25,000) of the Market Value of such Common Stock (determined at the time such option is granted) for each calendar year in which such option is outstanding at any time. For purposes of the Plan, an option is "granted" on a Participant's Commencement Date. An option will expire upon the earliest to occur of (i) the termination of a Participant's participation in the Plan or such Subscription Period (ii) the beginning of a subsequent Subscription Period in which such Participant is participating; or (iii) the termination of the Subscription Period. This Section 8(a) shall be interpreted so as to comply with Code Section 423(b)(8).
- (b) The Purchase Price under each option shall be with respect to a Subscription Period the lower of (i) a percentage (not less than eighty-five percent (85%)) established by the Committee ("Designated Percentage") of the Offering Price, or (ii) the Designated Percentage of the Market Value of a share of Common Stock on the Purchase Date on which the Common Stock is purchased; provided that the Purchase Price may be adjusted by the Committee pursuant to Sections 11 or 12 in accordance with Section 424(a) of the Code. The Committee may change the Designated Percentage with respect to any future Subscription Period, but not to below eighty-five percent (85%), and the Committee may determine with respect to any prospective Subscription Period that the option price shall be the Designated Percentage of the Market Value of a share of the Common Stock on the Purchase Date.

SECTION 9. PURCHASE OF STOCK

Unless a Participant withdraws from the Plan as provided in Section 5(c) or except as provided in Sections 7, 12 or 14(b), upon the expiration of each Subscription Period, a Participant's option shall be exercised automatically for the purchase of that number of whole shares of Common Stock which the accumulated payroll deductions credited to the Participant's account at that time shall purchase at the applicable price specified in Section 8(b). Notwithstanding the foregoing, Intel or its Participating Subsidiary may make such provisions and take such action as it deems necessary or appropriate for the withholding of taxes and/or social insurance which Intel or its Participating Subsidiary determines is required by Applicable Law. Each Participant, however, shall be responsible for payment of all individual tax liabilities arising under the Plan.

The shares of Common Stock purchased upon exercise of an option hereunder shall be considered for tax purposes to be sold to the Participant on the Purchase Date. During his or her lifetime, a Participant's option to purchase shares of Common Stock hereunder is exercisable only by him or her.

SECTION 10. PAYMENT AND DELIVERY

As soon as practicable after the exercise of an option, Intel shall deliver or cause to have delivered to the Participant a record of the Common Stock purchased and the balance of any amount of payroll deductions credited to the Participant's account not used for the purchase, except as specified below. The Committee may permit or require that shares be deposited directly with a broker designated by the Committee or to a designated agent of the Company, and the Committee may utilize electronic or automated methods of share transfer. The Committee may require that shares be retained with such broker or agent for a designated period of time and/or may establish other procedures to permit tracking of disqualifying dispositions of such shares. Intel or its Participating Subsidiary shall retain the amount of payroll deductions used to purchase Common Stock as full payment for the Common Stock and the Common Stock shall then be fully paid and non-assessable. No Participant shall have any voting, dividend, or other Stockholder rights with respect to shares subject to any option granted under the Plan until the shares subject to the option have been purchased and delivered to the Participant as provided in this Section 10. The Committee may in its discretion direct Intel to retain in a Participant's account for the subsequent Subscription Period any payroll deductions which are not sufficient to purchase a whole share of Common Stock or to return such amount to the Participant. Any other amounts left over in a Participant's account after a Purchase Date shall be returned to the Participant without interest.

SECTION 11. RECAPITALIZATION

Subject to any required action by the Stockholders of Intel, if there is any change in the outstanding shares of Common Stock because of a merger, consolidation, spin-off, reorganization, recapitalization, dividend in property other than cash, stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend, liquidating dividend, combination or reclassification of the Common Stock (including any such change in the number of shares of Common Stock effected in connection with a change in domicile of Intel), or any similar equity restructuring transaction (as that term is used in Accounting Standards Codification 718), the number of securities covered by each option under the Plan which has not yet been exercised and the number of securities which have been authorized and remain available for issuance under the Plan, as well as the maximum number of securities which may be purchased by a Participant in a Subscription Period, and the price per share covered by each option under the Plan which has not yet been exercised, shall be equitably adjusted by the Board, and the Board shall take any further actions which may be necessary or appropriate under the circumstances. The Board's determinations under this Section 11 shall be conclusive and binding on all parties.

SECTION 12. MERGER, LIQUIDATION, OTHER CORPORATE TRANSACTIONS

- (a) In the event of the proposed liquidation or dissolution of Intel, the Subscription Period will terminate immediately prior to the consummation of such proposed transaction, unless otherwise provided by the Board in its sole discretion, and all outstanding options shall automatically terminate and the amounts of all payroll deductions will be refunded without interest to the Participants.
- (b) In the event of a proposed sale of all or substantially all of the assets of Intel, or the merger or consolidation or similar combination of Intel with or into another entity, then in the sole discretion of the Board, (1) each option shall be assumed or an equivalent option shall be substituted by the successor corporation or parent or subsidiary of such successor entity, (2) a date established by the Board on or before the date of consummation of such merger, consolidation, combination or sale shall be treated as a Purchase Date, and all outstanding options shall be exercised on such date, (3) all outstanding options shall terminate and the accumulated payroll deductions will be refunded without interest to the Participants, or (4) outstanding options shall continue unchanged.

SECTION 13. TRANSFERABILITY

Neither payroll deductions credited to a Participant's bookkeeping account nor any rights to exercise an option or to receive shares of Common Stock under the Plan may be voluntarily or involuntarily assigned, transferred, pledged, or otherwise disposed of in any way, and any attempted assignment, transfer, pledge, or other disposition shall be null and void and without effect. If a Participant in any manner attempts to transfer, assign or otherwise encumber his or her rights or interests under the Plan, other than as permitted by the Code, such act shall be treated as an election by the Participant to discontinue participation in the Plan pursuant to Section 5(c).

SECTION 14. AMENDMENT OR TERMINATION OF THE PLAN

- (a) The Plan shall continue from the Effective Date until August 31, ~~2016~~2021, unless it is terminated in accordance with Section 14(b).
- (b) The Board may, in its sole discretion, insofar as permitted by law, terminate or suspend the Plan, or revise or amend it in any respect whatsoever, and the Committee may revise or amend the Plan consistent with the exercise of its duties and responsibilities as set forth in the Plan or any delegation under the Plan, except that, without approval of the Stockholders, no such revision or amendment shall increase the number of shares subject to the Plan, other than an adjustment under Section 11 of the Plan, or make other changes for which Stockholder approval is required under Applicable Law. Upon a termination or suspension of the Plan, the Board may in its discretion (i) return without interest, the payroll deductions credited to Participants' accounts to such Participants or (ii) set an earlier Purchase Date with respect to a Subscription Period then in progress.

SECTION 15. ADMINISTRATION

- (a) The Board has appointed the Compensation Committee of the Board to administer the Plan (the "Committee"), who will serve for such period of time as the Board may specify and whom the Board may remove at any time. The Committee will have the authority and responsibility for the day-to-day administration of the Plan, the authority and responsibility specifically provided in this Plan and any additional duty, responsibility and authority delegated to the Committee by the Board, which may include any of the functions assigned to the Board in this Plan. The Committee may delegate to a sub-committee or to an officer or officers of Intel the day-to-day administration of the Plan. The Committee shall have full power and authority to adopt, amend and rescind any rules and regulations which it deems desirable and appropriate for the proper administration of the Plan, to construe and interpret the provisions and supervise the administration of the Plan, to make factual determinations relevant to Plan entitlements and to take all action in connection with administration of the Plan as it deems necessary or advisable, consistent with the delegation from the Board. Decisions of the Committee shall be final and binding upon all Participants. Any decision reduced to writing and signed by all of the members of the Committee shall be fully effective as if it had been made at a meeting of the Committee duly held. The Company shall pay all expenses incurred in the administration of the Plan.
- (b) In addition to such other rights of indemnification as they may have as members of the Board or officers or employees of the Company, members of the Board and of the Committee shall be indemnified by the Company against all reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and necessarily incurred in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding, or in connection with any appeal therein, to which they or any of them may be a party by reason of any action taken or failure to act under or in connection with the Plan, or any right granted under the Plan, and against all amounts paid by them in settlement thereof (provided such settlement is approved by independent legal counsel selected by the Company) or paid by them in satisfaction of a judgment in any such action, suit or proceeding, except in relation to matters as to which it shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding that such person is liable for gross negligence, bad faith or intentional misconduct in duties; provided, however, that within sixty (60) days after the institution of such action, suit or proceeding, such person shall offer to the Company, in writing, the opportunity at its own expense to handle and defend the same.

SECTION 16. COMMITTEE RULES FOR FOREIGN JURISDICTIONS

The Committee may adopt rules or procedures relating to the operation and administration of the Plan to accommodate the specific requirements of local laws and procedures. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Committee is specifically authorized to adopt rules and procedures regarding handling of payroll deductions or other contributions by Participants, payment of interest, conversion of local currency, data privacy security, payroll tax, withholding procedures and handling of stock certificates which vary with local requirements; however, if such varying provisions are not in accordance with the provisions of Section 423(b) of the Code, including but not limited to the requirement of Section 423(b)(5) of the Code that all options granted under the Plan shall have the same rights and privileges unless otherwise provided under the Code and the regulations promulgated thereunder, then the individuals affected by such varying provisions shall be deemed to be participating under a sub-plan and not in the Plan. The Committee may also adopt sub-plans applicable to particular Subsidiaries or locations, which sub-plans may be designed to be outside the scope of Code section 423 and shall be deemed to be outside the scope of Code section 423 unless the terms of the sub-plan provide to the contrary. The rules of such sub-plans may take precedence over other provisions of this Plan, with the exception of Section 7, but unless otherwise superseded by the terms of such sub-plan, the provisions of this Plan shall govern the operation of such sub-plan. The Committee shall not be required to obtain the approval of the Stockholders prior to the adoption, amendment or termination of any sub-plan unless required by the laws of the foreign jurisdiction in which Employees participating in the sub-plan are located.

SECTION 17. SECURITIES LAWS REQUIREMENTS

- (a) No option granted under the Plan may be exercised to any extent unless the shares to be issued upon such exercise under the Plan are covered by an effective registration statement pursuant to the Securities Act and the Plan is in material compliance with all applicable provisions of law, domestic or foreign, including, without limitation, the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, applicable state and foreign securities laws and the requirements of any stock exchange upon which the Shares may then be listed, subject to the approval of counsel for the Company with respect to such compliance. If on a Purchase Date in any Subscription Period hereunder, the Plan is not so registered or in such compliance, options granted under the Plan which are not in material compliance shall not be exercised on such Purchase Date, and the Purchase Date shall be delayed until the Plan is subject to such an effective registration statement and such compliance, except that the Purchase Date shall not be delayed more than twelve (12) months and the Purchase Date shall in no event be more than twenty-seven (27) months from the Commencement Date relating to such Subscription Period. If, on the Purchase Date of any offering hereunder, as delayed to the maximum extent permissible, the Plan is not registered and in such compliance, options granted under the Plan which are not in material compliance shall not be exercised and all payroll deductions accumulated during the Subscription Period (reduced to the extent, if any, that such deductions have been used to acquire shares of Common Stock) shall be returned to the Participants, without interest. The provisions of this Section 17 shall comply with the requirements of Section 423(b)(5) of the Code to the extent applicable.
- (b) As a condition to the exercise of an option, Intel may require the person exercising such option to represent and warrant at the time of any such exercise that the Shares are being purchased only for investment and without any present intention to sell or distribute such Shares if, in the opinion of counsel for Intel, such a representation is required by any of the aforementioned applicable provisions of law.

SECTION 18. GOVERNMENTAL REGULATIONS

This Plan and Intel's obligation to sell and deliver shares of its stock under the Plan shall be subject to the approval of any governmental authority required in connection with the Plan or the authorization, issuance, sale, or delivery of stock hereunder.

SECTION 19. NO ENLARGEMENT OF EMPLOYEE RIGHTS

Nothing contained in this Plan shall be deemed to give any Employee or other individual the right to be retained in the employ or service of Intel or any Participating Subsidiary or to interfere with the right of Intel or Participating Subsidiary to discharge any Employee or other individual at any time, for any reason or no reason, with or without notice.

SECTION 20. GOVERNING LAW

This Plan shall be governed by applicable laws of the State of Delaware and applicable federal law.

SECTION 21. EFFECTIVE DATE

This Plan shall be effective on the Effective Date, subject to approval of the Stockholders of Intel within twelve (12) months before or after its date of adoption by the Board.

SECTION 22. REPORTS

Individual accounts shall be maintained for each Participant in the Plan. Statements of account shall be made available to Participants at least annually, which statements shall set forth the amounts of payroll deductions, the Purchase Price, the number of shares of Common Stock purchased and the remaining cash balance, if any.

SECTION 23. DESIGNATION OF BENEFICIARY FOR OWNED SHARES

With respect to shares of Common Stock purchased by the Participant pursuant to the Plan and held in an account maintained by Intel or its assignee on the Participant's behalf, the Participant may be permitted to file a written designation of beneficiary, who is to receive any shares and cash, if any, from the Participant's account under the Plan in the event of such Participant's death subsequent to the end of a Subscription Period but prior to delivery to him or her of such shares and cash. In addition, a Participant may file a written designation of a beneficiary who is to receive any cash from the Participant's account under the Plan in the event of such Participant's death prior to the Purchase Date of a Subscription Period. If a Participant is married and the designated beneficiary is not the spouse, spousal consent shall be required for such designation to be effective, to the extent required by local law. The Participant (and if required under the preceding sentence, his or her spouse) may change such designation of beneficiary at any time by written notice. Subject to local legal requirements, in the event of a Participant's death, Intel or its assignee shall deliver any shares of Common Stock and/or cash to the designated beneficiary. Subject to local law, in the event of the death of a Participant and in the absence of a beneficiary validly designated who is living at the time of such Participant's death, Intel shall deliver such shares of Common Stock and/or cash to the executor or administrator of the estate of the Participant, or if no such executor or administrator has been appointed (to the knowledge of Intel), Intel in its sole discretion, may deliver (or cause its assignee to deliver) such shares of Common Stock and/or cash to the spouse, or to any one or more dependents or relatives of the Participant, or if no spouse, dependent or relative is known to Intel, then to such other person as Intel may determine. The provisions of this Section 23 shall in no event require Intel to violate local law, and Intel shall be entitled to take whatever action it reasonably concludes is desirable or appropriate in order to transfer the assets allocated to a deceased Participant's account in compliance with local law.

SECTION 24. ADDITIONAL RESTRICTIONS OF RULE 16b-3.

The terms and conditions of options granted hereunder to, and the purchase of shares of Common Stock by, persons subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act shall comply with the applicable provisions of Rule 16b-3. This Plan shall be deemed to contain, and such options shall contain, and the shares of Common Stock issued upon exercise thereof shall be subject to, such additional conditions and restrictions, if any, as may be required by Rule 16b-3 to qualify for the maximum exemption from Section 16 of the Exchange Act with respect to Plan transactions.

SECTION 25. NOTICES

All notices or other communications by a Participant to Intel or the Committee under or in connection with the Plan shall be deemed to have been duly given when received in the form specified by Intel or the Committee at the location, or by the person, designated by Intel for the receipt thereof.

EXHIBIT II
DESCRIPTION OF THE IRISH PLANS

INTEL CORPORATION
DESCRIPTION OF THE IRISH PLANS

1. INTRODUCTION

Each Irish Plan is a Revenue approved, tax efficient Scheme which enables you to invest some or all of your bonuses in the purchase of Intel stock. Neither is an Intel profit sharing plan – each merely represents an alternative method of paying existing bonuses.

The purpose of the Irish Plans is to enable you to become a shareholder in Intel. You can do this in a tax efficient manner by using some/all of your Quarterly Profit Bonus (QBP) and Annual Performance Bonus (APB) to buy shares in Intel through a “Profit Sharing Trust”. This Trust is administered by Mercer Ltd. (an international benefits company) on Intel’s behalf.

Once you decide to invest in the Irish Plans, the gross proceeds of your bonuses are invested in the purchase of Intel shares. Those shares are held in trust for you for three years. During the first two years you cannot sell them, unless you die, retire or are made redundant. If you decide to sell your shares after two years have expired but before three years has lapsed, you will pay tax on the original sum invested.

The shares purchased on your behalf are bought at the fair market value (FMV) of stock on the date on which the transaction takes place. (Unlike the Share Purchase Plan (SPP), you do not buy them at a discount.)

2. ADVANTAGES OF THE SCHEME

- A. As a shareholder, you share in the success of Intel through growth in the value of your shares, although, you should be aware that the value of your shares can fall as well as rise.
- B. On the appropriation of shares to the participant, no income tax charge but USC and PRSI (employee) will be due on the value of the shares appropriated. If you wait to sell the shares until three years after you acquired them, you will not pay any PAYE income tax.

3. ELIGIBILITY FOR MEMBERSHIP

For the purposes of the Irish Plans programme at Intel Ireland, such benefits apply only to Intel Regular Full Time (RFT) and Intel Regular Part Time (RPT) from whom Intel deducts PAYE and PRSI, and apply only in respect of the period of service for which such deductions are actually made.

You must be an employee of Intel (or active on payroll) on the day on which the shares are purchased - if you leave Intel’s employment before the last payroll when the shares are purchased, no shares will be purchased on your behalf and your savings will be refunded net of taxes.

4. WHAT INCOME MAY BE INVESTED

You may invest some/all of your QPB and some/all of your APB in the Scheme.

The Revenue sets limits on how much you can invest. All of the following limits must be satisfied before an investment can take place:

- A. The maximum which can be paid into the Plan in one tax year is €12,700 from all sources, QPB, APB).
- B. You can invest an APB target of 1.01% of Base pay (the common element of APB for all employees) multiplied by a payout factor as set forth in the Irish Plans.

5. PAYROLL RULES

- A. Employees may enroll in the Irish Plans during the enrolment dates listed below.
- B. Employees must enroll for each bonus plan separately.

6. IMPORTANT PLAN DATES 2016

- A. The deadline to allocate your APB is January 24, 2016. If you do not allocate your bonus it will be paid in cash along with your salary on February 11th.
- B. The deadline to allocate your QPB is January 10th, April 17th, July 10th, and October 16th. If you do not allocate your bonus it will be paid in cash along with your salary on January 28th, May 5th, July 28th and November 3rd respectively for 2015 Q4, 2016 Q1, 2016 Q2 and 2016 Q3.

7. YOUR CORRECT ADDRESS ON MERCER RECORDS (IMPORTANT INFORMATION)

It is important that you keep a current up to date address with Mercer. You must update the Mercer Share Scheme Department with any change of address. Change of address cannot be accepted over the phone.

Send your updated address by post:

Log on to www.oneview.mercer.ie, go into the shares portal to update personal details.

Please note that Mercer is signed up to NewAddress.ie and any changes made on their website are automatically forwarded to Mercer.

8. WHAT HAPPENS AFTER MERCER HAVE HELD MY SHARES FOR 3 YEARS?

Three years after the date of acquisition of the shares, the Scheme for the Irish Plans comes to an end. You may now sell or transfer them without attracting any additional taxes on the original sum you invested.

Three years after you purchase your shares, Mercer will notify you of the imminent vesting of your shares and send you a Form of Election. You will be offered the following choices;

- a. Sell the shares
- b. Transfer to a private stock broker of choice

If you do not indicate to Mercer Ltd. where you would like the shares to be invested and Mercer Ltd. has no broker details on file they will automatically default to sell the shares.

If Mercer Ltd. has alternative broker details and an account number on record, the shares will automatically be transferred to this account if no Form of Election is returned.

PLEASE NOTE: Employees can nominate any stock broker of their choice for transferring of mature Irish Plan shares. Ownership and cost of the private stock broker is employees total responsibility.

9. PRIVATE STOCK BROKERS / DOLMEN STOCKBROKERS

NOTE Historically, employees may have used Dolmen as a private stock broker in order to transfer and hold matured Irish Plan shares. If you have a private stock account with Dolmen Stockbrokers or any other private stock broker, it is important that you contact them to ensure that they have a correct up to date home address. Failure to do so may result in additional broker fees and / or your Irish Plan shares being sold.

NOTE Effective beginning with the 2011 tax year, new tax legislation was implemented in the U.S. which requires stock brokers outside the U.S. to file tax returns for customers who reside in the U.S. for more than 30 days. If you have resided in the U.S. for greater than 30 days, you should contact your private stock broker to ensure that they are aware of your position. Possible impact could be a requirement to transfer shares out of the account, depending on your stock broker.

10. SELLING THE SHARES

It is a condition of the Scheme (laid down by the Revenue Authorities) that the shares may not be sold, pledged or transferred, or dealt with in any way for at least two years after they have been allocated to you (except in the event of your death, redundancy or retirement at age 65).

After two years have expired, you may sell your shares, have them transferred into your own name, or the name of another person, subject to income tax. You may also leave them in the Trust. If you decide to sell your shares before three years have expired, you will pay taxes on the original sum invested.

11. TAXATION

If you hold your shares for three years or more, no income tax, or additional PRSI or USC will be payable on the original sum invested. However, if the shares have increased in value between the time of purchase and the time of sale, the gain made will attract CGT at 33%.

If you sell your shares within two to three years of acquisition, you will be required to pay income tax on the original sum you invested at your marginal tax rate, i.e., 20% or 40%, plus any applicable USC.

If the shares have increased in value over the two years, the gain made will also attract Capital Gains Tax (CGT).

Each individual has a €1,270 capital gains allowance per year. This means you can make a €1,270 capital gain without attracting Capital Gains Tax. Any further gain will attract Capital Gains Tax at 33%. This allowance is not transferable between spouses. You are required to report your capital gains annually in your annual tax return. For further information on Capital Gains Tax please contact the Revenue.

12. REGULAR COMMUNICATIONS

Each time you participate in the Plan and buy some shares, you will be issued with a Notice of Appropriation which details the number of shares purchased, the purchase price, the vesting date etc. You will also be sent a Form of Election before each maturity. These will be issued to you by Mercer Ltd. and will be mailed to your home address.

13. PAYMENT OF DIVIDEND

A dividend is a discretionary payment made by the Board of Directors to a Shareholder. Any dividends received in respect of the shares which have been allocated to you will be forwarded to you net of the standard rate of income tax by the Trustees of the Plan. You will also be sent a tax voucher by the Trustees certifying that the standard rate of income tax has been deducted.

Depending on your effective rate of tax, you may be liable to pay further tax on dividends and in any event, you are obliged to include details of the dividends received on your tax returns.

14. TERMINATION OR DEATH

If you leave Intel as a result of redundancy, disability, injury or retirement at the age of 65, you may dispose of the shares, even within two years of allocation. Income tax will be charged on 50% of the original sum you invested.

In the event of the death of a member, his or her shareholding will be sold by the Trustees and the proceeds will be paid to his/her estate. No income tax is charged, regardless of how long the shares are held in trust.

If you leave Intel for any reason other than the above, it will have no effect on your rights or obligations. You will continue to hold your shares in the Irish Plans, and the normal rules regarding the sale or transfer of shares apply.

15. MERCER OneVIEW

Mercer OneView now allows you to manage your Intel shares held in the Irish Plans. You can now track your share performance and access forms to transfer or sell your shares online using OneView.*

To access the Share section of Mercer OneView:

- A. Access Mercer OneView;
- B. Enter your Employer Code (Intel), your Employee WWID and your personal access code (PAC);
- C. Select the My Shares tab from top of screen; and
- D. Choose Option required on the left hand side of My Shares Screen.

If you have not yet received your PAC, contact Mercer Ltd. directly by email or telephone at 01 6039880.

CONTRACT OF PARTICIPATION

Important

I have read the outline explaining the rules of the scheme in the “Profit Sharing in Intel” above.

In consideration of my participation in the scheme and of any appropriation to me of Scheme Shares in accordance with the provision of the Scheme, I bind myself in contract with the company and I agree to be bound by the Rules of the scheme and in particular:

- A. to permit Scheme Shares appropriated to me to be held by the trustees throughout the applicable Period of Retention;
- B. not to assign, charge or otherwise dispose of my beneficial interest in the said Scheme Shares during the Period of Retention;
- C. not to direct the trustees to dispose of the said Scheme Shares before the applicable Release Date in any other way except as mentioned in paragraph (D);
- D. or by sale for the best consideration in money that can reasonably be obtained at the time of the sale; and
- E. if I direct the trustees to transfer the ownership of any of the said Scheme Shares into my name before the applicable Release Date, to pay the trustees before the transfer takes place, a sum equal to the income tax (if any) then payable at the standard rate on the Appropriate Percentage of the Locked-In value of the said Scheme Shares at the time of the direction as notified to me by the trustees.

I accept that the dividend tax voucher which I will receive from the trustees in respect of any Scheme Shares will be in full satisfaction of any rights I have to a tax deduction certificate from the trustees.

I hereby direct the trustees, in the absence of any further direction from me, in the event of a rights issue to sell all rights in respect of my Scheme Shares nil paid and pay the proceeds to me and in the event of any other offer or transaction in respect of my Scheme Shares take such action, if any, as will not require me to put the trustees in funds.

I undertake to notify the trustees of any change in my home address.

I understand that this contract will bind me in respect of any subsequent appropriation of Scheme Shares unless I shall have previously varied its terms by notice in writing addressed to the Company and the trustees.

Important

Please ensure you have read Contract of Participation above.

I agree to the terms and conditions of the Contract of Participation (above). I authorize Intel to supply information as necessary to outside agencies responsible for the administration of employee investment plans. Data supplied by Intel will be used only for that purpose stated above.

IRISH PLANS Q&A

I. How much will this cost?

Different private stock brokers have different charges for various share transactions. Some have a flat annual fee while other charge per share transaction. Please contact your private stock broker to get details of these costs.

II. Can Intel negotiate with Dolmen on their costs?

No. Dolmen is a private stock broker with no contractual agreements with Intel. Ownership of private stock account is the sole responsibility of the account holder.

III. Will Intel covering the cost of the APSS share transfer?

No. As these are private stock accounts, Intel has no control over the costs of Share transactions. However, it should be noted that Intel employees are advised to research the best options available to them. There are many excellent value on-line stock brokers which offer better value & services than the current Ireland-based stock brokers.

IV. Do I have to have my private stock account with Dolmen?

No. Dolmen is just one of many private stock brokers available to employees. Like all services, Intel would advice employees to research the market in order to find the best value stock account service for themselves.

V. When does the US tax legislation become effective?

The change became effective on January 1, 2011. However, this new tax legislation affects Ireland-based stock brokers and not account holders.

VI. Does Intel recommend a particular stock broker that I should open a account with?

No. Intel does not recommend any particular stock broker. However, a quick search of the Internet will reveal a myriad of options open to you.

Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On April 19, 2016, Intel Corporation (“Intel”) issued a press release announcing the financial results of its fiscal quarter ended April 2, 2016 and forward-looking statements relating to its second quarter of 2016 and full year 2016. A copy of this press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.

On April 19, 2016, Intel also posted financial information and commentary by Stacy J. Smith, Intel’s Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, for its fiscal quarter ended April 2, 2016 on its investor website, intc.com. A copy of this information and commentary is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2 and is incorporated by reference herein.

Exhibits 99.1 and 99.2 includes non-GAAP financial measures relating to our operations and forecasted outlook. Certain of these non-GAAP terms will be used in Intel’s Q1 2016 earnings conference. In addition, Exhibits 99.1 and 99.2 include reconciliations of these GAAP to non-GAAP measures, as well as an explanation of how management uses these non-GAAP measures and the reasons why management views these measures as providing useful information for investors. These non-GAAP financial measures should not be considered a substitute for, or superior to, financial measures calculated in accordance with GAAP and the financial results calculated in accordance with GAAP and reconciliations from Intel’s results should be carefully evaluated.

The information in Item 2.02 of this Report, as well as Exhibits 99.1 and 99.2, are furnished and shall not be treated as filed for purposes of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Item 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities.

On April 19, 2016, Intel announced a restructuring plan designed to align its operations with evolving business needs and improve efficiencies. The actions associated with the restructuring plan are expected to be fully completed by the second quarter of 2017. The restructuring plan is estimated to result in annualized pre-tax cost savings of approximately $1.4 billion once it is fully implemented.

Under the restructuring plan, Intel plans to close certain facilities and reduce up to twelve thousand positions globally, representing approximately 11% of Intel's worldwide workforce. Intel expects to incur pre-tax charges of approximately $1.2 billion, substantially all of which are related to employee severance and benefits. Intel expects to recognize these charges during the second quarter of fiscal 2016 and expects substantially all the charges to entail cash expenditures.

Item 2.05 of this Report ("Item 2.05") contains "forward-looking statements" as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, which are identified by words such as "plans," "expects," "may," "believes," "estimates" or "estimated," "intends," and other similar words, expressions, and formulations. Item 2.05 contains forward-looking statements regarding the timing and scope of the restructuring plan; the size of the restructuring plan and the amount and timing of the related charges; and the expected cost savings resulting from the restructuring plan. Many factors could affect the actual results of the restructuring plan, and variances from Intel's current expectations regarding such factors could cause actual results of the restructuring plan to differ materially from those expressed in these forward-looking statements. Intel presently considers the following to be a non-exclusive list of important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from its expectations: the timing and execution of plans and programs that may be subject to local labor law requirements, including consultation with appropriate works councils; assumptions related to severance, post-retirement costs, and relocation costs; future acquisitions, dispositions, or investments; new business initiatives and changes in product roadmap, development, and manufacturing; and/or assumptions related to cost savings, product demand and operating efficiencies. A detailed discussion of these and other risks and uncertainties that could cause Intel's actual results to differ materially from these forward-looking statements is included in the documents that Intel files with the Securities and Exchange Commission on Forms 10-K, 10-Q and 8-K. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this Report, and Intel does not undertake any obligation to revise or update such statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On April 19, 2016, Intel announced a Chief Financial Officer ("CFO") succession plan. Stacy Smith, 53, who has served as Executive Vice President and CFO since 2012, will transition to a new senior executive role at the company, leading sales, manufacturing and operations once his successor is in place.

Mr. Smith joined Intel in 1988. From 2010 to 2012, he served as Senior Vice President and CFO. From 2007 to 2010, he was Vice President and CFO. From 2006 to 2007, Mr. Smith was Vice President and Assistant CFO. From 2004 to 2006, he served as Vice President, Finance and Enterprise Services, and Chief Information Officer. From 2002 to 2004, he served as Vice President, Sales and Marketing Group, and General Manager of Intel Europe, Middle East and Africa (EMEA).

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On April 19, 2016, Intel issued a press release, attached hereto as Exhibit 99.3, announcing a restructuring plan designed to align its operations with evolving business needs and improve efficiencies.

The information in Item 7.01 of this Report is furnished and shall not be treated as filed for purposes of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

News Release

Intel Reports First -Quarter GAAP Revenue of $13.7 Billion; Non-GAAP Revenue of $13.8 Billion

News Summary:

- Revenue increased year-over-year, driven by growth in an expanded portfolio of businesses
- Strength in Data Center and Internet of Things Groups' revenue, and a strong start for the Programmable Solutions Group (formerly Altera) helped offset PC market and macro-economic challenges
- Intel announces restructuring initiative to accelerate Intel's transformation from a PC company to one that powers the cloud and billions of smart, connected computing devices
- Intel Chief Financial Officer (CFO) Stacy Smith will transition to a new role leading sales, manufacturing and operations once his successor is in place

SANTA CLARA, Calif., April 19, 2016 -- Intel Corporation today reported first -quarter GAAP revenue of $13.7 billion , operating income of $2.6 billion , net income of $2.0 billion and EPS of 42 cents . Intel reported non-GAAP revenue of $13.8 billion , operating income of $3.3 billion , net income of $2.6 billion and EPS of 54 cents . The company generated approximately $4.0 billion in cash from operations, paid dividends of $1.2 billion , and used $793 million to repurchase 27 million shares of stock.

“Our first-quarter results tell the story of Intel’s ongoing strategic transformation, which is progressing well and will accelerate in 2016,” said Brian Krzanich, Intel CEO. “We are evolving from a PC company to one that powers the cloud and billions of smart, connected computing devices.”

Intel also today announced a CFO succession plan. The current CFO, Smith, will transition to a new role at the company, leading sales, manufacturing and operations once his successor is in place. The company is beginning a formal search process for a new CFO that will assess both internal and external candidates. Smith will remain firmly focused on his CFO role and duties throughout the search and transition process.

“We are excited to have Stacy take on this new role, leveraging the deep expertise and strong leadership skills that he has developed over his 28-year career at Intel,” said Krzanich.

Status of Business Outlook

Intel's Business Outlook is posted on intc.com and may be reiterated in public or private meetings with investors and others. The Business Outlook will be effective through the close of business on June 17 unless earlier updated; except that the Business Outlook for amortization of acquisition-related intangibles, impact of equity investments and interest and other, restructuring charges, and tax rate, will be effective only through the close of business on April 26 . Intel's Quiet Period will start from the close of business on June 17 until publication of the company's second -quarter earnings release, scheduled for July 20 . During the Quiet Period, all of the Business Outlook and other forward-looking statements disclosed in the company's news releases and filings with the SEC should be considered as historical, speaking as of prior to the Quiet Period only and not subject to an update by the company.

Forward-Looking Statements

The above statements and any others in this release that refer to future plans and expectations are forward-looking statements that involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Words such as "anticipates," "expects," "intends," "goals," "plans," "believes," "seeks," "estimates," "continues," "may," "will," "should," and variations of such words and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. Statements that refer to or are based on projections, uncertain events or assumptions also identify forward-looking statements. Many factors could affect Intel's actual results, and variances from Intel's current expectations regarding such factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in these forward-looking statements. Intel presently considers the following to be important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the company's expectations.

- Demand for Intel's products is highly variable and could differ from expectations due to factors including changes in business and economic conditions; consumer confidence or income levels; the introduction, availability and market acceptance of Intel's products, products used together with Intel products and competitors' products; competitive and pricing pressures, including actions taken by competitors; supply constraints and other disruptions affecting customers; changes in customer order patterns including order cancellations; and changes in the level of inventory at customers.
- Intel's gross margin percentage could vary significantly from expectations based on capacity utilization; variations in inventory valuation, including variations related to the timing of qualifying products for sale; changes in revenue levels; segment product mix; the timing and execution of the manufacturing ramp and associated costs; excess or obsolete inventory; changes in unit costs; defects or disruptions in the supply of materials or resources; and product manufacturing quality/yields. Variations in gross margin may also be caused by the timing of Intel product introductions and related expenses, including marketing expenses, and Intel's ability to respond quickly to technological developments and to introduce new products or incorporate new features into existing products, which may result in restructuring and asset impairment charges.
- Intel's results could be affected by adverse economic, social, political and physical/infrastructure conditions in countries where Intel, its customers or its suppliers operate, including military conflict and other security risks, natural disasters, infrastructure disruptions, health concerns and fluctuations in currency exchange rates. Results may also be affected by the formal or informal imposition by countries of new or revised export and/or import and doing-business regulations, which could be changed without prior notice.
- Intel operates in highly competitive industries and its operations have high costs that are either fixed or difficult to reduce in the short term.
- The amount, timing and execution of Intel's stock repurchase program could be affected by changes in Intel's priorities for the use of cash, such as operational spending, capital spending, acquisitions, and as a result of changes to Intel's cash flows or changes in tax laws.
- Intel's expected tax rate is based on current tax law and current expected income and may be affected by the jurisdictions in which profits are determined to be earned and taxed; changes in the estimates of credits, benefits and deductions; the resolution of issues arising from tax audits with various tax authorities, including payment of interest and penalties; and the ability to realize deferred tax assets.

- more -

- Gains or losses from equity securities and interest and other could vary from expectations depending on gains or losses on the sale, exchange, change in the fair value or impairments of debt and equity investments, interest rates, cash balances, and changes in fair value of derivative instruments.
- Product defects or errata (deviations from published specifications) may adversely impact our expenses, revenues and reputation.
- Intel's results could be affected by litigation or regulatory matters involving intellectual property, stockholder, consumer, antitrust, disclosure and other issues. An unfavorable ruling could include monetary damages or an injunction prohibiting Intel from manufacturing or selling one or more products, precluding particular business practices, impacting Intel's ability to design its products, or requiring other remedies such as compulsory licensing of intellectual property.
- Intel's results may be affected by the timing of closing of acquisitions, divestitures and other significant transactions. We completed our acquisition of Altera on December 28, 2015 and risks associated with that acquisition are described in the "Forward Looking Statements" paragraph of Intel's press release dated June 1, 2015, which risk factors are incorporated by reference herein.
- Intel's results may be affected by factors that could cause the implementation of, and expected results from, the restructuring plan announced on April 19, 2016 to differ from Intel's expectations. A detailed description of risks associated with the restructuring plan and factors that could cause actual results of the restructuring plan to differ is set forth in the "Forward Looking Statements" paragraph of Intel's press release entitled "Intel Announces Restructuring Initiative to Accelerate Transformation" dated April 19, 2016, which risk factors are incorporated by reference herein.

A detailed discussion of these and other factors that could affect Intel's results is included in Intel's SEC filings, including the company's most recent reports on Forms 10-K and 10-Q.

During the first quarter of 2016, we formed the Programmable Solutions Group (PSG) as a result of our acquisition of Altera. Additionally, we formed the New Technology Group, which includes products designed for wearables, cameras, and other market segments (including drones). All prior-period amounts have been retrospectively adjusted to reflect the way we internally manage and monitor segment performance starting in fiscal year 2016 and includes other minor reorganizations.

Revenue for our reportable and non-reportable operating segments is primarily related to the following product lines:

- Client Computing Group. Includes platforms designed for notebooks (including Ultrabook™ devices), 2 in 1 systems, desktops (including all-in-ones and high-end enthusiast PCs), tablets, phones, wireless and wired connectivity products, and mobile communication components.
- Data Center Group. Includes platforms designed for the enterprise, cloud, communications infrastructure, and technical computing segments.
- Internet of Things Group. Includes platforms designed for Internet of Things market segments, including retail, transportation, industrial, and buildings and home use, along with a broad range of other market segments.
- Non-Volatile Memory Solutions Group. Includes NAND flash memory products primarily used in solid-state drives.
- Intel Security Group. Includes security software products designed to deliver innovative solutions that secure computers, mobile devices, and networks around the world from the latest malware and emerging online threats.
- Programmable Solutions Group. Includes programmable semiconductors (primary field-programmable gate array) and related products for a broad range of market segments, including communications, networking and storage, industrial, military, and automotive.

We have sales and marketing, manufacturing, engineering, finance, and administration groups. Expenses for these groups are generally allocated to the operating segments, and the expenses are included in the following operating results.

The "all other" category includes revenue, expenses, and charges such as:

- results of operations from our New Technology Group;
- amounts included within restructuring and asset impairment charges;
- a portion of profit-dependent compensation and other expenses not allocated to the operating segments;
- divested businesses for which discrete operating results are not regularly reviewed by our CODM;
- results of operations of start-up businesses that support our initiatives, including our foundry business; and
- acquisition-related costs, including amortization and any impairment of acquisition-related intangibles and goodwill.

A substantial majority of our revenue is generated from the sale of platforms. Platforms incorporate various components and technologies, including a microprocessor and chipset, a stand-alone SoC, or a multi-chip package. Our remaining primary product lines are incorporated in "other."

INTEL CORPORATION EXPLANATION OF NON-GAAP MEASURES

In addition to disclosing financial results in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), this earnings release contains references to the non-GAAP financial measures described below. We believe these non-GAAP financial measures provide investors with useful supplemental information about the financial performance of our business, enable comparison of financial results between periods where certain items may vary independent of business performance, and allow for greater transparency with respect to key metrics used by management in operating our business.

Our non-GAAP financial measures reflect adjustments based on the following items, as well as the related income tax effects. Income tax effects have been calculated using our GAAP effective tax rate. These non-GAAP financial measures should not be considered a substitute for, or superior to, financial measures calculated in accordance with GAAP, and the financial results calculated in accordance with GAAP and reconciliations from these results should be carefully evaluated.

Acquisition-related adjustments: The non-GAAP financial measures disclosed by the company exclude certain business combination accounting adjustments and certain expenses related to acquisitions as follows:

- Revenue and gross margin non-GAAP outlook excludes the impact of the deferred revenue write-down, amortization of acquisition-related intangible assets that impact cost of sales, and the inventory valuation adjustment.
 - Deferred revenue write-down : Sales to distributors are made under agreements allowing for subsequent price adjustments and returns and are deferred until the products are resold by the distributor. Business combination accounting principles require us to write down to fair value the deferred revenue assumed in our acquisitions as we have limited performance obligations associated with this deferred revenue. Our GAAP revenues and related cost of sales for the subsequent reselling by distributors to end customers after an acquisition do not reflect the full amounts that would have been reported if the acquired deferred revenue was not written down to fair value. The non-GAAP adjustments eliminate the effect of the deferred revenue write-down. We believe these adjustments are useful to investors as an additional means to reflect revenue and gross margin trends of our business.
 - Inventory valuation adjustment : Business combination accounting principles require us to measure acquired inventory at fair value. The fair value of inventory reflects the acquired company's cost of manufacturing plus a portion of the expected profit margin. The non-GAAP adjustment to our cost of sales excludes the expected profit margin component that is recorded under business combination accounting principles. We believe the adjustment is useful to investors as an additional means to reflect cost of sales and gross margin trends of our business.
- Amortization of acquisition-related intangible assets : Amortization of acquisition-related intangible assets consists of amortization of intangibles assets such as developed technology, trade names, and customer relationships acquired in connection with business combinations. We record charges relating to the amortization of these intangibles within both cost of sales and operating expenses in our GAAP financial statements. Amortization charges for our acquisition-related intangible assets are inconsistent in size and are significantly impacted by the timing and valuation of our acquisitions. Consequently, our non-GAAP adjustments exclude these charges to facilitate an evaluation of our current operating performance and comparisons to our past operating performance.
- Restructuring and asset impairment charges : Restructuring and asset impairment charges are costs associated with a formal restructuring plan and are primarily related to employee severance and benefit arrangements, assets impairments and other restructuring charges. We exclude restructuring costs, including any adjustments to charges recorded in prior periods, for purposes of calculating certain non-GAAP measures. We believe that these costs do not reflect our current operating performance or enable effective comparisons to our past operating performance.
- R&D plus MG&A spending non-GAAP outlook excludes the impact of other charges associated with the acquisition of Altera, which primarily includes bankers fees, compensation-related costs, and valuation charges for Altera's stock based compensation.

Constant currency effect on revenue: Constant currency results assume foreign revenues are translated from foreign currencies to the U.S. dollar, net of the effect of foreign currency hedges, at rates consistent with those in the comparable period. We believe this is a useful metric that facilitates comparison to our historical performance for the Intel Security Group operating segment.

Gross cash, net cash and other longer term investments: We reference non-GAAP financial measures of gross cash, net cash and other longer term investments, which are used by management when assessing our sources of liquidity and capital resources. We believe these non-GAAP financial measures are helpful to investors in understanding our capital structure and how we manage our resources.

CFO Commentary on First -Quarter Results

Note: The presentation of our financial results has been retrospectively adjusted to reflect the change in our operating segment structure.

Summary

The first quarter, inclusive of an extra workweek, resulted in year-on-year growth and was in the low end of the range of our prior Outlook. We are seeing growth in Data Center, Internet of Things, Security, and Programmable Solutions (formally Altera) groups, which all helped offset a weak PC market.

On a GAAP basis, first quarter revenue of $13.7B was up 7% on year-on-year basis. Gross margin of 59.3% was up 1.3 points from expectations. Operating income for the first quarter was $2.6B , down 2% on a year-on-year basis. The tax rate for the quarter was 18.4% . Net income for the first quarter was $2.0B , up 3% on a year-on-year basis. Earnings per share was $0.42 , up one cent on a year-on-year basis. During the quarter, we purchased $1.3B in capital assets, paid $1.2B in dividends, and repurchased $0.8B of stock. Total debt was $25.4B consistent with our prior commentary on the financing plan for the Altera acquisition.

Non-GAAP[^] revenue for the first quarter was $13.8B , up 8% on a year-on-year basis. Client Computing Group revenue was up 2% on a year-on-year basis. Data Center Group revenue was up 9% on a year-on-year basis. Non-GAAP gross margin was 62.7% , up 0.7 points from expectations. Non-GAAP operating income for the first quarter was $3.3B , up 13% on a year-on-year basis. Non-GAAP net income for the first quarter was $2.6B , up 19% on a year-on-year basis. Non-GAAP earnings per share was $0.54 , up nine cents on a year-on-year basis.

As we look forward to the second quarter of 2016 , we are forecasting the midpoint of the revenue range at $13.5B . This forecast is at the low end of the average seasonal increase for the second quarter after adjusting for the extra workweek in the first quarter. We are forecasting the midpoint of the non-GAAP gross margin range for the second quarter to be 61%. Spending for the second quarter is expected to be $5.1B . Restructuring charges are expected to be $1.2B on a GAAP basis.

Turning to the full year 2016 , we are forecasting revenue to grow in the mid-single digits from 2015 , down from the expectation of growing in the mid to high single digits. We are forecasting the midpoint of the non-GAAP gross margin range to be 62%, down 1 point from previous expectations. Non-GAAP spending for R&D and MG&A for the year is expected to be $20.6B plus or minus $400M , down $700M from the expectation of $21.3B.

[^] See the explanation of non-GAAP measures and the reconciliation to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measures on page 9-10.

The first quarter 2016 results when compared to the first quarter from a year ago were the following:

- Non-GAAP revenue of $13.8B , up $1.0B (8%) from $12.8B .
- Non-GAAP gross margin of 62.7% , up 1.3 points from 61.4% .
- Non-GAAP operating income of $3.3B , up $0.4B (13%) from $2.9B .
- Non-GAAP net income of $2.6B , up $0.4B (19%) from $2.2B .
- Non-GAAP earnings per share of $0.54 was up 9 cents (20%) from $0.45 .

This document presents results and comparisons on a GAAP basis unless otherwise stated.

First Quarter 2016

Revenue

Non-GAAP revenue of $13.8B was down 7% sequentially and up 8% on a year-on-year basis. Total platform* volumes were down 15% when compared to the fourth quarter. Total platform* average selling prices were up 3% over this same time period.

Year-on-Year Comparisons :

- Client Computing Group had revenue of $7.5B , up 2% with platform volumes down 15% and platform average selling prices up 19% . Desktop platform volumes were down 4% and desktop platform average selling prices were up 6% . Notebook platform volumes were down 2% and notebook platform average selling prices were flat. Tablet volumes were down 44% and average selling prices were up significantly.
- Data Center Group had revenue of $4.0B , up 9% with platform volumes up 13% and platform average selling prices were down 3% as result of strong unit growth in networking and storage.
- Internet of Things Group had revenue of $651M , up 22% .
- Non-Volatile Memory Solutions Group had revenue of $557M , down 6% .
- Intel Security Group had revenue of $537M , up 12% on a GAAP basis and up 15% on a constant currency basis.
- Programmable Solutions Group had revenue of $359M . When adjusting for $99M of deferred revenue, this business achieved mid-single digit growth.

Quarter-on-Quarter Comparisons :

- Client Computing Group revenue was down 14% with platform volumes down 17% and platform average selling prices up 2% .
- Data Center Group revenue was down 7% with platform volumes down 1% and platform average selling prices down 7% .
- Internet of Things Group revenue was up 4% .
- Non-Volatile Memory Solutions Group revenue was down 15% .
- Intel Security Group revenue was up 5% .

Gross Margin

On a non-GAAP basis, gross margin of 62.7% was down 2.1 points compared to the fourth quarter, and up 0.7 points to the midpoint of expectations.

*Client Computing Group, Data Center Group, and Internet of Things Group microprocessors and chipsets.

Gross Margin Reconciliation: GAAP Q4'15 to Q1'16 Non-GAAP (64.3% to 62.7% , down 1.6 points)

Gross Margin Reconciliation [note: point attributions are approximate]:

64.3 %	Q4'15 GAAP Gross Margin
-1.5 points:	Altera acquisition related adjustments
-1.5 points:	Amortization of acquisition-related intangibles
-1.5 point:	Lower platform* volume
-1.0 point:	Higher factory startup costs (primarily on 10nm)
-1.0 point:	Miscellaneous
-0.5 point:	Higher write-offs (primarily on platform* products)
+1.5 points:	Lower platform* unit cost (primarily on 14nm products)
+1.0 point:	Higher platform* average selling prices
59.3 %	Q1'16 GAAP Gross Margin
+1.5 point:	Altera acquisition-related adjustments
+1.5 point:	Amortization of acquisition-related intangibles
62.7 %	Q1'16 Non-GAAP Gross Margin

Gross Margin Reconciliation: Q1'16 Non-GAAP Outlook to Q1'16 Non-GAAP (62% +/- couple points to 62.7% , up 0.7 points)

Gross Margin Reconciliation [note: point attributions are approximate]:

62.0 %	Q1'16 Non-GAAP Gross Margin Outlook
+1.0 point:	Lower platform* unit cost (primarily on 14nm products)
+1.0 point:	Higher platform* average selling prices
-1.0 point:	Lower platform* volume
62.7 %	Q1'16 Non-GAAP Gross Margin

Gross Margin Reconciliation: Q1'15 to Q1'16 (60.5% to 59.3% , down 1.2 points)

When comparing the first quarter on a year-on-year basis, gross margin was down 1.2 points , primarily driven by Altera and other acquisition related charges, higher platform* unit costs (primarily on of 14nm products), lower platform* volume, and Non-Volatile Memory Solutions Group (NSG). This was partially offset by higher platform* average selling prices.

Non-GAAP Gross Margin Reconciliation: Non-GAAP Q1'15 to Non-GAAP Q1'16 (61.4% to 62.7 , up 1.3 points)

On a non-GAAP basis, when comparing the first quarter year-on-year, gross margin was up 1.3 points primarily due to higher platform* average selling prices. This was partially offset by higher platform* unit costs (primarily on of 14nm products), lower platform* volume, and Non-Volatile Memory Solutions Group (NSG).

Spending

Spending in the first quarter for R&D and MG&A was $5.5B. On a non-GAAP basis, spending was $5.4B, up $100M from the fourth quarter. This is down $100M from expectations. This was primarily driven by lower R&D spending.

Depreciation was $1.6B , lower than the expectation of $1.7B.

*Client Computing Group, Data Center Group, and Internet of Things Group microprocessors and chipsets.

Amortization of acquisition-related intangibles included in operating expense was $90M , in line with expectations and all of which is excluded on a non-GAAP basis.

Other Income Statement Items

Gains and losses on equity investments and interest and other income was a $60M net loss compared to a $4M net gain in the fourth quarter and below the expectation of approximately zero .

The effective tax rate for the first quarter was 18.4% , down 6.6 points from expectations. This is primarily driven by a one time tax gain from a divestiture and higher proportion of income in lower tax jurisdictions.

Balance Sheet and Cash Flow Items

On the balance sheet, total cash investments^^ ended the quarter at $15.1B , down $10.2B from the fourth quarter. $14.0B of the total $15.1B total cash investments^^ is held by non-U.S. subsidiaries. Cash flow from operations in the first quarter was $4.0B . During the first quarter, we paid $1.2B in dividends, purchased $1.3B in capital assets and repurchased $0.8B in stock. Total inventories were up $584M primarily driven by our acquisition of Altera. Total debt is $25.4B, consistent with our prior commentary on the financing plan for the Altera acquisition.

Other Items

The total number of employees was up from the fourth quarter at 112K as we completed the Altera acquisition.

Diluted shares outstanding decreased by 1M from the fourth quarter and decreased by 39M shares driven primarily by stock repurchases on a year-on-year basis.

^^ Cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments, and trading assets

Outlook

Intel's Business Outlook does not include the potential impact of any business combinations, asset acquisitions, divestitures, strategic investments and other significant transactions that may be completed after April 19 . The midpoint of the forecast ranges will be referred to when making comparisons to specific periods.

Q2 2016 Outlook

Revenue

Revenue is expected to be $13.5B , plus or minus $500M in the second quarter. After adjusting for the extra workweek in the first quarter, this forecast is at the low end of the average seasonal increase for the second quarter.

Non-GAAP Gross Margin

Non-GAAP gross margin in the second quarter is expected to be 61 %, plus or minus a couple of points, down 1.7 points from the first quarter.

Gross Margin Reconciliation [note: point attributions are approximate]:

62.7 %	Q1'16 Non-GAAP Gross Margin
-1.0 point:	Lower platform* volume (primarily on notebook and desktop units)
-0.5 point:	Non-Volatile Memory Solutions Group (NSG)
-0.5 point:	Higher platform* unit costs (primarily on 14nm server products)
-0.5 point:	Higher factory start-up costs on 10nm
1.0 point:	Lower platform* write-offs
61.0 %	Q2'16 Non-GAAP Gross Margin

Spending

Spending for R&D and MG&A in the second quarter is expected to be approximately $5.1B . On a non-GAAP basis, this is down $300M compared to non-GAAP spending of $5.4B in the first quarter.

Depreciation is forecast to be approximately $1.5B , down from the first quarter.

Restructuring charges are expected to be approximately $1.2B on a GAAP basis, all of which is excluded on a non-GAAP basis.

Other Income Statement Items

Gains and losses from equity investments and interest and other income are expected to be a net gain of approximately $150M , compared to a net loss of $60M in the first quarter.

*Client Computing Group, Data Center Group, and Internet of Things Group microprocessors and chipsets.

2016 Outlook

The Outlook for full year 2016 does not include the potential impact of any business combinations, asset acquisitions, divestitures, strategic investments and other significant transactions that may be completed after April 19 . The midpoint of the forecast ranges will be referred to when making comparisons to specific periods.

Revenue

Revenue for the year is expected to grow in the mid-single digits from 2015 , down from our previous expectation of growing in the mid to high single digits.

Non-GAAP Gross Margin

Non-GAAP gross margin for the year is expected to be 62% , plus or minus a couple points, down 1 point from the previous non-GAAP expectation of 63% . The decrease is a result of lower platform* volume.

Non-GAAP Spending

The company is going through a significant restructuring over the next several months. When completed by mid-2017, these actions will result in a 12K person workforce reduction and a $1.4B reduction to run rate spending. Over half of the total workforce reduction is expected to be realized by the end of this year, driving approximately $750M in savings. Non-GAAP spending is expected to be down by $700M from previous expectations to $20.6 billion dollars. In the second quarter of this year, we expect to recognize a $1.2B restructuring charge on a GAAP basis as an estimate for the related actions.

Non-GAAP spending for R&D and MG&A for the year is expected to be $20.6B plus or minus $400M , down $700M from the previous expectation of $21.3B plus or minus $400M .

Depreciation is forecast to be $6.3B plus or minus $200M , down to the previous expectation of $6.5B plus or minus $200M.

Restructuring charges are expected to be $1.2B on a GAAP basis, all of which is excluded on a non-GAAP basis.

Other Income Statement Items

The tax rate for each of the remaining quarters is expected to be 22% , down from the previous expectation of 25% .

Balance Sheet and Cash Flow Items

Capital spending for 2016 is expected to be $9.5B plus or minus $500M , flat to previous expectations.

*Client Computing Group, Data Center Group, and Internet of Things Group microprocessors and chipsets.

Forward-Looking Statements

The above statements and any others in this document that refer to future plans and expectations are forward-looking statements that involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Words such as "anticipates," "expects," "intends," "goals," "plans," "believes," "seeks," "estimates," "continues," "may," "will," "should," and variations of such words and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. Statements that refer to or are based on projections, uncertain events or assumptions also identify forward-looking statements. Many factors could affect Intel's actual results, and variances from Intel's current expectations regarding such factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in these forward-looking statements. Intel presently considers the following to be important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the company's expectations.

- Demand for Intel's products is highly variable and could differ from expectations due to factors including changes in business and economic conditions; consumer confidence or income levels; the introduction, availability and market acceptance of Intel's products, products used together with Intel products and competitors' products; competitive and pricing pressures, including actions taken by competitors; supply constraints and other disruptions affecting customers; changes in customer order patterns including order cancellations; and changes in the level of inventory at customers.
 - Intel's gross margin percentage could vary significantly from expectations based on capacity utilization; variations in inventory valuation, including variations related to the timing of qualifying products for sale; changes in revenue levels; segment product mix; the timing and execution of the manufacturing ramp and associated costs; excess or obsolete inventory; changes in unit costs; defects or disruptions in the supply of materials or resources; and product manufacturing quality/yields. Variations in gross margin may also be caused by the timing of Intel product introductions and related expenses, including marketing expenses, and Intel's ability to respond quickly to technological developments and to introduce new products or incorporate new features into existing products, which may result in restructuring and asset impairment charges.
 - Intel's results could be affected by adverse economic, social, political and physical/infrastructure conditions in countries where Intel, its customers or its suppliers operate, including military conflict and other security risks, natural disasters, infrastructure disruptions, health concerns and fluctuations in currency exchange rates. Results may also be affected by the formal or informal imposition by countries of new or revised export and/or import and doing-business regulations, which could be changed without prior notice.
 - Intel operates in highly competitive industries and its operations have high costs that are either fixed or difficult to reduce in the short term.
 - The amount, timing and execution of Intel's stock repurchase program could be affected by changes in Intel's priorities for the use of cash, such as operational spending, capital spending, acquisitions, and as a result of changes to Intel's cash flows or changes in tax laws.

- Intel's expected tax rate is based on current tax law and current expected income and may be affected by the jurisdictions in which profits are determined to be earned and taxed; changes in the estimates of credits, benefits and deductions; the resolution of issues arising from tax audits with various tax authorities, including payment of interest and penalties; and the ability to realize deferred tax assets.
- Gains or losses from equity securities and interest and other could vary from expectations depending on gains or losses on the sale, exchange, change in the fair value or impairments of debt and equity investments, interest rates, cash balances, and changes in fair value of derivative instruments.
- Product defects or errata (deviations from published specifications) may adversely impact our expenses, revenues and reputation.
- Intel's results could be affected by litigation or regulatory matters involving intellectual property, stockholder, consumer, antitrust, disclosure and other issues. An unfavorable ruling could include monetary damages or an injunction prohibiting Intel from manufacturing or selling one or more products, precluding particular business practices, impacting Intel's ability to design its products, or requiring other remedies such as compulsory licensing of intellectual property.
- Intel's results may be affected by the timing of closing of acquisitions, divestitures and other significant transactions. We completed our acquisition of Altera on December 28, 2015 and risks associated with that acquisition are described in the "Forward Looking Statements" paragraph of Intel's press release dated June 1, 2015, which risk factors are incorporated by reference herein.
- Intel's results may be affected by factors that could cause the implementation of, and expected results from, the restructuring plan announced on April 19, 2016 to differ from Intel's expectations. A detailed description of risks associated with the restructuring plan and factors that could cause actual results of the restructuring plan to differ is set forth in the "Forward Looking Statements" paragraph of Intel's press release entitled "Intel Announces Restructuring Initiative to Accelerate Transformation" dated April 19, 2016, which risk factors are incorporated by reference herein.

A detailed discussion of these and other factors that could affect Intel's results is included in Intel's SEC filings, including the company's most recent reports on Forms 10-K and 10-Q.

EXPLANATION OF NON-GAAP MEASURES

In addition to disclosing financial results in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), this document contains references to the non-GAAP financial measures described below. We believe these non-GAAP financial measures provide investors with useful supplemental information about the financial performance of our business, enable comparison of financial results between periods where certain items may vary independent of business performance, and allow for greater transparency with respect to key metrics used by management in operating our business.

Our non-GAAP financial measures reflect adjustments based on the following items, as well as the related income tax effects. Income tax effects have been calculated using our GAAP effective tax rate. These non-GAAP financial measures should not be considered a substitute for, or superior to, financial measures calculated in accordance with GAAP, and the financial results calculated in accordance with GAAP and reconciliations from these results should be carefully evaluated.

Acquisition-related adjustments: The non-GAAP financial measures disclosed by the company exclude certain business combination accounting adjustments and certain expenses related to acquisitions as follows:

- Revenue and gross margin non-GAAP outlook excludes the impact of the deferred revenue write-down, amortization of acquisition-related intangible assets that impact cost of sales, and the inventory valuation adjustment.
 - Deferred revenue write-down : Sales to distributors are made under agreements allowing for subsequent price adjustments and returns and are deferred until the products are resold by the distributor. Business combination accounting principles require us to write down to fair value the deferred revenue assumed in our acquisitions as we have limited performance obligations associated with this deferred revenue. Our GAAP revenues and related cost of sales for the subsequent reselling by distributors to end customers after an acquisition do not reflect the full amounts that would have been reported if the acquired deferred revenue was not written down to fair value. The non-GAAP adjustments eliminate the effect of the deferred revenue write-down. We believe these adjustments are useful to investors as an additional means to reflect revenue and gross margin trends of our business.
 - Inventory valuation adjustment : Business combination accounting principles require us to measure acquired inventory at fair value. The fair value of inventory reflects the acquired company's cost of manufacturing plus a portion of the expected profit margin. The non-GAAP adjustment to our cost of sales excludes the expected profit margin component that is recorded under business combination accounting principles. We believe the adjustment is useful to investors as an additional means to reflect cost of sales and gross margin trends of our business.
- Amortization of acquisition-related intangible assets : Amortization of acquisition-related intangible assets consists of amortization of intangibles assets such as developed technology, trade names, and customer relationships acquired in connection with business combinations. We record charges relating to the amortization of these intangibles within both cost of sales and operating expenses in our GAAP financial statements. Amortization charges for our acquisition-related intangible assets are inconsistent in size and are significantly impacted by the timing and valuation of our acquisitions. Consequently, our non-GAAP adjustments exclude these charges to facilitate an evaluation of our current operating performance and comparisons to our past operating performance.
- Restructuring and asset impairment charges : Restructuring and asset impairment charges are costs associated with a formal restructuring plan and are primarily related to employee severance and benefit arrangements, assets impairments and other restructuring charges. We exclude restructuring costs, including any adjustments to charges recorded in prior periods, for purposes of calculating certain non-GAAP measures. We believe that these costs do not reflect our current operating performance or enable effective comparisons to our past operating performance.
- R&D plus MG&A spending non-GAAP outlook excludes the impact of other charges associated with the acquisition of Altera, which primarily includes bankers fees, compensation-related costs, and valuation charges for Altera's stock based compensation.

Constant currency effect on revenue: Constant currency results assume foreign revenues are translated from foreign currencies to the U.S. dollar, net of the effect of foreign currency hedges, at rates consistent with those in the comparable period. We believe this is a useful metric that facilitates comparison to our historical performance for the Intel Security Group operating segment.

SUPPLEMENTAL RECONCILIATIONS OF GAAP ACTUALS TO NON-GAAP ACTUALS

News Release

Intel Announces Restructuring Initiative to Accelerate Transformation

SANTA CLARA, Calif., April 19, 2016 - Intel Corporation today announced a restructuring initiative to accelerate its evolution from a PC company to one that powers the cloud and billions of smart, connected computing devices. Intel will intensify its focus in high-growth areas where it is positioned for long-term leadership, customer value and growth, while making the company more efficient and profitable.

The data center and Internet of Things (IoT) businesses are Intel's primary growth engines, with memory and field programmable gate arrays (FPGAs) accelerating these opportunities - fueling a virtuous cycle of growth for the company. These growth businesses delivered $2.2 billion in revenue growth last year, and made up 40 percent of revenue and the majority of operating profit, which largely offset the decline in the PC market segment.

The restructuring initiative was outlined in an e-mail from Intel CEO Brian Krzanich to Intel employees.

"Our results over the last year demonstrate a strategy that is working and a solid foundation for growth," said Krzanich. "The opportunity now is to accelerate this momentum and build on our strengths.

"These actions drive long-term change to further establish Intel as the leader for the smart, connected world," he added. "I am confident that we'll emerge as a more productive company with broader reach and sharper execution."

While making the company more efficient, Intel plans to increase investments in the products and technologies that will fuel revenue growth, and drive more profitable mobile and PC businesses. Through this comprehensive initiative, the company plans to increase investments in its data center, IoT, memory and connectivity businesses, as well as growing client segments such as 2-in-1s, gaming and home gateways.

These changes will result in the reduction of up to 12,000 positions globally -- approximately 11 percent of employees -- by mid-2017 through site consolidations worldwide, a combination of voluntary and involuntary departures, and a re-evaluation of programs. The majority of these actions will be communicated to affected employees over the next 60 days with some actions spanning in to 2017.

Intel expects the program to deliver $750 million in savings this year and annual run rate savings of $1.4 billion by mid-2017. The company will record a one-time charge of approximately $1.2 billion in the second quarter.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains “forward-looking statements” as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, which are identified by words such as “plans,” “expects,” “may,” “believes,” “estimates” or “estimated,” “intends,” and other similar words, expressions, and formulations. This release contains forward-looking statements regarding the timing and scope of the restructuring plan; the size of the restructuring plan and the amount and timing of the related charges; the expected cost savings resulting from the restructuring plan; and demand and growth prospects for Intel’s products. Many factors could affect the actual results of the restructuring plan, and variances from Intel’s current expectations regarding such factors could cause actual results of the restructuring plan to differ materially from those expressed in these forward-looking statements. Intel presently considers the following to be a non-exclusive list of important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from its expectations: the timing and execution of plans and programs that may be subject to local labor law requirements, including consultation with appropriate works councils; assumptions related to severance, post-retirement costs, and relocation costs; future acquisitions, dispositions, or investments; new business initiatives and changes in product roadmap, development, and manufacturing; assumptions related to cost savings, product demand and/or operating efficiencies. A detailed discussion of these and other risks and uncertainties that could cause Intel’s actual results to differ materially from these forward-looking statements is included in the documents that Intel files with the Securities and Exchange Commission on Forms 10-K, 10-Q and 8-K. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this Report, and Intel does not undertake any obligation to revise or update such statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.
