1. GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE OFFERING PROGRAMME

Under the programme, Société Générale Effekten GmbH (the "Issuer") may, in its sole discretion, publicly offer and/or list on a regulated market in the European Economic Area the warrants described in this Securities Note (the "Securities").

General information on this Securities Note can be found in section 3.

1.1. Overview of the Issuer

The Issuer is a limited liability company established under German law with its registered office in Frankfurt am Main, Federal Republic of Germany. The business address is: Neue Mainzer Straße 46-50, 60311 Frankfurt am Main, Federal Republic of Germany.

The Issuer is a wholly owned subsidiary of Société Générale Frankfurt, Federal Republic of Germany, which is a branch of Société Générale, Paris, French Republic.

The Issuer's legal entity identifier (LEI) is 529900W18LQJJN6SJ336.

Further information on the Issuer and specific risks related to the Issuer can be found in the Registration Document.

1.2. Overview of the Guarantor

The Securities are unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed by Société Générale, Paris, French Republic (the "Guarantor" or "Société Générale") in accordance with the guarantee issued as of 9 July 2025 (the "Guarantee"). The Guarantor is a public limited company (société anonyme) under French law and has the status of a bank. The registered office of the Guarantor is 29 boulevard Haussmann, 75009 Paris, French Republic, and the administrative office is 7 cours Valmy, 92972 Paris-La Défense, French Republic.

The Guarantor's legal entity identifier (LEI) is O2RNE8IBXP4R0TD8PU41.

Further information on the Guarantor can be found in particular in section 4.2. Specific risks relating to the Guarantor can be found in section 2.1.

For more information about the Guarantee, see section 4.1.

1.3. Overview of the Securities

The Securities are bearer bonds under German law within the meaning of § 793 of the German Civil Code (BGB).

The Securities grant the investor, subject to the occurrence of a particular event, the right to require the Issuer to pay a Redemption Amount when exercising.

In this context, the payment or occurrence of certain events depends to a large extent on an underlying to which the Securities relate. Under this programme, the following assets are considered as underlyings: shares, ETF shares, indices, precious metals, futures contracts and currency exchange rates.

The Securities differ in their structure and functioning. In this context, the following product types are covered:

- Standard Warrants (CALL and PUT) (each with European or American exercise),
- Capped Warrants (CALL and PUT) (with European exercise),
- Inline Warrants (with European exercise),
- StayHigh Warrants (with European exercise),
- StayLow Warrants (with European exercise),
- Hit Warrants (CALL and PUT) (with European exercise),

- Corridor Warrants (with European exercise),
- Bottom-up Warrants (with European exercise), and
- Top-down Warrants (with European exercise).

Although each type of product has special features in its structure, all Standard Warrants and Capped Warrants have in common that with the exercise of the Securities (by the investor or automatically), the Redemption Amount depends on the Reference Price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date specified in the terms and conditions. Depending on the performance of the underlying, an investor may lose all or part of its invested Capital Amount. The amount of the Redemption Amount depends to a large extent on the value of the underlying.

Inline Warrants, StayHigh Warrants and StayLow Warrants, on the other hand, shall expire worthless upon occurrence of a barrier event (Knock-out Event) and the investor suffers a total loss. If there is no Knock-out Event during the term, a pre-determined amount is payable.

Hit Warrants will also expire upon occurrence of a barrier event (Hit Event), but in this case a pre-determined amount is payable. If no Hit Event occurs, the Hit Warrants expires worthless and the investor suffers a total loss.

In the case of Corridor Warrants, Bottom-up Warrants and Top-down Warrants, the amount of the Redemption Amount depends on the number of days on which the price of the Underlying is inside a Corridor (Corridor Warrants), is equal to or above a Barrier (Bottom-up Warrants) or is equal to or below a Barrier (Top-down Warrants).

There is no interest on the Securities. In any case, the Securities will be paid out in cash. There is no physical delivery of the Underlying.

The conditions applicable to a Security on a case-by-case basis shall be determined by the Issuer in the Final Terms of the Securities.

Further information on the Securities can be found in section 5. and, specifically, on their functioning, in section 6. Specific risks related to the securities can be found in section 2.2.

An investment in these Securities is only suitable for investors if they are familiar with the nature of those Securities. Interested investors should be aware of all the risks associated with the purchase of the Securities. Investors should therefore have sufficient knowledge and/or experience with the Securities, their functioning and dependence on the Underlying.

1.4. Overview of the Offer and Trading

The Securities issued by the Issuer will be underwritten by Société Générale (the "Offeror") based on a general underwriting agreement. The Offeror will offer the Securities to potential investors.

For the Securities, admission to trading on a regulated market and/or a multilateral trading facility within the European Economic Area may be applied for. However, the Securities may also be offered without being admitted to trading.

Further information on the offer can be found in particular in section 5.7.; more information on trading the Securities can be found in section 5.8.

2. RISK FACTORS

The following section is divided into risk factors related to the Guarantor (section 2.1.) and risks arising from the nature of the Securities (section 2.2.). Each of these sections lists the risk factors in categories and subcategories.

The Issuer assessed each risk taking into account the negative effects and the likelihood of occurrence and used this assessment as a measure of the materiality of the risks.

The two most important risks for each category are highlighted by a grey frame. The risk factors listed below in a category are not listed according to their materiality.

The measure of the materiality of the risks in relation to the Guarantor is set out in the Registration Document of the Guarantor incorporated by reference into this Securities Note. For the risks associated with the Security, materiality depends to a large extent on the parameters set out in the Final Terms. Examples of such parameters are the underlying, the Strike, the exercise period or Exercise Date, respectively, Monitoring Period, the Upper Barrier and the Lower Barrier. These parameters determine both the probability of occurrence of a particular event and the associated risk, as well as the extent of the impact on the security upon occurrence of the risk. In each case, the Issuer makes a statement below, which puts the probability of occurrence in relation to possible effects. The probability of occurrence is compared to the respective risk event in the individual risk factors (e.g., the greater... the more likely it is). The impact of the occurrence of the described risk is then assessed by the Issuer, for example, by describing a possible partial or even total loss of the capital amount used by the investor or an expiration of the Security.

The risks described below may occur individually or together. They can mutually reinforce their effects.

Important Note: Both here and in the following sections, the "Capital Amount" (purchase price) paid for the purchase includes all other costs associated with the purchase.

2.1. Risk Factors relating to the Guarantee

The risks relating to the Guarantor are incorporated by reference and forms part of this Securities Note (see section "3.7.1. Guarantor"). The risks may affect the Guarantor's ability to meet its obligations under the Guarantee to the Securityholders.

2.2. Risks arising from the nature of the Securities

2.2.1. Risks relating directly to the structure of the Securities

This section sets out the specific risks associated with the purchase of Securities.

A feature common to all of the Securities issued under this Securities Note is that the Securityholder may incur a total loss of the purchase price paid. The Securityholders of all Securities also bear the risk of loss, because the Securities are not capital-protected and do not provide for a minimum repayment.

(a) Risks in the case of Standard Warrants

(aa) Worthless expiration of Standard Warrants

In the case of a Standard Warrant (CALL), if the Reference Price of the Underlying on the Exercise Date is equal to or below the Strike, the warrant will expire worthless. In the case of a Standard Warrant (PUT), if the Reference Price of the Underlying on the Exercise Date is equal to or above the Strike, the warrant will expire worthless. The closer the Reference Price to the Strike (in the case of an "in the money" warrant) or the further away the Reference Price is from the Strike (in the case of an "out of the money" warrant), the higher the probability of such an expiration.

Due to the so-called leverage effect, there is a risk that small price movements in the price of the Underlying determines disproportionate price movements of the Securities. In the case the Securities are held until the end of their term, the following applies: The further the price of the Underlying is below (in the case of CALL Warrants) or above (in the case of PUT Warrants) the Strike ("out of the money"), the greater the risk of a loss. Also, a decrease in the implied volatility of the price of the Underlying results in a decrease in the price of the Security.

(cc) Limitation of term in the case of Standard Warrants on Futures Contracts

Standard Warrants with Futures Contracts as Underlying expire prematurely if the price of the Underlying is equal to or below 0 (zero). The lower the price of the Underlying, the higher the probability of a premature expiration. In the event of such a premature expiration, especially in the case of a CALL-Warrant, the Redemption Amount may be very low. It could be lower than the amount the Securityholders would have received if the premature expiration of the Securities had not taken place. Securityholders will incur a loss if the Redemption Amount is less than the invested Capital Amount. A total loss is also possible. The worse the performance of the Security, the greater the risk of a loss in the event of the termination of the Security.

(dd) Risks relating to the exercise of Standard Warrants

In the case of Standard Warrants with European exercise, the Securityholder cannot exercise the Warrants during their term. During this period, the value of the Standard Warrants can only be realised by selling the Securities. Market participants must be found who are prepared to purchase the Securities at an appropriate price. The lower the achievable selling price, the greater the loss for the investor.

In the case of Standard Warrants with American exercise, the effectiveness of the exercise depends on the submission of an Exercise Notice and the delivery of the Securities to the Paying Agent. The exact conditions for exercising effectively are laid down in the terms and conditions. If these conditions for a valid exercise are met at a later point in time, the Valuation Date will also be postponed. Where the number of Securities to be exercised exceeds the figure specified in the Exercise Notice, the excess Securities shall be transferred back at the expense of the Securityholder.

If a certain minimum number of Standard Warrants needs to be exercised, holders who do not have the required minimum number are either forced to sell their securities or buy more, with transaction costs in both cases incurred.

(ee) No dependence of the value of the security at maturity on the closing price in the case of Standard Warrants on Indices

Investors should note that in the case of Standard Warrants based on indices, it may be specified in the Terms and Conditions that the determination of the Redemption Amount does not depend on the closing price of the index but is based exclusively on the settlement price defined in the Final Terms (e.g., in the case of DAX, the Eurex final settlement price for options on DAX). A possibly higher (in the case of CALL Warrants) or lower (in the case of PUT Warrants) closing price of the respective index on the Valuation Date compared to the respective settlement price is not taken into account for the determination of the Redemption Amount. This can lead to losses for the investor.

(b) Risks in the case of Capped Warrants

(aa) Worthless expiration of Capped Warrants

In the case of a Capped Warrant (CALL), if the Reference Price of the Underlying on the Exercise Date is equal to or below the Strike, the warrant will expire worthless. In the case of a Capped Warrant (PUT), if the Reference Price of the Underlying on the Exercise Date is equal to or above the Strike, the warrant will expire worthless. The closer the Reference Price to the Strike (in the case of an "in the money" warrant) or the further away the Reference Price is from the Strike (in the case of an "out of the money" warrant), the higher the probability of such an expiration.

The Redemption Amount of Capped Warrants is limited (capped). The further the price of the Underlying is above (in the case of a CALL Warrant) or below (in the case of a PUT Warrant) the Cap, the higher the limitation versus a direct investment in the Underlying.

(cc) Special exchange rate risks of Capped Warrants

In the case of Capped Warrants, a development of the exchange rate, which is unfavourable for the investor, may cause the Redemption Amount converted into the Issue Currency to be lower. In particular, this may be the case with Capped Warrants relating to the Underlying Currency Exchange Rate, even if the exchange rate rises above or falls below the cap in the desired direction. This can lead to losses for the Securityholder.

(dd) Special risks relating to the pricing of Capped Warrants

Due to the so-called leverage effect, there is a risk that small price movements in the price of the Underlying determines disproportionate price movements of the Securities. In the case the Securities are held until the end of their term, the following applies: The further the price of the Underlying is below (in the case of CALL Warrants) or above (in the case of PUT Warrants) the Strike ("out of the money"), the greater the risk of a loss. Also, a decrease in the implied volatility of the price of the Underlying results in a decrease in the price of the Security.

(ee) Limitation of term in the case of Capped Warrants on Futures Contracts

Capped Warrants with Futures Contracts as Underlying expire prematurely if the price of the Underlying is equal to or below 0 (zero). The lower the price of the Underlying, the higher the probability of a premature expiration. In the event of such a premature expiration, especially in the case of a CALL-Warrant, the Redemption Amount may be very low. It could be lower than the amount the Securityholders would have received if the premature expiration of the Securities had not taken place. Securityholders will incur a loss if the Redemption Amount is less than the invested Capital Amount. A total loss is also possible. The worse the performance of the Security, the greater the risk of a loss in the event of the termination of the Security.

(ff) Risks relating to the exercise of Capped Warrants

In the case of Capped Warrants, the Securityholder cannot exercise the Warrants during their term. During this period, the value of the Capped Warrants can only be realised by selling the Securities. Market participants must be found who are prepared to purchase the Securities at an appropriate price. The lower the achievable selling price, the greater the loss for the investor.

(gg) No dependence of the value of the security at maturity on the closing price in the case of Capped Warrants on Indices

Investors should note that in the case of Capped Warrants based on indices, it may be specified in the Terms and Conditions that the determination of the Redemption Amount does not depend on the closing price of the index but is based exclusively on the settlement price defined in the Final Terms (e.g., in the case of DAX, the Eurex final settlement price for options on DAX). A possibly higher (in the case of CALL Warrants) or lower (in the case of PUT Warrants) closing price of the respective index on the Valuation Date compared to the respective settlement price is not taken into account for the determination of the Redemption Amount. This can lead to losses for the investor.

(c) Risks in the case of Inline Warrants(aa) Worthless expiration of Inline Warrants(1) During the term*

If at any time during the Monitoring Period the continuous price of the Underlying leaves the Range, i.e., the price is equal to or above the Upper Barrier or equal to or below the Lower Barrier, the Inline Warrants will immediately expire worthless. The closer the price of the Underlying to the nearest barrier, the higher the probability of the occurrence of a Knock-out Event.

(2) Special case with Underlying Share, ETF Share or Share Index

In the case of Inline Warrants with Shares as the Underlying, the Securityholder bears the separate risk of a worthless expiration: In many cases, dividend payments result in the gross dividend being deducted from the quoted price of the Share. If the share price is close to the Lower Barrier, the deduction from the quoted price may trigger a Knock-out Event. This may also occur in the case of an ETF Share or a share index.

In the case of Inline Warrants with Index as the Underlying and reference to the final settlement price, the Securityholder bears an additional risk of expiry: if the final settlement price on the Exercise Date is outside the Range, this also leads to an expiry and the Securityholder receives no payment.

There is a risk of disproportionate price losses due to the leverage in the case of Inline Warrants, the lower the value of the Inline Warrant is. Unlike Standard Warrants, an increase in the implied volatility of the Underlying reduces the value of the Inline Warrant.

(cc) Risks relating to the exercise of Inline Warrants

In the case of Inline Warrants, the Securityholder cannot exercise the Warrants during their term. During this period, the value of the Inline Warrants can only be realised by selling the Securities. Market participants must be found who are prepared to purchase the Securities at an appropriate price. The lower the achievable selling price, the greater the loss for the investor.

(dd) Risks of a threatening Knock-out Event

A Knock-out Event may occur on the basis of prices of the Underlying determined during the trading hours other than the trading hours of the Inline Warrants. In this case, the Securityholder may be unaware that a Knock-out Event is imminent or may not become aware in good time. Possible consequence: The Securityholder may be unable to sell his Inline Warrants in good time and may have to accept the total loss of the Capital Amount.

The same applies, if the price determination for the Underlying is (temporarily) suspended. After price determination recommences, the price of the Underlying is equal to or below the Lower Barrier or equal to or above the Upper Barrier and a Knock-out Event has therefore occurred. In these circumstances, Securityholders will be unable to sell their Inline Warrants prior to the occurrence of the imminent Knock-out Event. The more likely a Knock-out Event occurs, the more likely a total loss is.

(d) Risks in the case of StayHigh Warrants(aa) Worthless expiration of StayHigh Warrants(1) During the term

If at any time during the Monitoring Period the continuous price of the Underlying is equal to or below the Barrier, the StayHigh Warrants will immediately expire worthless. The closer the price of the Underlying to the Barrier, the higher the probability of the occurrence of a Knock-out Event.

(2) Special case with Underlying Share, ETF Share or Share Index

In the case of StayHigh Warrants with Shares as the Underlying, the Securityholder bears the separate risk of a worthless expiration: In many cases, dividend payments result in the gross dividend being deducted from the quoted price of the Share. If the share price is close to the Barrier, the deduction from the quoted price may trigger a Knock-out Event. This may also occur in the case of an ETF Share or a share Index.

In the case of StayHigh Warrants with Index as the Underlying and reference to the final settlement price, the Securityholder bears an additional risk of expiry: if the final settlement price on the Exercise Date is equal to or below the Barrier, this also leads to an expiry and the Securityholder receives no payment.

In the case of StayHigh Warrants, due to the leverage effect, the lower the value of the StayHigh Warrant, the higher the risk of disproportionate price losses. Unlike Standard Warrants, an increase in the implied volatility of the Underlying reduces the value of the StayHigh Warrant.

(cc) Risks relating to the exercise of StayHigh Warrants

In the case of StayHigh Warrants, the Securityholder cannot exercise the Warrants during their term. During this period, the value of the StayHigh Warrants can only be realised by selling the Securities. Market participants must be found who are prepared to purchase the Securities at an appropriate price. The lower the achievable selling price, the greater the loss for the investor.

(dd) Risks of a threatening Knock-out Event

A Knock-out Event may occur on the basis of prices of the Underlying determined during trading hours other than the trading hours of the StayHigh Warrants. In this case, the Securityholder may be unaware that a Knock-out Event is imminent or may not become aware in good time. Possible consequence: The Securityholder may be unable to sell his StayHigh Warrants in good time and may have to accept the total loss of the Capital Amount.

The same applies, if the price determination for the Underlying is (temporarily) suspended. After price determination recommences, the price of the Underlying is equal to or below the Barrier and a Knock-out Event has therefore occurred. In these circumstances, Securityholders will be unable to sell their StayHigh Warrants prior to the occurrence of the imminent Knock-out Event. The more likely a Knock-out Event occurs, the more likely a total loss is.

(e) Risks in the case of StayLow Warrants

(aa) Worthless expiration of StayLow Warrants

(1) During the term

If at any time during the Monitoring Period the continuous price of the Underlying is equal to or above the Barrier, the StayLow Warrants will immediately expire worthless. The closer the price of the Underlying to the Barrier, the higher the probability of the occurrence of a Knock-out Event.

In the case of StayHigh Warrants with Index as the Underlying and reference to the final settlement price, the Securityholder bears an additional risk of expiry: if the final settlement price on the Exercise Date is equal to or above the Barrier, this also leads to an expiry and the Securityholder receives no payment.

In the case of StayLow Warrants, due to the leverage effect, the lower the value of the StayLow Warrant, the higher the risk of disproportionate price losses. Unlike Standard Warrants, an increase in the implied volatility of the Underlying reduces the value of the StayLow Warrant.

(cc) Limitation of term in the case of StayLow Warrants on Futures Contracts

StayLow Warrants with Futures Contracts as Underlying expiry prematurely, if the price of the Underlying is equal to or below 0 (zero). The lower the price of the Underlying, the higher the probability of a premature expiration. In the event of such a premature expiration, the Redemption Amount may be very low. It could be lower than the amount the Securityholders would have received if the premature expiration of the Securities had not taken place. Securityholders will incur a loss if the Redemption Amount is less than the invested Capital Amount. A total loss is also possible. The worse the performance of the security, the greater the risk of a loss in the event of the termination of the Security.

(dd) Risks relating to the exercise of StayLow Warrants

In the case of StayLow Warrants, the Securityholder cannot exercise the Warrants during their term. During this period, the value of the StayLow Warrants can only be realised by selling the Securities. Market participants must be found who are prepared to purchase the Securities at an appropriate price. The lower the achievable selling price, the greater the loss for the investor.

(ee) Risks of a threatening Knock-out Event

A Knock-out Event may occur on the basis of prices of the Underlying determined during trading hours other than the trading hours of the StayLow Warrants. In this case, the Securityholder may be unaware that a Knock-out Event is imminent or may not become aware in good time. Possible consequence: The Securityholder may be unable to sell his StayLow Warrants in good time and may have to accept the total loss of the Capital Amount.

The same applies, if the price determination for the Underlying is (temporarily) suspended. After price determination recommences, the price of the Underlying is equal to or above the Barrier and a Knock-out Event has therefore occurred. In these circumstances, Securityholders will be unable to sell their StayLow Warrants prior to the occurrence of the imminent Knock-out Event. The more likely a Knock-out Event occurs, the more likely a total loss is.

(f) Risks in the case of Hit Warrants

(aa) Worthless expiration of Hit Warrants

In the case of a Hit Warrant (CALL), if at any time during the Monitoring Period the continuous price of the Underlying has never been equal to or above the Hit Barrier, the warrant will expire worthless. In the case of a Hit Warrant (PUT), if during the Monitoring Period the continuous price of the Underlying has never been equal to or below the Hit Barrier, the warrant will expire worthless. The further the price is away from the Hit Barrier, the higher the probability of such an expiration.

Due to the so-called leverage effect, there is a risk that small price movements in the price of the Underlying determines disproportionate price movements of the Hit Warrants. The further the price of the Underlying is below (in the case of a CALL Warrant) or above (in the case of PUT Warrant) the Hit Barrier, the greater the risk of a loss. Like a Standard Warrant, a decrease in the implied volatility of the price of the Underlying results in a decrease in the price of the Hit Warrant.

(cc) Risks relating to the exercise of Hit Warrants

In the case of Hit Warrants, the Securityholder cannot exercise the Warrants during their term. During this period, the value of the Hit Warrants can only be realised by selling the Securities. Market participants must be found who are prepared to purchase the Securities at an appropriate price. The lower the achievable selling price, the greater the loss for the investor.

(dd) End of the Monitoring Period

The Monitoring Period expires already at the last day of the Monitoring Period at the point in time as set out in the Terms and Conditions (e.g., in the case of gold the first gold fixing at maturity). If any price of the Underlying reaches the Hit-Barrier, after such point in time, no Redemption Amount will be paid, and the Hit Warrant will expire worthless.

(g) Risks in the case of Corridor Warrants*(aa) Worthless expiration of Corridor Warrants

The Redemption Amount depends on the number of days on which the Reference Price of the Underlying is inside a Corridor. In the case the price of the Underlying is inside the Corridor the following applies: The closer the price of the Underlying to the Upper or Lower Barrier of the Corridor, the higher the probability that on this day the Reference Price will reach this barrier and be outside the Corridor. If during the Monitoring Period the Reference Price of the Underlying is often or permanently outside the Corridor, the Redemption Amount will be small or even the Corridor Warrants expire worthless.

There is a risk of disproportionate price losses due to the leverage in the case of Corridor Warrants, the lower the value of the Corridor Warrant is. Unlike Standard Warrants, an increase in the implied volatility of the Underlying reduces the value of the Corridor Warrant, if the price of the Underlying is inside of the barriers of the Corridor Warrant, whereas a decrease in the implied volatility of the Underlying reduces the value of the Corridor Warrant, if the price of the Underlying is outside of the barriers.

(cc) Risks relating to the exercise of Corridor Warrants

In the case of Corridor Warrants, the Securityholder cannot exercise the Warrants during their term. During this period, the value of the Corridor Warrants can only be realised by selling the Securities. Market participants must be found who are prepared to purchase the Securities at an appropriate price. The lower the achievable selling price, the greater the loss for the investor.

(h) Risks in the case of Bottom-up Warrants*(aa) Worthless expiration of Bottom-up Warrants

The Redemption Amount depends on the number of days on which the Reference Price of the Underlying is equal to or above a Barrier. In the case the price of the Underlying is above the Barrier the following applies: The closer the price of the Underlying to the Barrier, the higher the probability that on this day the Reference Price will reach the Barrier and be below. If during the Monitoring Period the Reference Price of the Underlying is often or permanently below the Barrier, the Redemption Amount will be small, or the Bottom-up Warrants even expire worthless.

There is a risk of disproportionate price losses due to the leverage in the case of Bottom-up Warrants, the lower the value of the Bottom-up Warrant is. Unlike Standard Warrants, an increase in the implied volatility of the Underlying reduces the value of the Bottom-up Warrant, if the price of the Underlying is above the Barrier of the Bottom-up Warrant, whereas a decrease in the implied volatility of the Underlying reduces the value of the Bottom-up Warrant, if the price of the Underlying is below the Barrier.

(cc) Risks relating to the exercise of Bottom-up Warrants

In the case of Bottom-up Warrants, the Securityholder cannot exercise the Warrants during their term. During this period, the value of the Bottom-up Warrants can only be realised by selling the Securities. Risk: Market participants must be found who are prepared to purchase the Securities at an appropriate price. The lower the achievable selling price, the greater the loss for the investor.

(i) Risks in the case of Top-down Warrants*(aa) Worthless expiration of Top-down Warrants

The Redemption Amount depends on the number of days on which the Reference Price of the Underlying is equal to or below a Barrier. In the case the price of the Underlying is below the Barrier the following applies: The closer the price of the Underlying to the Barrier, the higher the probability that on this day the Reference Price will reach this Barrier and be above. If during the Monitoring Period the Reference Price of the Underlying is often or permanently above the Barrier, the Redemption Amount will be small, or the Top-down Warrants even expire worthless.

There is a risk of disproportionate price losses due to the leverage in the case of Top-down Warrants, the lower the value of the Top-down Warrant is. Unlike Standard Warrants, an increase in the implied volatility of the Underlying reduces the value of the Top-down Warrant, if the price of the Underlying is below the Barrier of the Top-down Warrant, whereas a decrease in the implied volatility of the Underlying reduces the value of the Bottom-up Warrant, if the price of the Underlying is above the Barrier.

(cc) Risks relating to the exercise of Top-down Warrants

In the case of Top-down Warrants, the Securityholder cannot exercise the Warrants during their term. During this period, the value of the Top-down Warrants can only be realised by selling the Securities. Market participants must be found who are prepared to purchase the Securities at an appropriate price. The lower the achievable selling price, the greater the loss for the investor.

2.2.2. Exchange rate risks in connection with the Securities

(a) Impairment of the Security due to exchange rate changes

Securityholders may face currency risks if the price or Underlying is expressed in a different currency than the Issue Currency and the amounts payable has to be converted into the Issue Currency on an exchange rate which is not already predetermined at issue (non quanto). Exchange rates are determined by supply and demand on the international foreign exchange markets. Exchange rates are affected by general economic factors, speculative activity and actions by governments and central banks. These may even include legal controls and restrictions on foreign exchange transactions. Exchange rates are therefore subject to significant fluctuations. Securityholders bear the risk, where applicable, that unfavourable developments on the foreign exchange market may reduce the value of the Securities and increase the risk of loss for the investor.

(b) Impairment of the price of the Underlying due to exchange rate changes

Securityholders may also be exposed to currency risks if the price of the Underlying is expressed in a currency (the "Foreign Currency") other than the Issue Currency and then converted into the Issue Currency. Thus, the Reference Price is subject not only to the price risk of the Underlying, but also to exchange rate risk. Thus, an unfavourable performance of the Foreign Currency against the Issue Currency could cancel out a positive performance of the Underlying. Result: Although the price of the Underlying in the Foreign Currency has risen, the value of the price of the Underlying in the Issue Currency decreases and thus also the value of the Security due to an unfavourable development on the foreign exchange market. The more negative the currency ratio develops, the greater the investor's loss (assuming that the Underlying does not change in the exchange rate in Foreign Currency). This can lead to losses up to total losses at the investor.

2.2.3. Risks arising from the Underlying to which the Securities are linked

The performance of the Securities depends to a large degree on the expected and actual performance of the Underlying.

The link to an Underlying entails risks that may have an adverse effect on the value of the Securities. In particular, the choice of Underlying by the Issuer is not based on its estimates of the future performance of the Underlying selected.

(a) Risk of fluctuations in the value of the Underlying

(aa) Dependence of payments under the security on the Underlying

Securityholders are affected by fluctuations in the value of the Underlying. These may have an adverse impact on the value of the Securities.

If investors purchase a Security with an Underlying, they also bear the risks associated with the Underlying as Securityholders. In particular, they bear the risk of fluctuations in the value of the Underlying. The fluctuations in the value of the Underlying depend on a variety of factors: Corporate actions or economic events relating to the business of the Underlying (e.g., deterioration of the results of a stock corporation), general economic factors and speculative activities. It is therefore not possible to make reliable statements about the future performance of the Underlying for the Securities. In particular, the performance of an Underlying in the past does not represent a guarantee of its future performance. The selection of an Underlying is not based on the expectations or estimates of the Issuer with respect to the future performance of the Underlying selected. Securityholders are therefore not able to predict in advance the repayment for the Securities that they can expect in the future.

The different types of warrants contain different risks. Depending on the structure and type of warrant, the Securityholder may incur considerable losses or even a total loss if the underlying asset does not perform as expected.

The same applies to sales of the Securities. The critical factor in this case is not only the value of the Underlying at the time of sale, but the value of the warrants is also decisively determined by the implied volatility.

If the implied volatility increases, the value of the Standard Warrant and the Hit Warrant will increase whereas the value of Inline Warrants, StayHigh Warrants and StayLow Warrants falls. In the case of Capped Warrants, Corridor Warrants, Bottom-up Warrants and Top-down Warrants it has to be distinguished: If they are "out of the money", the value develops as in the case of Standard Warrants. Are they "in the money", the value develops similar to Inline Warrants, StayHigh Warrants and StayLow Warrants. The higher the implied volatility, the greater the risk of higher price swings of the Underlying is estimated.

(cc) Risks relating to limited information with respect to the Underlying

Information about the Underlying may not be publicly available or available only to a limited extent. Securityholders may therefore have no access or only limited access to detailed information about the respective Underlying. This may apply to the current price of the Underlying as well as the past and future performance of the Underlying and of its volatility. Due to such a lack of information, investors may be able to anticipate negative developments too late or not at all. The less information an investor has about an Underlying, the higher the probability that that risk can arise. For Securityholders, this can lead to a total or partial loss of the Capital Amount invested.

(b) Risks relating to Shares as the Underlying

(aa) Dependence on the company's share price

If investors invest in Securities with a Share as the Underlying, they bear similar risks as in the case of a direct investment in that Share.

These include risks arising from the fluctuations in the company's share price. This includes the risk of the company becoming insolvent and of insolvency proceedings or a similar proceeding according to the applicable law of the company, being initiated with respect to the company's assets. The risk exists for the Securityholders in all cases that the relevant share may become worthless as the Underlying of their Security, thereby realising the risks presented in section 2.2.1. resulting from the nature of the security. The Securityholders may then suffer a total or partial loss.

(bb) Lower level of legal stability in the country of the registered office of the company

Additional risks apply to shares of companies with a registered office or business activity in countries with a low level of legal stability. The risk could consist, for example, of governments taking unpredictable measures or of nationalisation. This could result in a total or partial loss of the value of the share. If such risks were realised, the consequence for the Securityholder could be the total or partial loss of the respective Capital Amount invested.

(cc) No consideration of dividend payment

Unlike direct investments in shares, investors in Securities with Shares as Underlying will not receive a dividend or other distributions. Accordingly, an investor in the Securities bears the risk that the more the success of a company is reflected in dividends or distributions, the Securities with shares of that entity as Underlying do not or only insufficiently reflect that company's success.

(dd) Volatility and Illiquidity of the Share

Shares of companies with a low to medium market capitalisation may be subject to greater risks than the shares of larger companies. Such risks relate in particular to the volatility of the shares and the possible insolvency of the companies. In addition, shares of companies with a low market capitalisation may be highly illiquid due to low trading volumes. This volatility and illiquidity may have a negative impact on the share price and therefore the risks associated with the securities and shown in section 2.2.1. may be more likely to occur. This can lead to a loss in relation to the Securities.

(ee) Adjustment measures in the case of Shares

Securities with a share as the Underlying are also subject to adjustment measures, that may arise as a result of events relating to the company issuing the shares. Such adjustment measures become necessary in the event of corporate actions (e.g., capital increases) by the company concerned. The possibility cannot be ruled out that an adjustment measure may subsequently prove to be inappropriate or disadvantageous for the Securityholders. It may also be the case that an adjustment measure places a Securityholder in a worse financial position than before the adjustment measure was carried out. In such cases, there is a risk that the risks associated with the securities and identified in section 2.2.1. may be more likely to occur. This can lead to a loss in relation to the Securities.

(ff) Shares in the form of depositary receipts

If the Underlying consists of depositary receipts rather than shares (e.g., American depositary receipts ("ADRs") or global depositary receipts ("GDRs"), referred to together as "Depositary Receipts"), additional risks may arise. Each Depositary Receipt represents one or more shares or a fraction of a security of a foreign company. For Depositary Receipt, the legal owner of the underlying shares is the depositary bank of the Depositary Receipts, which also acts as the issuing agent.

In the event of the insolvency of the depositary bank and/or the initiation of enforcement proceedings with respect to it, the underlying shares in question may be subject to restrictions on their disposal and/or their economic value may be realised in connection with enforcement measures against the depositary bank. This means that the Depositary Receipt will lose its value as an Underlying and the Securities linked to the Depositary Receipt could become worthless. The investor will be faced with a risk of total loss in such a scenario.

(c) Risks relating to ETF Shares as the Underlying(aa) Dependence on the performance of an index, basket or specific individual assets

The purpose of an index-based ETF (Exchange Traded Fund) is to replicate the performance of an index, a basket or specific individual assets as closely as possible. The value of the ETF therefore depends in particular on the price performance of the individual index or basket constituents or of the individual asset. An unfavourable performance of the ETF or the index, basket or specific individual asset underlying the ETF may have an adverse effect on the value of the Securities. Consequently, the risks identified in section 2.2.1. may be more likely to occur. This may result in a loss in relation to the Securities.

Index-based ETFs whose performance is linked to an index or basket will normally invest in securities that are not included in the index or basket. In addition, derivative financial instruments and techniques are used in order to link the value of the ETF Share to the performance of the index or basket. The use of these derivative financial instruments and techniques involves risks for the ETF which may be greater in certain cases than the risks of traditional forms of investment. The ETF may also incur losses due to the default of the counterparty in a transaction involving the use of derivatives, e.g., in the case of OTC swap transactions. This may then negatively affect the value of the ETF Share and thus on the Securities. Consequently, the risks identified in section 2.2.1. may be more likely to occur. This may result in a loss in relation to the Securities.

(cc) Liquidation risks for collateral provided

The statutory and regulatory provisions apply to collateral provided by counterparties to the investment company for index-based ETFs in connection with securities lending, repurchase and OTC transactions for the purpose of minimising the risk of counterparty default. However, the possibility cannot be ruled out that individual items of collateral may be worthless when the liquidation event occurs or may lose all of their value by the date of liquidation. Consequently, the risks identified in section 2.2.1. may be more likely to occur. To that extent, there is a risk that the ETF Share may lose all of its value and therefore a risk of total loss in respect of the Securities.

(dd) Risk of replacement of the index

In certain circumstances (e.g., there are no exchange prices available for the components), the calculation or publication of the index replicated by the index-based ETF or basket may be suspended or even discontinued. Furthermore, the index constituents or basket constituents may be changed, or the index or basket may be replaced by a different index or basket. The investor therefore faces the risk that the index or individual constituents may be replaced. This may have a negative impact on the value of the ETF share and, consequently, the risks identified in section 2.2.1. may be more likely to occur. This can lead to a loss in relation to the Securities.

(ee) Costs of an ETF

The performance of the ETF whose shares form the Underlying for the Securities is affected among other things by costs charged to the ETF directly or indirectly. Investors are exposed to the risk that these costs may have a negative impact on the performance of the ETF. Consequently, the risks identified in section 2.2.1. may be more likely to occur. This can lead to a loss in relation to the Securities.

(ff) Market risk

Since price falls or losses of value in the securities acquired by the ETF or its other investments are reflected in the price of the individual ETF Shares, there is a general risk that ETF Share prices may fall. Even if the ETF investments are widely spread and highly diversified, the risk exists that a general downward trend on particular markets or exchanges could be reflected in a decline in ETF Share prices. Consequently, the risks identified in section 2.2.1. may be more likely to occur. This can lead to a loss in relation to the Securities.

(gg) Illiquid investments

The ETF may invest in assets that are illiquid or subject to a minimum holding period. For this reason, it may be difficult for the ETF to sell the relevant assets at an appropriate price or at all, if it is forced to do so in order to generate liquidity. The ETF may suffer significant losses if it has to sell illiquid assets to enable it to redeem ETF Shares, and it may be that the illiquid assets can only be sold at a low price. This may have an adverse effect on the value of the ETF and therefore on the value of the Securities. Investments in illiquid assets may also result in difficulties in calculating the net asset value of the ETF. This may in turn lead to delays affecting payments to investors in connection with the Securities. Consequently, the risks identified in section 2.2.1. may be more likely to occur. This can lead to a loss in relation to the Securities.

(hh) Delayed publication of the net asset value

In certain circumstances (e.g., exchange prices for the components are not or not available in time), it may be the case that an ETF is late in publishing its net asset value. This may result in a delay in redeeming the Securities and, if there is a negative movement in the market for example, may have an adverse impact on the value of the Securities. Consequently, the risks identified in section 2.2.1. may be more likely to occur. In the event of a delay in the redemption of the Securities, investors also bear the risk that their reinvestment of the relevant proceeds will firstly be delayed and may only be possible on less favourable terms. This can lead to a loss in relation to the Securities.

(ii) Liquidation of a fund

The possibility that an ETF may be liquidated during the term of the Securities cannot be ruled out. In this event, the Issuer is entitled, subject to the respective terms and conditions, to make adjustments with respect to the Securities. Adjustments of this nature may provide in particular for the replacement of the relevant ETF by a different ETF. In such cases, the possibility also exists that the Issuer may terminate the Securities prematurely. The Redemption Amount to be paid as a result may be less than the investor's Capital Amount and may result in losses, up to and end with a total loss, with the investor.

(d) Risks relating to Indices as the Underlying(aa) Dependence of the value fluctuation of the Index

If investors invest in Securities with an Index as the Underlying, they bear similar risks as in the case of a direct investment in that Index or a direct investment in the constituents of the relevant Index.

The value of an index is calculated on the basis of the value of its constituents. Changes in the prices of the index constituents, the composition of the index and other factors affecting the index constituents are reflected in the level of the index. Changes in the level of the index in turn directly affect the value of the Securities. Securityholders therefore bear the risk that changes in the index level may have an adverse impact on the return on an investment in these Securities. Fluctuations in the value of one index constituent may be reinforced by fluctuations in the value other index constituents. This may trigger or intensify a for the investor negative development in the level of the index. In such cases, there is a risk that the risks associated with the securities and identified in section 2.2.1. may be more likely to occur. If such risks were realised, the consequence for the Securityholder could be the total or partial loss of the respective Capital Amount invested.

An index used as an Underlying may not be available for the entire term of the Securities. The Securityholder therefore bears the risk, that the index may be discontinued, replaced or may be calculated in future by the Calculation Agent. In these or other circumstances specified in the Final Terms, the Securities may also be terminated by the Issuer. In such cases, the Redemption Amount may be less than the capital invested and a risk of loss for investors may arise.

(cc) Concentration risk

The index serving as the Underlying may only replicate the performance of assets in particular countries or particular sectors. In this event, Securityholders are exposed to concentration risk. This will be the case, for example, if the constituents of an index consist solely of shares from a particular country. In the event of an unfavourable economic performance for the Securityholder in that country, this development may have a negative impact on the level of the index for the Securityholder. The same applies if an index is composed of shares of companies in the same industry sector. In such cases, there is a risk that the risks associated with the securities and identified in section 2.2.1. may be more likely to occur. Depending on the structure and type of the warrants, the Securityholder may incur substantial losses or even a total loss if the index does not perform as expected.

(dd) No influence of the Issuer on the Index

The Issuer and its affiliated companies has no influence on the index serving as the Underlying for the Securities issued by the Issuer. The index is compiled and calculated by the respective Index Administrator regardless of the Securities. The Issuer or its affiliated companies therefore has no influence on the method of calculating, determining and publishing the index. It is also not involved in decisions about possible changes in the index or on a possible cessation of the index. The Securityholder bears the risk that the methods of calculation applied to the index may be altered or modified by the index administrator in a way which (unfavourably) affects the payment to the Securityholders. In addition, the issuer may make adjustments in accordance with the terms and conditions or, if necessary, terminate the Securities in an extraordinary manner. The Securityholder is at risk that the measures described may disadvantageously affect the value of the securities and that the risks associated with the securities and indicated in section 2.2.1. may occur with a higher probability. This can lead to a loss in relation to the Securities.

(ee) Currency risk contained in the Index

The Securityholder bears the risk that index constituents may be traded in different currencies and therefore be subject to differing currency effects. This applies in particular to indices focusing on more than one country or industry sector. It may also be the case that index constituents are first of all translated from one currency into the relevant currency for the calculation of the index. This applies, for example, if an index is calculated in euros but the index constituents consist of shares traded in euros, Swiss francs and US dollars. The Securityholders are exposed to different currency and exchange-rate risks in these circumstances. An development in the exchange rates of a currency, which is unfavourable for the Securityholder, may have an adverse effect on the index constituent traded in that currency. Such unfavourable development of this exchange rate can have an unfavourable effect on the index used as the underlying. The Securityholder thus bears the risk that the risks associated with the securities and indicated in section 2.2.1. are more likely to occur. This can lead to a loss in relation to the Securities.

(ff) Risks relating to indices that are new or not generally recognised

The following should be noted in the case of indices that are new developed and do not have historical data or are not generally recognised or indices which serve as the Underlying only for a specific Security: Their composition and calculation may be subject to a lower degree of transparency than in the case of generally recognised and established indices. In some cases, information about the index may also not be available to the same extent. Moreover, subjective criteria may play a significantly greater role in the composition of such indices. This may lead to higher fluctuations in the value of the index level and therefore the risk listed in section 2.2.3 (d) (aa) is more likely to arise. This can lead to a loss in relation to the Securities.

(e) Risks relating to Precious Metals as the Underlying(aa) Dependence on the development of the price of the Precious Metals

If investors invest in Securities with a Precious Metal as the Underlying, they bear similar risks as in the case of a direct investment in that Precious Metal.

The performance of Securities linked to Precious Metals (e.g., gold, silver) depends on the development of the price of the respective Precious Metal. The development of the price of a Precious Metal may be affected by the following factors: supply and demand, speculation, production bottlenecks, delivery difficulties, insufficient market participants, political unrest, economic crises, political risks (export restrictions, war, terrorism), unfavourable weather conditions and natural disasters. In such cases, there is a risk that the risks associated with the securities and identified in section 2.2.1. may be more likely to occur. This can lead to a loss in relation to the Securities.

Prices of precious metals are subject to greater fluctuations and precious metal markets may be less liquid than, for instance, equities markets. Changes in supply and demand may therefore have a greater impact on prices and volatilities. Another characteristic of markets for precious metals is that they have only a small number of active market participants. This increases the risk of speculative activity and price distortions. In such cases, there is a risk that the risks associated with the securities and identified in section 2.2.1. may be more likely to occur. This can lead to a loss in relation to the Securities.

(cc) Price indications as relevant price of the Precious Metals

For the purpose of determining the occurrence of a barrier event for Securities with precious metals as the Underlying, price indications are also used. These price indications are published on special Reuters pages by banks trading in the international interbank market for metals. The publication of these price indications is not monitored or supervised by a governmental or international supervisory body. In the case of Securities with a precious metal as the Underlying, Securityholders therefore face the risk that a Knock-out Event may occur solely on the basis of such a price indication. The risks associated with a Knock-out Event have already been set out above under 2.2.1. This can lead to a loss in relation to the Securities.

(dd) Political risks

Precious metals are frequently extracted in emerging markets to meet demand from industrial nations. However, the political and economic situation in emerging markets is usually considerably less stable than in the industrialised countries. Emerging markets are more exposed to the risks of rapid political change and economic setbacks. Investor confidence may be shaken by political crises. This can negatively affect the prices of precious metal in turn for the Securityholder. War or armed conflict in particular may change the supply of and demand for certain precious metals. In addition, it is possible that industrialised countries may impose an embargo on the export and import of precious metals. This may have a direct or indirect unfavourable impact for the Securityholder on the price of the precious metal used as the Underlying. The value of the Securities may also be unfavourably affected as a result and the risks identified in section 2.2.1. may be more likely to occur. This can lead to a loss in relation to the Securities.

(f) Risks relating to Futures Contracts as the Underlying(aa) Dependency of price fluctuations of the reference value underlying the Futures-Contract

If investors invest in Securities with a Futures Contract as the Underlying, they bear similar risks as in the case of a direct investment in that futures contract.

The value of the futures contract usually depends directly on the price of the reference value underlying the futures contract. In particular, commodities (so-called commodity futures), indices, bonds or virtual currencies can be used as reference values. Individual risks with regard to the reference values are mentioned below:

In the case of commodity futures as Underlying, specific risks associated with the relevant commodities (e.g., oil, gas, aluminium, coffee, orange juice, copper or uranium) may arise which are often related to the risks presented in section 2.2.3. (e) on precious metals. In the case of agricultural raw materials as commodities, cyclical pattern of supply and demand can result in significant fluctuations in prices. Unfavourable weather conditions and natural disasters can have a negative impact over the long term on the delivery of specific commodities for the whole year. A supply crisis of this nature may result in significant and unpredictable fluctuations in prices.

In the case of futures contracts on indices, the risks listed in section 2.2.3. (d) of indices may occur and negatively affect the price of the futures contract as the Underlying of a Security for the Securityholder.

In the case of futures contracts on bonds, the Securityholders are also exposed to the risk of insolvency of the issuer of the respective bond(s) underlying the futures contract, If the issuer of a bond underlying a futures contract fails to fulfil its obligations in connection with the relevant bond, the price for the futures contracts falls.

In the case of futures contracts on virtual currencies, the Securityholders are exposed to the risk of the respective futures specifications (e.g., price limits to curtail volatility of the virtual currency) and the risk associated with the relevant virtual currency. Virtual currencies are currently mainly stateless digital currencies and unregulated entities whose prices are subject to volatile spikes. It cannot be ruled out that the regulatory treatment of virtual currencies by national authorities and courts or international standard setting bodies could be subject to changes in the future. As a result, the purchase and/or direct or indirect investment in specific virtual currencies may be prohibited or otherwise restricted.

The realisation of the risks associated with these reference values may have a negative impact on the price of the futures contract for the Securityholder. As a result, the value of the securities can be unfavourably affected and the risks shown in section 2.2.1. may occur with a higher probability This can lead to a loss in relation to the Securities.

Since every futures contract has a specific expiry date, the terms and conditions may provide that (especially for Securities with longer terms) the Issuer will replace the futures contract stipulated as the Underlying in the terms and conditions at a time specified in the terms and conditions, with a futures contract that, apart from a later expiry date, has the same contract specifications as the original Underlying futures contract (so called "Roll-over"). This can lead to a loss in relation to the Securities.

(cc) Pricing and tick size

Futures contracts may be priced on the futures exchange in units (e.g., currencies, index points, percentage) or in fractions of decimals. Investors should also note that the "tick size" (the minimum price movement) of the futures contract may affect the occurrence of a Knock-out Event. The tick size may be defined by the futures exchange in different ways (e.g., EUR 5.00 in the case of the FTSE MIB futures contract or 0.5/32 in the case of the 10-year U.S. Treasury Note futures contract). A change in price of one tick on the futures exchange can therefore result in a Knock-out Event if the difference between the price of the Underlying and the respective barrier is less than the tick size. In this case, the investor suffers a total loss.

(dd) Futures price may differ significantly from the cash price of the reference value underlying the futures contract

As a result of the particular characteristics of futures trading, market phases may occur in trading in futures contracts, during which (against the expectation of the investors) there is no close correlation between the development of the price of the futures contract and the development of the cash price of the reference value underlying the futures contract. Moreover, there may be market phases in which the price behaviour of the futures contract on the futures market is uncorrelated with the price behaviour of the asset on the cash market. There is therefore a risk that (contrary to the investor's expectations) the price of the futures contract does not develop in the same way as the cash price of the reference value underlying the futures contract. As a result, if the price of the futures contract develops negatively for the Securityholder, the risks identified in section 2.2.1. may occur. This can lead to a loss in relation to the Securities.

(g) Risks relating to Currency Exchange Rates as the Underlying

If investors invest in Securities with a Currency Exchange Rate as the Underlying, they bear similar risks as in the case of a direct investment in that currency exchange rate.

In the case of Securities linked to Currency Exchange Rates as the Underlying, the determination of whether a Knock-out Event has occurred is based on the prices quoted on the international interbank spot market. A Knock-out Event (with the risks set out in 2.2.1.) can therefore occur at any time during global trading on these markets.

Currency exchange rates are derived from supply and demand for currencies on the international currency markets which are subject to a variety of economic factors, such as the rate of inflation in the particular country, differences in interest rates compared with other countries, the expected performance of the relevant economy, the global political situation, the convertibility of one currency into another, the security of monetary deposits in the respective currency and actions taken by governments and central banks (e.g., exchange controls and restrictions). In addition to these factors which can be assessed, however, other factors which are difficult to predict may be relevant, for example factors of a psychological nature such as crises of confidence in the political leadership of the country or other speculative considerations. Psychological elements of this nature can also have a significant effect on the value of the particular currency. These factors may be reflected accordingly in currency exchange rates and therefore have an unfavourable impact on the value of Securities with currency exchange rates as the Underlying. Consequently, the risks identified in section 2.2.1. may be more likely to occur. This can lead to a loss in relation to the Securities.

2.2.4. Risks relating to the pricing and tradability of the Securities(a) Market price risks*

During the term of the Securities, the price of the Securities may vary significantly, because the price of the Securities depends not only on the creditworthiness of the Issuer and of the Guarantor, but also essentially on the value of the Underlying and the design of the Security (see in particular the 2.2.1. and 2.2.2.). This may result in the value of the Securities falling below the Capital Amount paid by for the purchase of the Securities.

If Securityholders sell their Securities prior to redemption, they must take account that the sale proceeds generated in any particular case may be substantially lower than the Capital Amount paid by the Securityholder for the purchase of the Securities.

As the performance of the Securities is not certain at the time of their purchase due to their dependence on the performance of the Underlying and the structure of the Security, investors will have to bear any losses in value during the term. The more negative the value of the securities, the greater the investor's loss.

(b) Liquidity risks

Investors bear the risk that there will not be a liquid market for trading in the Securities, due to the structured component of the Securities and their dependence on the Underlying. This means that they may not be able to sell the Securities at a time of their choosing or are forced to sell at a later date at potentially lower prices.

A listing of the Securities on an exchange can never be guaranteed. If a listing does not exist, purchases and sales of the Securities are significantly difficult or in practice impossible. Even if the Securities are listed, the derivative structure of the Securities may result in low turnover on the respective exchange, which makes it difficult to sell the Securities at a favourable price and, as a result, create an illiquid market for the Securities.

If investors are forced to sell the Securities in an illiquid market, there is a risk of a small value for them to be redeemed and to suffer a corresponding loss. The more illiquid the market, the more likely it is that the prices raised do not reflect the actual value of the Securities.

(c) Determination of secondary market prices for the Securities / pricing risks

Securityholders bear the risk that they may not be able to sell the Securities at a particular time or at a particular price, since the Securities are structured securities and, as a result, the formation of prices in the secondary market is different compared to plain bonds.

Thus, in normal market conditions, Société Générale (the "Market Maker") regularly quotes buying and selling prices for the Securities (the "Market Making"). The Market Maker may also be an affiliated company of Société Générale or another financial institution. However, the Market Maker does not guarantee that the prices it quotes are appropriate. Equally, the Market Maker provides no guarantee that prices will be available for the Securities at all times during their entire term. The prices set by the market maker may therefore differ significantly from the fair or economically expected value of the Securities.

The Market Maker may also change the method it uses to determine the prices quoted at any time in its discretion. For example, the Market Maker may modify its calculation model and/or increase or reduce the bid/offer spread. Moreover, in the event of market disruptions or technical problems, the availability of the electronic trading system used may be restricted or suspended. In the case of abnormal market conditions or extreme price fluctuations on the securities markets, the Market Maker will not generally provide bid and offer prices. Securityholders therefore bear the risk that in some circumstances they will have no quoted price for their Securities. This means that Securityholders will not be able to sell their Securities in the market at an appropriate price in all situations.

The opening hours of a market for the Securities frequently differ from the opening hours of the market for the respective Underlying. In this event, the Market Maker may have to estimate the price of the Underlying to be able to determine the price of the relevant Security. These estimates may turn out to be incorrect and have unfavourable consequences for the Securityholders.

Investors should also note: The issue size of the Securities specified in the Final Terms merely refers to the number of Securities offered (offer volume) and cannot be used as an indication of the volume of Securities actually issued or outstanding. In consequence, no conclusions can be drawn from the issue size specified about the liquidity of the Securities for the purposes of possible trading transactions.

Due to the specific structure of the Securities and the resulting complex pricing, an investor is highly dependent on the price formed by the Market Maker in the event of a sale of the Securities. In all these cases described in this section, there may be a loss on the part of the investor.

(d) Risks from potential conflicts of interest

(aa) Further transactions

The Issuer and its affiliated companies may pursue interests that do not take into account the interests of the Securityholders or may conflict with them. This may occur in connection with carrying out further transactions, business relationships with the issuer of the Underlying or the exercise of other functions.

The Issuer and its affiliated companies are active on a daily basis in the international and German securities, foreign exchange, credit derivatives and commodity markets. They may therefore enter into transactions directly or indirectly related to the Securities for their own account or for the account of clients. In addition, the Issuer may conclude transactions relating to the respective Underlying. This applies in particular to the conclusion of so-called hedging transactions in relation to the Securities, in particular the hedging of the risk to Issuer from the derivative component of the Securities (i.e. the dependence of the securities on the underlying). Such transactions or hedging transactions may have an unfavourable impact on the performance of the Underlying for the Securityholder. Therefore, they may also unfavourably affect the value and/or the tradability of the Securities. In this context, the Issuer may pursue economic interests that conflict with the interests of the investors.

The value of the Securities may also be affected by the unwinding of some or all of these transactions and hedging transactions, respectively.

The Issuer and its affiliated companies may buy and sell Securities for its own account or for the account of third parties and may issue additional Securities. These transactions may reduce the value of the Securities. The launching of further, competing products on the market may adversely affect the value of the Securities. Due to the impairment of the Securities, the investor may suffer a loss on the sale of the Securities. The greater the impairment of the Securities, the greater the loss of the investor.

The Issuer and its affiliated companies may have a business relationship with the issuer of the Underlying. A business relationship of this kind may consist of advisory and trading activities, for example. The Issuer may take actions in this context which it considers appropriate to safeguard its own interests arising from this business relationship. In so doing, the Issuer is not obliged to have regard to the impact on the Securities or on the Securityholders.

The Issuer may enter into or participate in transactions which influence the value of the Underlying. Since the value of the Securities is materially dependent on the fluctuations in the value of the Underlying, such business relationships with the issuer of the Underlying may adversely affect the value of the Securities and the investor may suffer a loss. The greater the impairment of the Securities, the greater the loss of the investor.

(cc) Information relating to the Underlying

The Issuer and its affiliated companies may possess or obtain material, non-public information about the Underlying. The Issuer and its affiliated companies are under no obligation to disclose information of this nature to the Securityholders. Securityholders could therefore make wrong decisions in relation to the Securities which could result in a loss, up to and including the total loss of the Capital Amount invested, as a result of missing, incomplete or false information about the Underlying.

2.2.5. Risks arising from the taxation of the Securities or the Underlying

(a) Risks relating to taxation of the Securities

Tax laws and practice are subject to changes, which may take effect retroactively. This can have a negative effect on the value of the Securities and/or the market price of the Securities. The tax treatment of the Securities may change in comparison with their tax treatment at the date of purchase of the Securities, for example. Therefore, due to the specific dependence of the Securities on the performance of the Underlying, Securityholders therefore bear the risk that they may make an incorrect assessment of the taxation of the income resulting from the purchase of the Securities. But there is also a possibility that the taxation of the income resulting from the purchase of the Securities may change to the disadvantage of the Securityholders.

Securityholders bear the risk of changes in the specific tax treatment of the Securities. This may negatively affect the value of the Securities and the investor may suffer a corresponding loss. The stronger this negative effect, the greater the loss.

(b) Risks relating to the retention of U.S. withholding tax (FATCA)

It is not expected that the reporting regime and potential withholding tax imposed by sections 1471 through 1474 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 ("FATCA") will affect the amount of any payment received by an applicable clearing system. However, FATCA may affect payments made to custodians or intermediaries in the subsequent payment chain leading to the ultimate investor if any such custodian or intermediary generally is unable to receive payments free of FATCA withholding. It may also affect payment to any ultimate investor that is a financial institution that is not entitled to receive payments free of withholding under FATCA, or an ultimate investor that fails to provide its broker (or other custodian or intermediary from which it receives payment) with any information, forms, other documentation or consents that may be necessary for the payments to be made free of FATCA withholding. Investors should choose the custodians or intermediaries with care (to ensure each is compliant with FATCA or other laws or agreements related to FATCA) and provide each custodian or intermediary with any information, forms, other documentation or consents that may be necessary for such custodian or intermediary to make a payment free of FATCA withholding. Investors should consult their own tax adviser to obtain a more detailed explanation of FATCA and how FATCA may affect them. To the extent any withholding tax under FATCA applies, Securityholders will not receive any payment in respect of this deduction to compensate for the deduction. This is because neither the Issuer nor any paying agent or any other person is under an obligation to make any such compensatory payment to the Securityholders. The Securityholders may therefore receive lower payments than expected in such circumstances.

(c) Risks relating to the retention of U.S. withholding tax (Section 871(m) IRC)

U.S. Treasury regulations issued under Section 871(m) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Section 871(m) Regulations") generally impose a 30% withholding tax on dividend equivalents paid or deemed paid (within the meaning of the relevant Section 871(m) Regulations) to a non-United States holder (a "Non-U.S. Holder") with respect to certain financial instruments linked to U.S. equities, ETFs or indices that reference U.S. equities (the "U.S. Underlying Equities"). Certain Securities under this Base Prospectus are therefore potentially subject to U.S. withholding tax when referencing U.S. Underlying Equities.

For such Securities, if U.S. source dividend payments are made in respect of U.S. Underlying Equities, the Issuer intends to take any applicable tax obligation under Section 871(m) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 ("IRC") into account in its ongoing adjustment of the price of the Underlying by withholding at a rate of 30 percent on any dividend equivalents. Because many central securities depositories do not provide identifying information regarding the beneficial owners of any such Security, and because the Issuer does not expect the clearing system(s) clearing the Securities will provide such information, the Issuer is unable to apply any reduced rates of withholding to the Securities. If the beneficial owner of a payment is entitled to a reduced rate of withholding under a treaty, this may result in over-withholding and the beneficial owner may not be able to obtain a refund. The Issuer will not be able to assist in any treaty or refund claims. Non-U.S. investors entitled to a reduced rate of withholding should consult their tax advisers regarding an investment in the Securities.

2.2.6. Risks arising from adjustments and terminations

(a) Adjustments

Securityholders bear the risk that the Securities may be adjusted.

The terms and conditions specify certain events on the occurrence of which the terms and conditions may be adjusted.

Such so-called extraordinary events or adjustment events arise in particular with regard to events which have a specific impact on the underlying of the securities. For example, the following events should be mentioned: the determination of the listing of Underlying, the elimination of the Underlying or the elimination of the possibility for the Issuer to enter into the necessary hedging transactions in relation to the Underlying. However, adjustments to the security itself may also occur, such as legislative changes or tax events that have a negative impact on security. In the event that the terms and conditions are adjusted, the Securities continue to exist. These measures may result in a loss for the investor. The more negative the impact of the adjustments, the higher the potential loss for the investor.

(b) Termination risk

Securityholders bear the risk that the Securities may be terminated.

Such extraordinary termination may arise in particular where an adjustment of the terms and conditions as a result of an extraordinary event is not appropriate in relation to the Underlying (see the execution of this risk in section (a)). This risk arises in particular from the derivative structure of the Securities and the dependence of the Securities on the Underlying.

In the event of the termination of the Securities, the Extraordinary Termination Amount may be very low in some cases. It could be lower than the amount the Securityholders would have received if the extraordinary termination of the Securities had not taken place. Securityholders will incur a loss if the Extraordinary Termination Amount is less than the Capital Amount used to acquire the Securities. A total loss is also possible. The worse the performance of the security, the greater the risk of an investor's loss in the event of the termination of the Security.

(c) Reinvestment risk

Furthermore, Securityholders bear the risk that the Securities may be terminated at a time that is unfavourable from their point of view and therefore repaid early (reinvestment risk). This risk arises as a result of the termination risk presented in section (b). If the Securityholders may be expecting a further increase in the price of the Securities at precisely that time, this expectation may therefore no longer be fulfilled due to the ending of its term. In addition, in the event of such an extraordinary termination, the amount to be paid by the issuer may be reinvested on less favourable market terms than applied at the date the Securities were purchased. This may mean that the overall return to be achieved may be significantly lower than the return expected on the Securities terminated. The investor may therefore suffer a loss in the reinvestment of the amount paid under the Securities. The less favourable the conditions of a reinvestment, the greater the loss.

3.4. Final Terms

3.4.1. New Securities

For Securities that are offered publicly and/or admitted to trading on a regulated or other comparable market for the first time under this Base Prospectus (the "New Securities"), the Final Terms are prepared using the form of the Final Terms (see section "10. Form of Final Terms"). These Final Terms contains the terms and conditions of the issue completed accordingly (see section "8. Terms and Conditions"), omitting those conditions not relevant to these Securities and filling in the placeholders or replacing the conditions with the appropriate content.

In the event of an increase of the issue size of New Securities, the additional Securities, as described in the previous paragraph, will be documented using the form of the Final Terms and the terms and conditions of this Securities Note. The additional Securities will form a single series economically with the Securities already issued (corresponding to the increased issue size), i.e. they have the same ISIN and the same features.

3.4.2. Former Securities

For Securities that (i) were offered publicly and/or admitted to trading on a regulated or other comparable market for the first time under a Former Base Prospectus (see section "3.7.2. Former Base Prospectuses"), (ii) whose characteristics are covered by the present Base Prospectus and (iii) which are not subject to a continuation of the public offering in accordance with section 3.5. (the "Former Securities"), the Final Terms are documented using the form of the Final Terms (see section "10. Form of Final Terms"). These Final Terms contain the product description completed accordingly (see section

"9. Product Description for Former Securities"). The terms and conditions of this Securities Note (see section "8. Terms and Conditions") are not applicable.

In the event of an increase of the issue size of Former Securities, the additional Securities, as described in the previous paragraph, will be documented using the form of the Final Terms and the product description. The additional Securities will form a single series economically with the Securities already issued (corresponding to the increased issue size), i.e. they have the same ISIN and the same features.

3.5. Continuation of the public offering of Securities

The Form of Final Terms for the purposes of the continuation of the public offering is contained in the Former Base Prospectuses. This information is incorporated by reference and forms part of this Base Prospectus (see section "3.7.2. Former Base Prospectuses").

In addition, Securities issued under the Former Base Prospectuses and for which the public offer is to be continued under this Base Prospectus are identified by the mention of their ISIN in section "11. ISIN List". The Final Terms of the Securities mentioned are published on the website www.warrants.com (here after entering the relevant ISIN in the search field of the country-specific website and then under "Documentation").

3.6. Third-Party Information

The Issuer confirms that information provided by third parties included in this Securities Note has been reproduced correctly and that – as far as the Issuer is aware and was able to deduce from the information published by that third party – no facts have been omitted that would render the information reproduced incorrect or misleading.

As a source of information for the description of the Underlying, these websites may then refer in turn to websites whose contents may be used as a source of information for the description of the Underlying and as information about the development of the price of the Underlying. The Issuer gives no guarantee of the correctness of the contents and completeness of the data presented on these third-party websites. ## 4. DESCRIPTION OF THE GUARANTEE

4.1. Nature and scope of the Guarantee provided for the Securities

Société Générale (the "Guarantor") irrevocably and unconditionally guarantees to each Securityholder that, if for any reason, the Issuer does not pay any sum or amount payable by it to such Securityholder in respect of any Security (including any premium or other amounts of whatever nature or additional amounts which may become payable under any Security), as and when the same shall become due under any of the foregoing, the Guarantor will pay to such Securityholder on demand the amount payable by the Issuer to such Securityholder as if such payment was made by the Issuer in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Securities.

If the Relevant Resolution Authority (as defined in the Terms and Conditions (Product-Specific Terms)) exercises its Bail-in Power (as defined in the Terms and Conditions (Product-Specific Terms)) on liabilities pursuant to Article L. 613-30-3 I 3 of the French Monetary and Financial Code (Code monétaire et financier, "M&F Code"), of Société Générale, ranking junior to liabilities of Société Générale that benefits from statutorily preferred exceptions pursuant to Article L. 613-30-3 I 1° and 2° M&F Code, and senior to liabilities as defined in Article L. 613-30-3 I 4 M&F Code, which results in the write-down or cancellation of all, or a portion of, the principal amount of, or outstanding amount payable in respect of, and/or interest on, such liabilities, and/or the conversion of all, or a portion, of the principal amount of, or outstanding amount payable in respect of, or interest on, such liabilities into shares or other securities or other obligations of the Guarantor or another person, including by means of a variation of the terms and conditions to give effect to such exercise of such Bail-in Power, then the Guarantor's payment or delivery obligations under the present Guarantee shall be identical to the amounts or delivery that would be due if the Guarantor was itself the issuer of the Securities.

This Guarantee is a separate obligation and independent of the validity and enforceability of the obligations of the Issuer under the Securities. The intent and purpose of this Guarantee is to ensure that the Securityholders, under all circumstances and regardless of any factual and legal circumstances, motivations and considerations on the basis of which the Issuer may fail to effect payment, shall receive principal and interest and all other amounts payable pursuant to the Terms and Conditions of the relevant Securities on the due dates in accordance with the relevant Terms and Conditions.

All payments in respect of the Securities or under the Guarantee shall be made free and clear of, and without withholding or deduction for or on account of any present or future taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or on behalf of any Tax Jurisdiction (as defined in the Terms and Conditions (General Terms)), unless such withholding or deduction is required by law. In the event that any amounts are required to be deducted or withheld for, or on behalf of, any Tax Jurisdiction, the Issuer or, as the case may be, the Guarantor shall (except in certain circumstances), to the fullest extent permitted by law, pay such additional amount as may be necessary, in order that each Securityholder after deduction or withholding of such taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges, will receive the full amount then due and payable, as more fully described in the Terms and Conditions. No additional amounts shall be paid for any withholding or deduction made pursuant to FATCA or Section 871(m) IRC.

The Guarantor's obligations under this Guarantee are and will remain in full force and effect until no sums remains payable under any Security. Any amendments to this Guarantee prejudicial to the interests of the Securityholders shall only apply to Securities issued after the date of such amendments. Furthermore, these obligations of the Guarantor are additional to, and not instead of, any security or other guarantee or indemnity at any time existing in favour of a Securityholder, whether from the Guarantor or otherwise. The Guarantor irrevocably waives all notices and demands whatsoever.

The Guarantee obligations will constitute direct, unconditional, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Guarantor ranking senior preferred obligations, as provided for in Article L. 613-30-3 I 3° M&F Code).

Such Guarantee obligations rank and will rank equally and rateably without any preference or priority among themselves and:

- (a) pari passu with all other direct, unconditional, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Guarantor outstanding as of the date of the entry into force of the law no. 2016-1691 ("Law") on 11 December 2016;

- (b) pari passu with all other present or future direct, unconditional, unsecured and senior preferred obligations (as provided for in Article L. 613-30-3 I 3° M&F Code) of the Guarantor issued after the date of the entry into force of the Law on 11 December 2016;
- (c) junior to all present or future claims of the Guarantor benefiting from the statutorily preferred exceptions; and
- (d) senior to all present and future senior non-preferred obligations (as provided for in Article L. 613-30-3 I 4° M&F Code) and all present or future subordinated obligations and deeply subordinated obligations, of the Guarantor.

The Guarantor may deposit with the local court (Amtsgericht) in Frankfurt am Main principal or interest not claimed by the Securityholders within twelve months after the relevant date, even though such Securityholders may not be in default of acceptance of payment. If and to the extent that the deposit is effected, and the right of withdrawal is waived, the respective claims of such Securityholders against the Issuer shall cease. Relevant date in this context means the date on which the relevant payment first becomes due, except that, if the full amount of the moneys payable has not been dully received by the Paying Agent (or, in the case of uncertificated securities, the Securityholders) on or prior to such due date, it means the date on which, the full amount of such moneys having been so received, notice to that effect is duly given to the Securityholders in accordance with the Terms and Conditions.

This Guarantee is governed by and shall be construed in accordance with German law.

Place of performance shall be Frankfurt am Main, Federal Republic of Germany.

The Guarantor hereby appoints Société Générale, Frankfurt Branch as its authorised recipient (Zustellungsbevollmächtigter), the "Authorised Recipient" in Germany in respect of any proceedings and undertakes that in the event of Société Générale, Frankfurt Branch ceasing so to act, it will appoint another person as its Authorised Recipient for this purpose.

To the extent permitted by law, the regional court (Landgericht) in Frankfurt am Main shall have exclusive jurisdiction over all actions or other legal proceedings arising as a result of or in connection with this Guarantee.

9 July 2025 Société Générale

The Securities may be structured in different variants. An explanation of the functionality of the different variants can be found in section "6. Description of the Securities" of this Securities Note. This section describes in particular how the value of the Securities is affected by the value of the Underlying.

The features of the Securities and further information on the individual issues can only be determined shortly prior to publication of the Final Terms. They will be specified and published in the Final Terms.

This includes the following information, for example:

- International Securities Identification Number (ISIN), other securities identification numbers and/or exchange codes;
- issue date (payment date);
- issue size;
- expiry date;
- issue currency; and
- Underlying

A Form of the Final Terms can be found in section "10. Form of Final Terms" of this Securities Note.

(b) Form of the Securities / Transferability

The Securities will be either issued in dematerialised form or represented by a global bearer security (the "Global Security"). In the case of Securities in dematerialized form the Final Terms will provide the name and the address of the entity in charge for keeping the records. The restrictions set out in section "7. Selling Restrictions" must be observed.

(aa) German Global Security

German Global Security will be represented by a Global Security. If so provided in the Final Terms, the Securities will be initially represented by a temporary global bearer security (the "Temporary Global Security"). This will then be exchanged for a permanent global bearer security (the "Permanent Global Security") following the presentation of certificates of non-U.S. ownership. The Temporary Global Security and the Permanent Global Security are referred to in the following as the Global Security.

The Global Security will be deposited with either

Central Register Securities are issued by entering them in the electronic central register maintained by the register-keeping agent and by previously depositing the Terms and Conditions for the Security with the register-keeping agent as a permanent electronic instrument. The central register is maintained by a register-keeping agent acting in the capacity of a Central Securities Depository. As a result of the maintenance of the central register by a Central Securities Depository, the Central Register Securities are entered into the book-entry system.

The Central Register Security is registered with the Central Securities Depository. The Central Securities Depository is entered in the central register as the holder (collective entry) and administers the Securities on a fiduciary basis for the respective creditors (beneficiaries (Berechtigte), as defined by the eWpG)). Central Register Securities in collective entry are deemed by law to be collective securities holdings. There is no right to individual entry in the name of a creditor. The Securities shall be transferred as a co-ownership interest in the collective securities holding in accordance with applicable law and the rules and regulations of the Clearing System.

For the avoidance of doubt the Limited Recourse is without prejudice to the Securityholder's rights under the Guarantee and do not alter or impair the Guarantor's obligations under the relevant guarantee and accordingly each holder shall continue to have the right to institute any proceeding, judicial or otherwise, or otherwise assert a claim against the Guarantor to enforce any obligation due under the relevant guarantee, including without limitation in respect of any Defaulted Payments subject in all cases to the terms of the Guarantee.

(f) Bail-in

(aa) If the Relevant Resolution Authority (as defined in the Terms and Conditions (Product-Specific Terms)) exercises its Bail-in Power (as defined in the Terms and Conditions (Product-Specific

Terms)) on liabilities pursuant to Article L. 613-30-3 I 3° M&F Code of Société Générale ranking junior to liabilities of Société Générale that benefits from statutorily preferred exceptions pursuant to Article L. 613-30-3 I 1° and 2° M&F Code, and senior to liabilities as defined in Article L. 613-30-3 I 4° M&F Code, which results in the write-down or cancellation of all, or a portion of, the principal amount of, or outstanding amount payable in respect of, and/or interest on, such liabilities, and/or the conversion of all, or a portion, of the principal amount of, or outstanding amount payable in respect of, or interest on, such liabilities into shares or other securities or other obligations of Société Générale or another person, including by means of a variation of the terms and conditions to give effect to such exercise of Bail-in Power, then

- (1) the Issuer's obligations to the Securityholders under the Securities shall be limited and reduced to the amounts of principal and/or interest that would be recoverable by the Securityholders and/or the value of the shares or other securities or other obligations of Société Générale or another person that would be delivered to the Securityholders if the Securities had been directly issued by Société Générale itself, and any obligations under the Securities had accordingly been directly subject to the Bail-in Power, and
- (2) the Issuer shall be entitled to, in lieu of payment, request the Securityholders to seek payment, in whole or in part, of any amounts due under the Securities subsequent to the reduction and/or delivery of any shares or other securities or other obligations of Société Générale subsequent to conversion provided for at (1) above, directly from Société Générale under Société Générale's obligations.

If and to the extent that the Issuer requests the Securityholders to directly seek payment and/or delivery from Société Générale under Société Générale's Guarantee for the Issuer's obligations, the Issuer's liabilities under the Securities shall be deemed extinguished.

- (bb) No repayment of the principal amount of the Securities or the payment of interest thereon (to the extent of the portion thereof affected by the exercise of the Bail-in Power) shall become due and payable after the exercise of any Bail-in Power by the Relevant Resolution Authority, unless such repayment or payment would be permitted to be made by Société Générale under the laws and regulations then applicable to Société Générale under its senior unsecured liabilities if Société Générale itself was the issuer of the Securities, and the Terms and Conditions shall be deemed to be modified accordingly.
- (cc) Upon the Issuer becoming aware of the exercise of the Bail-in Power by the Relevant Resolution Authority on senior unsecured liabilities of Société Générale, the Issuer shall notify the Securityholders in accordance with § 7 of the General Terms (and other parties that should be notified, if applicable). Any delay or failure by the Issuer to give notice shall not affect the effects on the Securities described in (aa).
- (dd) The reduction or modification described in (aa) and (bb) above with respect to the Securities shall not constitute an event of default and the Terms and Conditions shall continue to apply in relation to the residual principal amount of, or outstanding amount payable in respect of the Securities, subject to any modification of the amount of interest payable to reflect the reduction of the principal amount and any further modification of the terms that the Relevant Resolution Authority may decide in accordance with applicable laws and regulations relating to the resolution of banks, banking group companies, credit institutions and/or other investment firms domiciled in the French Republic.

(g) Payments under the Securities

Payments of amounts to the Securityholders shall be made on the relevant due date via the Clearing System specified in the Final Terms.

All taxes or charges that may be incurred in connection with the payment of the redemption amount shall be borne by the Securityholders. By making the payment to the Clearing System, the Issuer shall be released from its obligation under the Terms and Conditions.

(h) Calculation Agent

All calculations under the Securities shall be made by the calculation agent in accordance with the Terms and Conditions.

(i) Paying Agent

All payments under the Securities shall be made by the paying agent in accordance with the Terms and Conditions.

(j) Information about the Benchmarks Regulation with respect to the authorization of the Administrator

Amounts payable under these securities may be calculated with reference to one or more reference values (also referred to respectively as "Benchmarks") within the meaning of Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 8 June 2016, as amended (the "Benchmarks Regulation"). The Final Terms will specify whether the Benchmark is provided by an Administrator which is included in the register of Administrators and Benchmarks (the "Benchmarks Register") established and maintained by the European Securities and Markets Authority (the "ESMA") in accordance with Article 36 of the Benchmarks Regulation. If the Administrator (the "Benchmark Administrator") is included in the Benchmarks Register, the name of the Benchmark Administrator will also be listed in the Final Terms. In addition, the Final Terms will indicate whether further Benchmarks are provided by a Benchmark Administrator included in the Benchmarks Register. If this is the case, the name of the respective Benchmark Administrator will also be listed in the Final Terms.

5.1.2. Term and Termination

The term of the Warrants is limited. It ends on the exercise date. The exercise date is specified in the relevant Final Terms at the time of issue of the Securities. Warrants may expire early, however, in accordance with the provisions of the Terms and Conditions (e.g., valueless or negative price of the Futures Contract or in the case of an occurrence of a Knock-out Event in the case of specific warrants).

The Issuer may terminate the Securities extraordinarily in accordance with the Terms and Conditions (e.g., on the occurrence of certain extraordinary events).

5.1.3. Description of the rights arising from the Securities

A description of the rights of the Securityholders under the Securities can be found in section "6. Description of the Securities".

In the event of so-called Adjustment Events or Extraordinary Events, however, the Issuer is entitled to adjust the Terms and Conditions and thus the rights of the Securityholders arising from the Securities. The adjustment shall be made in such a way as to maintain, as far as possible, the economic situation of the Securityholders under the Securities. The events are specified in the respective Terms and Conditions.

5.2. Interests of natural and legal persons involved in the issue/offer of the Securities

5.2.1. Further Transactions

The Issuer and companies affiliated to it are active on a daily basis in the international and German securities, foreign exchange, credit derivatives and commodity markets. They may therefore enter into transactions directly or indirectly related to the Securities for their own account or for the account of clients. In addition, the Issuer and companies affiliated to it may conclude transactions relating to the respective Underlying. When concluding these transactions, the Issuer and companies affiliated to it may act as if the Securities had not been issued.

In addition, the Issuer and companies affiliated to it may conclude transactions relating to the respective Underlying. Such transactions may have a negative impact on the performance of the Underlying. For the purpose of these transactions, the Issuer and companies affiliated to it may pursue economic interests which conflict with the interests of the investors.

They also include transactions entered into by the Issuer and companies affiliated to it in order to hedge their obligations arising from the Securities. The value of the Securities may also be affected by the unwinding of some or all of these hedging transactions.

The Issuer and companies affiliated to it may buy and sell Securities for their own account or for the account of third parties and may issue additional Securities.

5.2.2. Business Relationships

The Issuer and its affiliated companies may have a business relationship with the issuer of the Underlying. Examples of a business relationship of this kind include:

- the granting of a loan;
- custodian activities;
- activities in connection with managing risks; or
- advisory and trading activities.

This may adversely affect the value of the Securities.

The following applies in relation to the Securities: The Issuer and companies affiliated to it may take actions which they consider appropriate to safeguard their own interests arising from this business relationship. In so doing, the Issuer and companies affiliated to it are not obliged to have regard to the impact on the Securities or on the Securityholders.

The Issuer and companies affiliated to it may enter into or participate in transactions which influence the value of the Underlying. Such business relationships with the issuer of the Underlying may adversely affect the value of the Securities. This may result in a conflict of interest on the part of the Issuer.

5.2.3. Information relating to the Underlying

The Issuer and its affiliated companies may possess or obtain material, non-public information about the Underlying. The Issuer and its affiliated companies are under no obligation to disclose information of this nature to the Securityholders. Interested investors are therefore dependent on publicly available information for the purpose of analysing the respective Underlying.

5.2.4. Pricing

Société Générale or a company affiliated to it may act as Market Maker for the Securities.

The Market Maker is responsible for quoting prices for the Securities. The prices are then not formed directly by supply and demand. This distinguishes pricing for the Securities from trading on an exchange where prices are based on supply and demand. However, the Securities may be admitted to trading on trading venues on which the prices are based on supply and demand and on the quotes made by the Market Maker.

Société Générale or its affiliated companies may also act as Market Maker for the Underlying.

Market Making may have a significant effect on the price of the Underlying and therefore also on the value of the Securities. The prices quoted by the Market Maker will not always be the same as the prices that would have developed from liquid trading on an exchange. Prices quoted by the Market Maker in the secondary market are determined on the basis of the fair value of the Securities. The fair value of the Securities depends on the value of the Underlying, among other factors.

The Market Maker sets the spread between the bid and offer prices. The bid price is the price at which the Market Maker buys the Securities. The offer price is the price at which the Market Maker sells the Securities. The spread depends both on supply and demand for the Securities and also on particular income considerations. Certain costs are deducted when pricing the Securities over their term. The costs are not always distributed equally over the term, however. Costs may be deducted from the fair value of the Securities in their entirety at an early date specified by the Market Maker. The prices quoted by the Market Maker may therefore differ significantly from the fair value or expected economic value of the Securities. Furthermore, the Market Maker may at any time modify the method it uses to determine the prices quoted. For example, it may increase or reduce the spread between the bid and offer prices.

Its function as Market Maker both for the Securities and possibly also for the Underlying does not constitute an obligation on the part of the Issuer towards the Securityholders. In both cases, the Issuer or its affiliated companies may therefore cease to act as Market Maker at any time.

5.3. Reasons for the offer of the Securities and use of proceeds

The Securities are being offered and the proceeds will be used solely for the purpose of generating profits in the context of the Issuer's general business activities. To the extent quantifiable, the estimated total costs of the respective issue/offer of the Securities and the estimated net proceeds will be published in the relevant Final Terms.

The Redemption Amounts will be calculated on the basis of a price of the Underlying defined in the Terms and Conditions, but the Issuer has no obligation to the investors to invest the proceeds from the issue of the Securities in the Underlying. Securityholders have no ownership rights in the Underlyings or their constituents. The Issuer is free to determine how the proceeds from the issue of the Securities are used.

5.4. Disclosure of resolutions relating to the Securities

Each issue of the Securities forms part of the normal business activities of the Issuer in accordance with its Articles of Association and does not require the passing of any internal resolutions.

5.5. Factors affecting the tax treatment of any income from the Securities

The tax legislation of the investor's member state and the Issuer's country of incorporation may have an impact on the income from the Securities.

The Issuer accepts no responsibility for the deduction or payment of taxes at source. Interested investors are urgently recommended to consult their tax advisers about taxation in particular cases.

5.6. Information about the Underlying

The rate, level or price of the respective Underlying of the Securities is the primary factor affecting the value of the Securities.

During the term of the Securities, Securityholders participate in principle in both positive and negative movements in the price of the respective Underlying.

In particular, the level of the Redemption Amount of the Securities normally depends on the rate, level or price of the Underlying on the relevant Valuation Date. Exception: Inline Warrants, StayHigh Warrants and StayLow Warrants pay a pre-determined Redemption Amount if no Knock-out Event occurred – the Knock-out Event is determined by the price behaviour of the Underlying during the Monitoring Period. In the case of Corridor Warrants, Bottom-up Warrants and Top-down Warrants a pre-determined amount is accumulated during the Monitoring Period for each day, on which a rate, level or price of the Underlying full fills the specified condition.

5.6.1. General description of the Underlying

The Securities described in the Base Prospectus may be linked to the performance of shares, ETF shares, indices, precious metals, futures contracts or currency exchange rates.

The Securities are linked for this purpose to a single Underlying, as specified in the Final Terms, for example a single share or a single index.

The respective Underlying is published in the relevant Final Terms. Sources of further information, including whether or not that information is available free of charge, can also be found in the relevant Final Terms.

The Issuer does not intend to provide any further information about the Underlying or Underlyings after the issue of the Securities.

5.6.2. Disruption Events relating to the Underlying

Suspensions or restrictions of trading or other disruptions relating to the Underlying (as described in detail in the Final Terms in relation to the respective Underlying; respectively a "Disruption Event") may affect the price of the Underlying. A Disruption Event may also affect the calculation of the level of the Redemption Amount as a result. A Disruption Event occurs, for example, if the price of the Underlying cannot be determined on a Valuation Date. The consequence of such a Disruption Event may be that a substitute price is calculated for the relevant Underlying, for example. The specific provisions applicable to an Underlying to correct the effects of a Disruption Event are specified in the Terms and Conditions.

5.6.3. Adjustments to the Terms and Conditions due to events affecting the Underlying

Certain events may have a material impact on the determination of the price of the Underlying specified in the Terms and Conditions.

The following represent examples of adjustment events:

- capital increases for capital contributions;
- the final discontinuation of the exchange listing of the Underlying;
- the discontinuation of the calculation or publication of an index; or
- other events which make it impossible to determine the Reference Price. They also include e.g. events which mean that the Underlying is no longer determined and published on a regular basis (respectively an "Adjustment Event").

If an Adjustment Event occurs, the adjustment rules provided for in the Terms and Conditions are applied. The definitions of Adjustment Events are specified in the Terms and Conditions.

5.7. Conditions for the offer of Securities

5.7.1. Offer of Securities

The Securities issued by the Issuer will be underwritten by Société Générale (legal entity identifier (LEI): O2RNE8IBXP4R0TD8PU41), telephone: +33 (0)1 42 14 20 00, domiciled in Paris, French Republic) (the "Offeror") subject to a general underwriting agreement dated 15 January 2015. The Offeror will offer the Securities to potential investors.

The applicable Final Terms will state whether or not the Securities will be publicly offered. The details of the offer and sale, in particular the relevant payment date, start of the offering, the relevant offer/issue size as well as the relevant initial issue price with regard to each issue hereunder will be set out in the relevant Final Terms.

5.7.2. Potential Investors, Categories of Investor

The Securities may be offered to retail investors, institutional investors and/or other qualified investors, subject to the restrictions presented in section "7. Selling Restrictions" of this Securities Note.

The countries where the offer take place (each an "Offer Country") will be stated in the respective Final Terms.

5.7.3. Issue Price of the Securities, Pricing

(a) *Disclosure of the price at which the Securities are offered (Initial Issue Price)

The initial issue price per Security is normally stated in the Final Terms. The selling price or, in the case of continuous public offers, the continuous offer prices of the Securities are subsequently determined on an ongoing basis.

The initial offer price and, in the case of continuous public offers, the continuous offer prices of the Securities are based on the internal pricing models of Société Générale. In addition to a front-end fee and placement commission, the initial offer price may also include an expected margin that is not apparent to investors. This margin will be collected by Société Générale. In principle, this margin may include costs that Société Générale has incurred or is yet to incur, in particular costs for structuring the Securities, hedging risk, and selling the Securities. The Final Terms state the amount of the Issuer's costs included in the initial issue price for the Securities, where known to the Issuer.

Contractual partners of the persons or entities purchasing the Securities issued by the Issuer may receive benefits for selling those Securities. Such contractual partners may also receive any front-end fee charged. In addition, the contractual partners of the purchaser may receive benefits in the form of payments in kind for selling the Securities.

(b) *Other costs and taxes that may be charged to the subscriber or purchaser

The Issuer and/or Offeror will not charge purchasers any costs other than the above issue, subscription and/or selling prices. Information on other costs and taxes that may be charged or levied by online banks, investors' own banks or the given trading venue must be obtained from those sources.

5.7.4. Delivery of the Securities

The Securities will be delivered by depositing them in the Clearing System on the Payment Date specified in the respective Final Terms. Upon purchase after the Payment Date, the Securities will be delivered in accordance with applicable local market practice.

Definitive certificates for the Securities will not be issued.

5.8. Admission of the Securities to trading and trading rules

Application may be made to have the Securities admitted to trading on a regulated market or a multilateral trading facility (a "MTF") in the European Economic Area (a "EEA Trading Venue").

However, the Securities may be offered without being admitted to trading on an EEA Trading Venue.

5.8.1. Admission of the Securities to trading

The Final Terms will disclose any application or intention to apply for the Securities to be admitted to trading on an EEA Trading Venue. The Final Terms will also state the first date on which the Securities are or are expected to be admitted to trading, if known.

In addition, the Final Terms will disclose all EEA Trading Venues on which Securities of the same category are already admitted to trading.

The Final Terms will state any application or intention to apply for the Securities to be admitted to trading on another EEA Trading Venue, even as a potential secondary listing. In this case, the Final Terms will also name the respective trading venue and, if known, the date on which the Securities were or are expected to be included in trading on such market or trading system.

The Securities may be admitted to trading on the following EEA Trading Venues:

- Barcelona Stock Exchange
- Euronext Access Paris
- Euronext Amsterdam N.V.
- Euronext Brussels N.V./S.A.

- Euronext Paris S.A.
- Frankfurt Stock Exchange – Open Market (Freiverkehr)
- Hi-MTF
- Madrid Stock Exchange
- MTF SeDeX
- Nordic MTF
- Spectrum MTF
- Stuttgart Stock Exchange (Baden-Württembergischen Wertpapierbörse) – Regulated Unofficial Market (Freiverkehr)

Even if the Offeror files the application for admission to trading, there is no guarantee that it will be granted. Nor is there a guarantee of active trading in the Securities. The Issuer is under no obligation to ensure that the Securities remain admitted to trading over their term.

5.8.2. Name and address of intermediaries in secondary trading

If the Issuer or a third party engaged by it can act as market maker for the Securities, that market maker will quote bid (buy) and ask (sell) prices under normal market conditions during the normal trading hours of the Securities in accordance with the rules and regulations of the given trading venue(s) for the purposes of securing liquidity for the respective Security. If the Issuer appoints intermediaries in secondary trading on a regulated market, the name and address of the respective institutions acting as intermediaries in secondary trading pursuant to a binding commitment will be published in the Final Terms, giving a description of the primary provisions of their commitment.

5.9. Post-Issuance Information

The Issuer does not intend to provide post-issuance information in relation to the Securities, unless the Terms and Conditions expressly provide for notices to be published in specific cases. This applies, for example, if adjustments are made. In such cases, the information will be published on the website(s) specified in the Final Terms or any respective successor website.

5.10. Credit Ratings of the Securities

The Securities described in the Base Prospectus are not rated.

6.1. General Information on Warrants

The following descriptions of the Securities outline several variants of warrants. The relevant features of the warrants are given in the Terms and Conditions set out in the Final Terms.

6.1.1. Effect of the Underlying on the Performance of the Warrants

The warrants are linked to an Underlying, which can be a share, an ETF share, an index, a precious metal, a futures contract or a currency exchange rate. The Underlying is specified in the Final Terms.

During their term, the price of the warrants depends on the performance of the respective Underlying.

In the case of Standard Warrants and Capped Warrants a distinction is drawn between call and put warrants. The following examples assume that the price of the Underlying changes while all other factors influencing the price of the warrant remain unchanged. The price of the call warrant normally increases when the value of the Underlying increases. Conversely, the price of the call warrant normally decreases when the value of the Underlying decreases. The situation is different for put warrants: the price of the put warrant normally increases when the value of the Underlying decreases. Conversely, the price of the put warrant normally decreases when the value of the Underlying increases.

Inline Warrants, StayHigh Warrants and StayLow Warrants are special variants of warrants; here the amount of the Redemption Amount is already specified in the Final Terms.

In the case of Inline Warrants, it is paid only if the price of the Underlying stays within a Range during a Monitoring Period. If the price of the Underlying violates the limits of the Range (the Upper Barrier or Lower Barrier) (Knock-out Event), the warrant expires worthless. Other than Standard Warrant the Inline Warrant does not rely on rising or falling prices like Standard Warrants, but on rather constant prices with little movement up and down.

In the case of StayHigh Warrants and StayLow Warrants, the Redemption Amount is paid only if the price of the Underlying stays above (in the case of StayHigh Warrants) or below (in the case of StayLow Warrants) the Barrier during a Monitoring Period. If the price of the Underlying is equal to or below (in the case of StayHigh Warrants) or equal to or above (in the case of StayLow Warrants) the Barrier (Knock-out Event), the warrant expires worthless. Other than Standard Warrant the StayHigh Warrant does not rely on rising or falling prices like Standard Warrants, but on prices which are during the Monitoring Period above the Barrier. Other than Standard Warrant the StayLow Warrant, respectively, does not rely on rising or falling prices like Standard Warrants, but on prices which are during the Monitoring Period below the Barrier.

Hit Warrants are also special variants of warrants. Like Inline Warrants, StayHigh Warrants and StayLow Warrants the fixed Redemption Amount is already specified in the Final Terms. But it is immediately paid if and upon the price of the Underlying is equal to or above (in the case of Hit Warrants (CALL)) or equal to or below (in the case of Hit Warrants (PUT)) the Hit Barrier during a Monitoring Period (Hit Event). If a Hit Event does not occur during the Monitoring Period, the warrant expires worthless.

Corridor Warrants, Bottom-up Warrants and Top-down Warrants are also special variants of warrants. At the end of the term an amount which is already specified in the Final Terms will be paid for each day on which the price of the Underlying is within a Corridor (in the case of Corridor Warrants), is equal to or above (in the case of Bottom-up Warrants) or is equal to or below (in the case of Top-down Warrants).

However, a number of other factors influence the price of the warrants (for details see 6.2.2., 6.3.2., 6.4.3., 6.5.3., 6.6.3., 6.7.3., 6.8.2., 6.9.2. and 6.10.2.).

6.1.2. Exercising the Warrants

Before the Redemption Amount can be paid out, the warrants must be exercised. A distinction is drawn between American and European exercise styles. Securityholders may exercise warrants with American exercise during the Exercise Period. Warrants with European exercise are exercised automatically on the Exercise Date, without any action required from the Securityholder. Warrants with American exercise are also exercised automatically on the last day of their exercise period. The condition for automatic exercise is that the warrants do not expire worthless on the respective exercise date. In other words, the Issuer is required to make a payment to Securityholders in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the warrants.

The exercise date and exercise style are specified in the Final Terms. The Terms and Conditions also detail the procedure for effective exercise of the warrants.

Securityholders cannot exercise warrants with European exercise during their term. During this period, the value of the warrants can only be realised by selling them. However, for these warrants this is likewise conditional on finding market participants who are prepared to purchase the warrants at an appropriate price.

In the case of Inline Warrants, StayHigh Warrants and StayLow Warrants (a precondition for payment of the Redemption Amount is that the Security is not expired worthless during the Monitoring Period because a Knock-out Event has occurred. A Knock-out Event occurs when the price of the Underlying has NOT always remained within the Range (in the case of Inline Warrants) or above the Barrier (in the case of StayHigh Warrants) or below the Barrier (in the case of StayLow Warrants) during the Monitoring Period.

In the case of Hit Warrants a precondition for payment of the Redemption Amount is that a Hit Event has occurred. A Hit Event occurs when the price of the Underlying has at least once been equal to or above (in the case of Hit Warrant (CALL)) or equal to or below (in the case of Hit Warrant (PUT)) the Hit Barrier during the Monitoring Period. The Hit Warrant will be automatically exercised on the day on which a Hit Event occurs.

Also, in the case of Inline Warrants, StayHigh Warrants, StayLow Warrants, Hit Warrants, Corridor Warrants, Bottom-up Warrants and Top-down Warrants, Securityholders cannot exercise warrants. During this period, the value of the warrants can only be realised by selling them. However, also for these warrants this is likewise conditional on finding market participants who are willing to purchase the warrants at an appropriate price.

6.1.3. Reference Price and Price of the Underlying

The Reference Price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date is the deciding factor in determining the amount of payments to Securityholders. The Final Terms specify which price of the Underlying is used as the Reference Price. For example, they may provide for the relevant Reference Price to be determined as the closing price of a share on a stock exchange specified in the Terms and Conditions.

An exception are the Inline Warrants, the StayHigh Warrants, the StayLow Warrants and the Hit Warrants:

In the case of Inline Warrants, the amount of the payment on the Settlement Date is fixed from the beginning and does not depend on the Reference Price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date. Crucially, in the Inline Warrants is the price behaviour of the Underlying during the Monitoring Period, which usually lasts throughout the duration. The set Redemption Amount is paid only if the price of the Underlying always remains within the specified range during the Monitoring Period. Otherwise, the warrant expires worthless.

In the case of StayHigh Warrants and StayLow Warrants the amount of the payment on the Settlement Date is fixed from the beginning and does not depend on the Reference Price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date. Crucially, is the price behaviour of the Underlying during the Monitoring Period, which usually lasts throughout the duration. The set Redemption Amount is paid only if the price of the Underlying always remains above (in the case of StayHigh Warrants) or below (in the case of StayLow Warrants) the Barrier during the Monitoring Period. Otherwise, the warrant expires worthless.

In the case of Hit Warrants, the amount of the payment on the Settlement Date is fixed from the beginning and does not depend on the Reference Price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date. Crucially, in the Hit Warrants is the price behaviour of the Underlying during the Monitoring Period, which usually lasts throughout the duration. The set Redemption Amount is paid only if the price of the Underlying is at least once equal to or above (in the case of Hit Warrants (CALL)) or equal to or below (in the case of Hit Warrants (PUT)) during the Monitoring Period. Otherwise, in the event of a non-occurrence of a Hit Event, the warrant expires worthless.

Whether the holders of an Inline Warrant, StayHigh Warrant, StayLow Warrant or Hit Warrant receive the specified Redemption Amount (or whether the Hit Warrant expires worthless) determines, for these variants of warrants, the price behaviour of the Underlying during the Monitoring Period. It is the continuous price of the Underlying at any point in the Monitoring Period which is relevant and not a specific Reference Price on a given day.

Also, in the case of Corridor Warrants, the price behaviour of the Underlying during the Monitoring Period, which usually lasts throughout the duration, is of decisive importance. For each day on which the Reference Price of the Underlying remains within the Corridor, the Securityholder receives a set payment.

In the case of Bottom-up Warrants and Top-down Warrants, too, the amount of the payment per day is fixed from the beginning. Crucially, is the price behaviour of the Underlying during the Monitoring Period, which usually lasts throughout the duration. The set payment per day is paid only if the Reference Price is equal to or above (in the case of Bottom-up Warrants) or equal to or below (in the case of Top-down Warrants) the Barrier on the respective day.

6.1.4. Adjustments, Extraordinary Termination

The Terms and Conditions of all Securities specify certain adjustment events whose occurrence may trigger an adjustment to the Terms and Conditions. The Issuer will adjust the Terms and Conditions in such manner that the economic position of the Securityholder is the same as before the adjustment event to the extent possible. The adjustment events depend on the type of Underlying.

Examples of adjustment events include the cessation of the Underlying or the discontinuation of its listing, changes in laws or taxation events. Another adjustment event may arise if the Issuer is no longer able to enter into the necessary hedges.

In the case of termination events, the Issuer is also entitled to terminate the Securities extraordinarily and to redeem them at the termination amount determined in accordance with the Terms and Conditions. The termination events are specified in the respective Terms and Conditions. These extraordinary termination rights will be exercised, for example if changes occur to the relevant underlying of the Securities which make it impossible in the opinion of the Calculation Agent to adjust the Terms and Conditions in a way which makes sense from a financial point of view or if the price quotation of the Underlying was cancelled without replacement.

In the event of extraordinary termination, the Securityholders lose all of their rights arising from the Securities, except for their claim to payment of the termination amount determined in accordance with the Terms and Conditions. There is even a risk that the termination amount paid will be equal to 0 (zero). In this event, the Securityholders will incur a total loss of the Capital Amount paid for the purchase of the Securities. The following is an example of such a case: The company whose shares form the underlying for the respective Security becomes insolvent. The share becomes worthless as a result. There is no question of making an adjustment to the Terms and Conditions in this case. The Issuer will therefore terminate the Security extraordinarily in this event. The Securityholders will suffer a total loss.

6.1.5. Currency Conversion

The Terms and Conditions of the Securities may contain provisions governing currency conversion. For example, the amounts payable in the Terms and Conditions may initially be expressed in a foreign currency and not the issue currency. In this event, these amounts are then converted into the issue currency on a Valuation Date at the relevant conversion rate specified in the Final Terms. The same applies to all other amounts payable in accordance with the Terms and Conditions that are initially expressed in a foreign currency (non quanto).

However, the Terms and Conditions may specify a 1:1 conversion rate (e.g., EUR 1.00/USD 1.00) (quanto). In this case, the issue currency/foreign currency exchange rate on the Valuation Date is irrelevant.

6.2. Detailed Information on Standard Warrants

6.2.1. Features

Standard Warrants have a fixed term and are issued in the product variant CALL and PUT with European and American exercise.

6.2.2. Redemption in the case of Standard Warrants

What the Securityholder receives in the event of an exercise, depends on the Reference Price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date. The exact definition of the Reference Price in the Terms and Conditions has to be considered.

It is crucial which day is considered to be the Valuation Date. For Standard Warrants with a European exercise, the Valuation Date as stated in the terms and conditions. In the case of Standard Warrants with an American exercise, there is an additional possibility, that the Securityholder exercise the warrants during the Exercise Period and therefore, the Valuation Date is determined by the date on which the Securityholder exercises his warrants. As a rule, the Valuation Date is the date on which the Securityholder has fulfilled all the conditions for the effective exercise of warrants. For Underlyings for which the price is determined in other time zones, this is often the day after. Details are laid down in the terms and conditions.

Standard Warrants are redeemed as follows subsequent to effective exercise (any currency conversions are not considered in the scenarios):

Standard Warrants (CALL): The Securityholder receives a redemption amount calculated as follows: The Redemption Amount equals the Reference Price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date minus the Strike, multiplied by the Ratio. Expressed as a formula:

$$\text{Redemption Amount} = (\text{RP} - \text{ST}) \times \text{R}$$

where:

RP= Reference Price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date

ST= Strike

R = Ratio

Standard Warrants (PUT): The Securityholder receives a redemption amount calculated as follows: The Redemption Amount equals the Strike minus the Reference Price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date, multiplied by the Ratio. Expressed as a formula:

$$\text{Redemption Amount} = (\text{ST} - \text{RP}) \times \text{R}$$

where:

ST= Strike

RP= Reference Price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date

R = Ratio

The Redemption Amount is generally paid out within two to five business days following the Valuation Date. If a Reference Price for the Underlying is not determined on a Valuation Date, the Valuation Date is postponed. This may potentially involve rescheduling the day on which the Redemption Amount is paid to the Securityholder.

6.2.3. Leverage, pricing of Standard Warrants

The price of a Standard Warrant is subject to often significant fluctuations. The leverage effect is a key feature of such warrants and describes the phenomenon where changes in the price of the Underlying have a disproportionate effect on changes in the price of the Standard Warrant.

In general, if the price of the Underlying for a Standard Warrant (CALL) increases, the price of the warrant increases disproportionately. If the price of the Underlying for a Standard CALL Warrant decreases, the price of the Standard Warrant (CALL) decreases disproportionately. Also, a decrease in the implied volatility of the price of the Underlying instrument results in a decrease in the price of the Standard Warrant.

In general, if the price of the Underlying for a Standard Warrant (PUT) decreases, the price of the warrant increases disproportionately. If the price of the Underlying for a Standard PUT Warrant increases, the price of the Standard Warrant (PUT) decreases disproportionately. Also, a decrease in the implied volatility of the price of the Underlying instrument results in a decrease in the price of the Standard Warrant.

The following factors (not exhaustive) also impact the price of a Standard Warrant:

- general changes in interest rate levels;
- for Standard Warrants with shares as the Underlying, dividends expected or actually distributed during the term of the Standard Warrant;
- remaining term of the Standard Warrant.

6.2.4. Limitation of term in the case of Standard Warrants on Futures Contracts

Standard Warrants with Futures Contracts as Underlying expire prematurely if the price of the Underlying is equal to or below 0 (zero). In the case a Standard Warrant expires prematurely, the Redemption Amount shall be equal to the fair market value minus any expenses actually incurred by the Issuer.

6.3. Detailed Information on Capped Warrants

6.3.1. Features

Capped Warrants have a fixed term, are issued in the product variant CALL and PUT and are exercised automatically on the Exercise Date (European exercise). Securityholders cannot exercise Capped Warrants during their term and must sell them in order to realise their financial value.

6.3.2. Redemption in the case of Capped Warrants

What the Securityholder receives in the event of an automatic exercise, depends on the Reference Price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date. The exact definition of the Reference Price in the Terms and Conditions has to be considered.

In the scenarios outlined below, the Capped Warrants are redeemed as follows subsequent to effective exercise (any currency conversions are not considered in the scenarios):

Capped Warrants (CALL): The Securityholder receives a redemption amount calculated as follows: The Redemption Amount equals the Reference Price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date minus the Strike, multiplied by the Ratio. Expressed as a formula:

$$\text{Redemption Amount} = (\text{RP} - \text{ST}) \times \text{R}$$

where:

RP= Reference Price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date

ST= Strike

R = Ratio

However, the Redemption Amount is limited (capped), so that a price above the Cap on the Valuation Date does not lead to an increase in the Redemption Amount. Instead, a pre-determined Maximum Amount is paid.

Capped Warrants (PUT): The Securityholder receives a redemption amount calculated as follows: The Redemption Amount equals the Strike minus the Reference Price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date, multiplied by the Ratio. Expressed as a formula:

$$\text{Redemption Amount} = (\text{ST} - \text{RP}) \times \text{R}$$

where:

ST= Strike

RP= Reference Price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date

R = Ratio

However, the Redemption Amount is limited (capped), so that a price below the Cap on the Valuation Date does not lead to an increase in the Redemption Amount. Instead, a pre-determined Maximum Amount is paid.

The Redemption Amount is generally paid out within two to five business days following the Valuation Date. If a Reference Price for the Underlying is not determined on a Valuation Date, the Valuation Date is postponed. This may potentially involve rescheduling the day on which the Redemption Amount is paid to the Securityholder.

6.3.3. Leverage, pricing of Capped Warrants

The price of a Capped Warrant is subject to often significant fluctuations. The leverage effect is a key feature of such warrants and describes the phenomenon where changes in the price of the Underlying have a disproportionate effect on changes in the price of the Capped Warrant.

In general, if the price of the Underlying for a Capped Warrant (CALL) increases, the price of the warrant increases disproportionately. If the price of the Underlying for a Capped Warrant (CALL) decreases, the price of the Capped Warrant (CALL) decreases disproportionately. Also, a decrease in the implied volatility of the price of the Underlying results in a decrease in the price of the Capped Warrant.

In general, if the price of the Underlying for a Capped Warrant (PUT) decreases, the price of the warrant increases disproportionately. If the price of the Underlying for a Capped Warrant (PUT) increases, the price of the Capped Warrant (PUT) decreases disproportionately. Also, a decrease in the implied volatility of the price of the Underlying results in a decrease in the price of the Capped Warrant.

However, if the price of the Underlying develops far above (in the case of a Capped Warrant (CALL)) or far below (in the case of a Capped Warrant (PUT)) the Cap, the effect is disproportionately low.

The following factors (not exhaustive) also impact the price of a Capped Warrant:

- general changes in interest rate levels;
- for Capped Warrants with shares as the Underlying, dividends expected or actually distributed during the term of the Capped Warrant.
- remaining term of the Capped Warrant.

6.3.4. Limitation of term in the case of Capped Warrants on Futures Contracts

Capped Warrants with Futures Contracts as Underlying expire prematurely, if the price of the Underlying is equal to or below 0 (zero). In the case a Capped Warrant expires prematurely, the Redemption Amount shall be equal to the fair market value minus any expenses actually incurred by the Issuer.

6.4. Detailed Information on Inline Warrants

6.4.1. Features

Inline Warrants have a fixed term and are exercised automatically on the Exercise Date (European exercise). Securityholders cannot exercise Inline Warrants during their term and must sell them in order to realise their financial value.

6.4.2. Knock-out Event

One special feature of Inline Warrants is that they expire worthless if and upon the occurrence of a Knock-out Event. In this case, the Securityholder receives no Redemption Amount and in financial terms is faced with a total loss.

A Knock-out Event occurs as soon as the relevant price of the Underlying leaves the Range only once during the Monitoring Period, i.e., equal to or below the Lower Barrier or equal to or above the Upper Barrier.

If an Inline Warrant expires worthless, the Securityholder cannot rely that the price of the underlying will return to the Range and thus, as with a Standard Warrant, the price of the warrant will recover.

The Upper and Lower Barrier that limit the Range and the prices of the Underlying that determine a Knock-out Event are stated in the terms and conditions. The relevant price may for example be any quoted price of a share on a specific stock exchange or any index level quoted by an index sponsor.

Furthermore, it may be provided that in addition the final settlement price of the index is also relevant for the determination of a Knock-out Event. Hence, a number of prices for the Underlying are significant for a Knock-out Event to occur. In all cases, Securityholders should read the terms and conditions to ascertain which prices are capable of triggering a Knock-out Event.

In the case of Inline Warrants with a precious metal as Underlying, price indications are also used to determine whether a Knock-out Event has occurred. These price indications are published on special Reuters pages by banks trading in the international interbank market for metals. The publication of these price indications is not monitored or supervised by a governmental or international supervisory body. The Inline Warrants expire on the basis of such price indications and not on the basis of binding quotes or prices actually traded.

6.4.3. Redemption in the case of Inline Warrants

If no Knock-out Event occurs before or on the Exercise Date, the Inline Warrants are exercised automatically on the Exercise Date and the Securityholder receives the Redemption Amount as pre-determined in the terms and conditions (e.g., the Redemption Amount is equal to EUR 10).

The Redemption Amount is generally paid out within two to five business days following the Exercise Date.

6.4.4. Leverage, pricing of Inline Warrants

The price of an Inline Warrant is subject to often significant fluctuations. The leverage effect is a key feature of such Securities and describes the phenomenon where changes in the price of the Underlying have a disproportionate high effect on changes in the price of the Inline Warrant.

If, the continuous price of the Underlying leaves the Range at any point in the Monitoring Period, i.e. equal to or above the Upper Barrier or equal to or below the Lower Barrier, the Inline Warrant shall immediately expire worthless. The closer the price of the Underlying is to the nearest barrier, the higher the probability of a Knock-out Event occurring. Unlike other Standard Warrants, there is no chance that the value of the Inline Warrants will recover by the end of the term after a Knock-out Event.

Investors should note that regular dividend distributions of the share underlying the Inline Warrants or dividend distributions of the shares included in the price index and the possible fall in the share price or the price index, a Knock-out Event can be raised for the Inline Warrants.

The risk of disproportionate price losses occurs with Inline Warrants, the lower the value of the Inline Warrant is. Unlike Standard Warrants, an increase in the implied volatility of the Underlying reduces the value of the Inline Warrants.

The occurrence of a Knock-out Event can be based on underlying prices determined at trading hours other than the trading hours of the Inline Warrants. In this case, the risk of the Securityholders is that he does not perceive the threat of a Knock-out Event or does not perceive it in time. Possible consequence: The Securityholder cannot sell his Inline Warrants on time and must accept the total loss of the Capital Amount.

The following factors (not exhaustive) also impact the price of an Inline Warrant:

- general changes in interest rate levels;
- for Inline Warrants with shares as the Underlying, dividends expected or actually distributed during the term of the Inline Warrant;
- remaining term of the Inline Warrant.

6.5. Detailed Information on StayHigh Warrants

6.5.1. Features

StayHigh Warrants have a fixed term and are exercised automatically on the Exercise Date (European exercise). Securityholders cannot exercise StayHigh Warrants during their term and must sell them in order to realise their financial value.

6.5.2. Knock-out Event

One special feature of StayHigh Warrants is that they expire worthless if and upon the occurrence of a Knock-out Event. In this case, the Securityholder receives no Redemption Amount and in financial terms is faced with a total loss.

A Knock-out Event occurs as soon as the relevant price of the Underlying is only once during the Monitoring Period equal to or below the Barrier.

If a StayHigh Warrant expires worthless, the Securityholder cannot rely that the price of the underlying will return above the Barrier and thus, as with a Standard Warrant, the price of the warrant will recover.

The Barrier and the prices of the Underlying that determine a Knock-out Event are stated in the terms and conditions. The relevant price may for example be any quoted price of a share on a specific stock exchange or any index level quoted by an index sponsor. Furthermore, it may be provided that in addition the final settlement price of the index is also relevant for the determination. Hence, a number of prices for the Underlying are significant for a Knock-out Event to occur. In all cases, Securityholders should read the terms and conditions to ascertain which prices are capable of triggering a Knock-out Event.

In the case of StayHigh Warrants with a precious metal as Underlying, price indications are also used to determine whether a Knock-out Event has occurred. These price indications are published on special Reuters pages by banks trading in the international interbank market for metals. The publication of these price indications is not monitored or supervised by a governmental or international supervisory body. The StayHigh Warrants expire on the basis of such price indications and not on the basis of binding quotes or prices actually traded.

6.5.3. Redemption in the case of StayHigh Warrants

If no Knock-out Event occurs before or on the Exercise Date, the StayHigh Warrants are exercised automatically on the Exercise Date. The Securityholder receives the Redemption Amount as pre-determined in the terms and conditions (e.g., the Redemption Amount is equal to EUR 10).

The Redemption Amount is generally paid out within two to five business days following the Exercise Date.

6.5.4. Leverage, pricing of StayHigh Warrants

The price of a StayHigh Warrant is subject to often significant fluctuations. The leverage effect is a key feature of such Securities and describes the phenomenon where changes in the price of the Underlying have a disproportionate high effect on changes in the price of the StayHigh Warrant. Like a Standard Warrant, a decrease in the implied volatility of the price of the Underlying results in a decrease in the price of the Standard Warrant.

If, the continuous price of the Underlying is once equal to or below the Barrier at any point in the Monitoring Period, the StayHigh Warrant shall immediately expire worthless. The closer the price of the Underlying is to the Barrier, the higher the probability of a Knock-out Event occurring. Unlike other Standard Warrants, there is no chance that the value of the StayHigh Warrants will recover by the end of the term after a Knock-out Event.

Investors should note that regular dividend distributions of the share underlying the StayHigh Warrants or dividend distributions of the shares included in the price index and the possible fall in the share price or the price index, a Knock-out Event can be raised for the StayHigh Warrants.

The risk of disproportionate price losses occurs with StayHigh Warrants, the more the price of the Underlying approaches the Barrier. Unlike Standard Warrants, an increase in the implied volatility of the Underlying reduces the value of the StayHigh Warrant.

The occurrence of a Knock-out Event can be based on underlying prices determined at trading hours other than the trading hours of the StayHigh Warrant. In this case, the risk of the Securityholders is that he does not perceive the threat of a Knock-out Event or does not perceive it in time. Possible consequence: The Securityholder cannot sell his StayHigh / StayLow Warrants on time and must accept the total loss of the paid Capital Amount.

The following factors (not exhaustive) also impact the price of a StayHigh Warrant:

- general changes in interest rate levels;
- for StayHigh Warrants with shares as the Underlying, dividends expected or actually distributed during the term of the StayHigh Warrant;
- remaining term of the StayHigh Warrant

6.6. Detailed Information on StayLow Warrants

6.6.1. Features

StayLow Warrants have a fixed term and are exercised automatically on the Exercise Date (European exercise). Securityholders cannot exercise StayLow Warrants during their term and must sell them in order to realise their financial value.

6.6.2. Knock-out Event

One special feature of StayLow Warrants is that they expire worthless if and upon the occurrence of a Knock-out Event. In this case, the Securityholder receives no Redemption Amount and in financial terms is faced with a total loss.

A Knock-out Event occurs as soon as the relevant price of the Underlying is only once during the Monitoring Period equal to or above the Barrier.

If a StayLow Warrant expires worthless, the Securityholder cannot rely that the price of the underlying will return below the Barrier and thus, as with a Standard Warrant, the price of the warrant will recover.

The Barrier and the prices of the Underlying that determine a Knock-out Event are stated in the terms and conditions. The relevant price may for example be any quoted price of a share on a specific stock exchange or any index level quoted by an index sponsor. Furthermore, it may be provided that in addition the final settlement price of the index is also relevant for the determination. Hence, a number of prices for the Underlying are significant for a Knock-out Event to occur. In all cases, Securityholders should read the terms and conditions to ascertain which prices are capable of triggering a Knock-out Event.

These price indications are published on special Reuters pages by banks trading in the international interbank market for metals. The publication of these price indications is not monitored or supervised by a governmental or international supervisory body. The StayLow Warrants expire on the basis of such price indications and not on the basis of binding quotes or prices actually traded.

6.6.3. Redemption in the case of StayLow Warrants

If no Knock-out Event occurs before or on the Exercise Date, the StayLow Warrants are exercised automatically on the Exercise Date. The Securityholder receives the Redemption Amount as pre-determined in the terms and conditions (e.g., the Redemption Amount is equal to EUR 10).

The Redemption Amount is generally paid out within two to five business days following the Exercise Date.

6.6.4. Leverage, pricing of StayLow Warrants

The price of a StayLow Warrant is subject to often significant fluctuations. The leverage effect is a key feature of such Securities and describes the phenomenon where changes in the price of the Underlying have a disproportionate high effect on changes in the price of the StayLow Warrant.

If, the continuous price of the Underlying is once equal to or above the Barrier at any point in the Monitoring Period, the StayLow Warrant shall immediately expire worthless. The closer the price of the Underlying is to the Barrier, the higher the probability of a Knock-out Event occurring. The risk of disproportionate price losses occurs with StayLow Warrants the more the price of the Underlying approaches the Barrier. Unlike Standard Warrants, an increase in the implied volatility of the Underlying reduces the value of the StayLow Warrant.

The occurrence of a Knock-out Event can be based on underlying prices determined at trading hours other than the trading hours of the StayLow Warrants. In this case, the risk of the Securityholders is that he does not perceive the threat of a Knock-out Event or does not perceive it in time. Possible consequence: The Securityholder cannot sell his StayLow Warrants on time and must accept the total loss of the Capital Amount.

The following factors (not exhaustive) also impact the price of a StayLow Warrant:

- general changes in interest rate levels;
- for StayLow Warrants with shares as the Underlying, dividends expected or actually distributed during the term of the StayLow Warrant;
- remaining term of the StayLow Warrant.

6.6.5. Limitation of term in the case of StayLow Warrants on Futures Contracts

StayLow Warrants with Futures Contracts as Underlying expiry prematurely if the price of the Underlying is equal to or below 0 (zero). In case a StayLow Warrant expires prematurely, the Redemption Amount shall be equal to the fair market value minus any expenses actually incurred by the Issuer.

6.7. Detailed Information on Hit Warrants

6.7.1. Features

Hit Warrants have a limited term and are exercised automatically on the day on which a Hit Event occurs (European exercise). Securityholders cannot exercise Hit Warrants during their term and must sell them in order to realise their financial value.

6.7.2. Hit Event

One special feature of Hit Warrants is that they expire worthless if a Hit Event does not occur. In this case, the Securityholder receives no Redemption Amount and in financial terms is faced with a total loss.

A Hit Event occurs as soon as the relevant price of the Underlying reaches or exceeds (CALL) or reaches or falls below (PUT) its Hit Barrier just once during the Monitoring Period.

The prices of the Underlying that determine a Hit Event are stated in the terms and conditions. The relevant price may for example be any quoted price of a share on a specific stock exchange or any index level quoted by an index sponsor. Hence, a number of prices for the Underlying are significant for a Hit Event to occur. In all cases, Securityholders should read the terms and conditions to ascertain which prices are capable of triggering a Hit Event.

In the case of Hit Warrants with a precious metal as Underlying, price indications are also used to determine whether a Hit Event has occurred. The publication of these price indications is not monitored or supervised by a governmental or international supervisory body. The Hit Warrants expire on the basis of such price indications and not on the basis of binding quotes or prices actually traded.

6.7.3. Redemption in the case of Hit Warrants

If and upon the occurrence of a Hit Event, the Hit Warrants are exercised automatically. The Securityholder receives the Redemption Amount as pre-determined in the terms and conditions (e.g., the Redemption Amount is equal to EUR 10).

The Redemption Amount is generally paid out within two to five business days following the day on which a Hit Event has occurred.

6.7.4. Leverage, pricing of Hit Warrants

The price of a Hit Warrant is subject to often significant fluctuations. The leverage effect is a key feature of such warrants and describes the phenomenon where changes in the price of the Underlying have a disproportionate effect on changes in the price of the Hit Warrant. Like a Standard Warrant, a decrease in the implied volatility of the price of the Underlying results in a decrease in the price of the Hit Warrant.

In general, if the price of the Underlying for a Hit CALL Warrant increases, the price of the warrant increases disproportionately. If the price of the Underlying for a Hit CALL Warrant decreases, the price of the Hit CALL Warrant decreases disproportionately.

In general, if the price of the Underlying for a Hit PUT Warrant decreases, the price of the warrant increases disproportionately. If the price of the Underlying for a Hit PUT Warrant increases, the price of the Hit PUT Warrant decreases disproportionately.

Investors should note that regular dividend distributions of the share underlying the Hit PUT Warrants or dividend distributions of the shares included in the price index and the possible fall in the share price or the price index, a Hit Event can be raised for the respective Hit Warrants.

The Monitoring Period expires already at the last day of the Monitoring Period at the point in time as set out in the Terms and Conditions (e.g., in the case of gold the first gold fixing at maturity). If any price of the Underlying trigger the Hit Barrier, only after such point in time and not before, no Redemption Amount will be paid, and the Hit Warrant will expire worthless.

The following factors (not exhaustive) also impact the price of a Hit Warrant:

- general changes in interest rate levels;
- for Hit Warrants with shares as the Underlying, dividends expected or actually distributed during the term of the Hit Warrant;
- remaining term of the Hit Warrant.

The Redemption Amount is generally paid out within two to five business days following the Valuation Date.

The price of a Corridor Warrant is subject to often significant fluctuations. The leverage effect is a key feature of such Securities and describes the phenomenon where changes in the price of the Underlying have a disproportionate high effect on changes in the price of the Corridor Warrant.

The risk of disproportionate price losses occurs with Corridor Warrants, the lower the value of the Corridor Warrant is. Unlike Standard Warrants, an increase in the implied volatility of the Underlying reduces the value of the Corridor Warrant, if the price of the Underlying is inside of the Barriers of the Corridor Warrant, whereas a decrease in the implied volatility of the Underlying reduces the value of the Corridor Warrant, if the price of the Underlying is outside of the Barriers of the Corridor Warrant.

The following factors (not exhaustive) also impact the price of a Corridor Warrant:

- general changes in interest rate levels;
- for Corridor Warrants with shares as the Underlying, dividends expected or actually distributed during the term of the Corridor Warrant;
- remaining term of the Corridor Warrant.

Unlike Standard Warrants, an increase in the implied volatility of the Underlying reduces the value of the Bottom-up Warrant, if the price of the Underlying is above the Barrier of the Bottom-up Warrant, whereas a decrease in the implied volatility of the Underlying reduces the value of the Bottom-up Warrant, if the price of the Underlying is below the Barrier of the Bottom-up.

- (c) Upon the Issuer becoming aware of the exercise of the Bail-in Power by the Relevant Resolution Authority on senior unsecured liabilities of Société Générale, the Issuer shall notify the Securityholders in accordance with § 7 of the General Terms (and other parties that should be notified, if applicable). Any delay or failure by the Issuer to give notice shall not affect the effects on the Securities described in (a).
- (d) The reduction or modification described in (a) and (b) above with respect to the Securities shall not constitute an event of default and the Terms and Conditions shall continue to apply in relation to the residual principal amount of, or outstanding amount payable in respect of the Securities, subject to any modification of the amount of interest payable to reflect the reduction of the principal amount and any further modification of the terms that the Relevant Resolution Authority may decide in accordance with applicable laws and regulations relating to the resolution of banks, banking group companies, credit institutions and/or other investment firms domiciled in the French Republic.

- (ii) the conversion of all, or a portion, of the Amounts Due into shares, other securities or other obligations of the relevant Issuer or the Guarantor or another person (and the issue to the Securityholder of such shares, securities or obligations), including by means of an amendment, modification or variation of the terms of the Securities, in which case the Securityholder agrees to accept in lieu of its rights under the Securities any such shares, other securities or other obligations of the relevant Issuer or the Guarantor or another person;
- (iii) the cancellation of the Securities; and/or
- (iv) the amendment or alteration of the maturity of the Securities or amendment of the amount of interest payable on the Securities, or the date on which the interest becomes payable, including by suspending payment for a temporary period; and that terms of the Securities are subject to, and may be varied, if necessary, to give effect to the exercise of the Bail-in Power by the Relevant Resolution Authority or the regulator (the "Statutory Bail-in") and

- (b) if the Relevant Resolution Authority exercises its Bail-in Power on liabilities of Société Générale, pursuant to Article L. 613-30-3 I 3° M&F Code:
  - (i) ranking:
    - (aa) junior to liabilities of Société Générale benefitting from statutorily preferred exceptions pursuant to Article L. 613-30-3 I 1° and 2° M&F Code;
    - (bb) pari passu with liabilities of Société Générale as defined in Article L. 613-30-3 I 3° M&F Code; and

  - (iii) which are not or are no longer eligible to be taken into account for the purposes of the MREL (as defined below) ratio of Société Générale and such exercise of the Bail-in Power results in the write-down or cancellation of all, or a portion of, the principal amount of, or the outstanding amount payable in respect of, and/or interest on, such liabilities, and/or the conversion of all, or a portion, of the principal amount of, or the outstanding amount payable in respect of, or interest on, such liabilities into shares or other securities or other obligations of Société Générale or another person, including by means of variation to their terms and conditions in order to give effect to such exercise of Bail-in Power, then the Issuer's obligations under the Securities will be limited to (i) payment of the amounts of principal and/or interest as reduced or cancelled that would be recoverable by the Securityholders and/or (ii) the delivery or the payment of value of the shares or other securities or other obligations of Société Générale or another person that would be paid or delivered to the Securityholders as if, in either case, the Securities had been directly issued by Société Générale itself, and any Amount Due under the Securities had accordingly been directly subject to the exercise of the Bail-in Power (the "Contractual Bail-in").

3. Consequences of the Statutory Bail-in and Contractual Bail-in

No repayment or payment of the Amounts Due will become due and payable or be paid after the exercise of the Statutory Bail-in with respect to the Issuer or the Guarantor unless, at the time such repayment or payment, respectively, is scheduled to become due, such repayment or payment would be permitted to be made by the Issuer or the Guarantor under the applicable laws and regulations in effect in the French Republic or the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg and the European Union applicable to the Issuer or the Guarantor or other members of its group.

No repayment or payment of the Amounts Due will become due and payable or be paid under the Securities issued by the Issuer after implementation of the Contractual Bail-in.

Upon the exercise of the Statutory Bail-in or upon implementation of the Contractual Bail-in with respect to the Securities, the Issuer or the Guarantor will provide a written notice to the Securityholders in accordance with § 7 of the General Terms as soon as practicable regarding such exercise of the Statutory Bail-in or implementation of the Contractual Bail-in. The Issuer or the Guarantor will also deliver a copy of such notice to the Paying Agent for informational purposes, although the Paying Agent shall not be required to send such notice to Securityholders. Any delay or failure by the Issuer or the Guarantor (if any) to give notice shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the Statutory Bail-in or Contractual Bail-in nor the effects on the Securities described above.

Neither a cancellation of the Securities, a reduction, in part or in full, of the Amounts Due, the conversion thereof into another security or obligation of the Issuer or the Guarantor or another person, as a result of the exercise of the Statutory Bail-in or the implementation of the Contractual Bail-in with respect to Securities will be an event of default or otherwise constitute non-performance of a contractual obligation, or entitle the Securityholder to any remedies (including equitable remedies) which are hereby expressly waived.

Upon the exercise of any Statutory Bail-in or the implementation of the Contractual Bail-in, the Issuer, the Guarantor and each Securityholder (including each holder of a beneficial interest in the Securities) hereby agree that (a) the Paying Agent shall not be required to take any directions from Securityholders, and (b) the agency agreement shall impose no duties upon the Paying Agent whatsoever, in each case with respect to the exercise of any Statutory Bail-in or implementation of the Contractual Bail-in.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if, following the completion of the exercise of the Statutory Bail-In or the implementation of the Contractual Bail-in, any Securities remain outstanding (for example, if the exercise of the Statutory Bail-In or the implementation of the Contractual Bail-in results in only a partial write-down of the principal of the Securities), then the Paying Agent's duties under the agency agreement shall remain applicable with respect to the Securities following such completion to the extent that the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor and the Paying Agent shall agree pursuant to an amendment to the agency agreement.

If in a Statutory Bail-In the Relevant Resolution Authority exercises the Bail-in Power or if the Contractual Bail-in is implemented, with respect to less than the total Amounts Due, unless the Paying Agent is otherwise instructed by the Issuer or the Guarantor or, as the case may be, the Relevant Resolution Authority, any cancellation, write-off or conversion made in respect of the Securities will be (in the case of a Contractual Bail-In) or may be (in the case of a Statutory Bail-in) made on a prorate basis.

The matters set forth in this § 5 of the General Terms shall be exhaustive on the foregoing matters to the exclusion of any other agreements, arrangements or understandings between the Issuer, the Guarantor and each Securityholder.

No expenses necessary for the procedures under this Condition, including, but not limited to, those incurred by the relevant Issuer, the Guarantor (if any) and the Paying Agent, shall be borne by any Securityholder.

For the purpose of this § 5 of the General Terms:

"Amounts Due" means the prevailing outstanding amounts of the Securities issued by the Issuer, and any accrued and unpaid interest on such Securities that have not been previously cancelled or otherwise are no longer due.

"MREL" means the Minimum Requirement for own funds and Eligible Liabilities as defined in Directive 2014/59/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 May 2014 establishing a framework for the recovery and resolution of credit institutions and investment firms (as amended from time to time).

SUBSTITUTION OF THE ISSUER

1. At any time during the life of the Securities and subject to paragraph 2, the Issuer is entitled to substitute any other company (hereinafter called a "New Issuer") for itself as Issuer without the consent of any Securityholder. In such case, the New Issuer may assume all the obligations of the Issuer under and in connection with the Securities. Any such substitution and the respective effective date shall be notified by the Issuer in accordance with § 7 of the General Terms.

Upon any such substitution, the New Issuer shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of, the Issuer under the Securities with the same effect as if the New Issuer had been named as the Issuer in these Terms and Conditions; the Issuer (and, in the case of a repeated application of this § 6 of the General Terms, each previous issuer) shall be released from its obligations hereunder and from its liability as obligor under the Securities.

In the event of such substitution, any reference in these Terms and Conditions to the Issuer shall from then on refer to the New Issuer.

2. No such assumption shall be permitted unless
  - (a) the New Issuer has agreed to assume all obligations of the Issuer under the Securities;
  - (b) the Issuer or the Guarantor has unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed to the Securityholders compliance by the New Issuer with all obligations under the Securities [German Central Register Security] [and, to the extent permissible, the Guarantee is entered in the central register as main content of the right in accordance with § 13 (1) No. 1 eWpG]; [and]
  - (c) the New Issuer has obtained all governmental authorisations, approvals, consents and permissions necessary in the jurisdictions in which the New Issuer is domiciled or the country under the laws of which it is organised[.][and]
  - (d) Euroclear Sweden has given its consent to the substitution (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed).]
3. Upon any substitution of the Issuer for a New Issuer, this § 6 of the General Terms shall apply again.

In the event of manifest typing or calculation errors or similar manifest errors in the Terms and Conditions, the Issuer shall be entitled to declare rescission (Anfechtung) to the Securityholders. The declaration of rescission shall be made without undue delay upon becoming aware of any such ground for rescission (Anfechtungsgrund) and in accordance with § 7 of the General Terms. Following such rescission by the Issuer, the Securityholders may instruct the account holding bank to submit a duly completed redemption notice to the Paying Agent, either by filling in the relevant form available from the Paying Agent or by otherwise stating all information and declarations required on the form (the "Rescission Redemption Notice"), and to request repayment of the Issue Price against transfer of the Securities to the account of the Paying Agent with the Clearing System. The Issuer shall make available the Issue Price to the Paying Agent within 30 calendar days following receipt of the Rescission Redemption Notice and of the Securities by the Paying Agent, whichever receipt is later, whereupon the Paying Agent shall transfer the Issue Price to the account specified in the Rescission Redemption Notice. Upon payment of the Issue Price all rights under the Securities delivered shall expire.
2. The Issuer may combine the declaration of rescission pursuant to paragraph 1 with an offer to continue the Securities on the basis of corrected Terms and Conditions. Such an offer and the corrected provisions shall be notified to the Securityholders together with the declaration of rescission in accordance with § 7 of the General Terms. Any such offer shall be deemed to be accepted by a Securityholder and the rescission shall not take effect, unless the Securityholder requests repayment of the Issue Price within four weeks following the date on which the offer has become effective in accordance with § 7 of the General Terms by delivery of a duly completed Rescission Redemption Notice via the account holding bank to the Paying Agent and by transfer of the Securities to the account of the Paying Agent with the Clearing System pursuant to paragraph 1. The Issuer shall refer to this effect in the notification.
3. "Issue Price" within the meaning of paragraph 1 and 2 shall be deemed to be the higher of (i) the purchase price that was actually paid by the relevant Securityholder (as declared and proved by evidence in the request for repayment by the relevant Securityholder) and (ii) the weighted average (as determined by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion (billiges Ermessen) (§ 317 BGB) of the traded prices of the Securities on the Business Day preceding the declaration of rescission pursuant to paragraph 1. [Standard and Capped Warrant] [Share, ETF Share, Index, Precious Metal, Futures Contracts on index] [If a Market Disruption Event exists on the Business Day preceding the declaration of rescission pursuant to paragraph 1, the last Business Day preceding the declaration of rescission pursuant to paragraph 1 on which no Market Disruption Event existed shall be decisive for the ascertainment of price pursuant to the preceding sentence.] [Underlying Futures Contracts on commodity, bond or virtual currency] [If a Price Source

Disruption or Trading Disruption exists on the Business Day preceding the declaration of rescission pursuant to paragraph 1, the last Business Day preceding the declaration of rescission pursuant to paragraph 1 on which no Price Source Disruption or Trading Disruption existed shall be decisive for the ascertainment of price pursuant to the preceding sentence.]]

4. Contradictory or incomplete provisions in the [German Central Register Security][recorded] Terms and Conditions may be corrected or amended, as the case may be, by the Issuer in its reasonable discretion (billiges Ermessen) (§ 315 BGB). The Issuer, however, shall only be entitled to make such corrections or amendments which are reasonably acceptable to the Securityholders having regard to the interests of the Issuer and in particular which do not materially adversely affect the legal or financial situation of the Securityholders. Notice of any such correction or amendment shall be given to the Securityholders in accordance with § 7 of the General Terms.
5. If a Securityholder was aware of typing or calculation errors or similar errors at the time of the acquisition of the Securities, then, notwithstanding paragraphs 1 - 4, such Securityholder can be bound by the Issuer to the corrected Terms and Conditions.
6. Should any provision of these Terms and Conditions be or become void in whole or in part, the other provisions shall remain in force. The void provision shall be replaced by a valid provision that reflects the economic intent of the void provision as closely as possible in legal terms. In those cases, however, the Issuer may also take the steps described in paragraphs 1 - 4 above.

The Calculation Agent shall decide in its reasonable discretion (billiges Ermessen) (§ 317 BGB) whether an Adjustment Event or Extraordinary Event has occurred and whether such Adjustment Event or Extraordinary Event has a material effect on the Share or the price of the Share.
2. An Adjustment may result in:
  - (a) the replacement of the Share by another share and/or cash and/or any other compensation, in each case as stipulated with reference to the relevant Adjustment Event or Extraordinary Event (a "Replacement"), and the determination of another stock exchange as the Exchange,and/or

If the determination of the share with the highest market capitalisation would result in an economic inappropriate Adjustment, the Issuer shall be entitled to select any other share of the basket of shares to be the (replacement) Share in accordance with the foregoing sentence. The Calculation Agent shall decide in its reasonable discretion (billiges Ermessen) (§ 317 BGB) whether this is the case] [other provisions].

    - (ii) the Futures Exchange Adjustments violate the principles of good faith or would result in adjustments of the Terms and Conditions contrary to the principle to preserve, in essence, the economic profile that the Securities had prior to the occurrence of the Adjustment Event or the Extraordinary Event and to adequately take into account the economic effect thereof on the price of the Share; the Issuer shall decide in its reasonable discretion (billiges Ermessen) (§ 315 BGB) whether this is the case; or
    - (iii) in cases where no Futures Exchange Adjustment occurs but where such Futures Exchange Adjustment would be required pursuant to the adjustment rules of the Futures Exchange; in such case, the Issuer shall decide in its reasonable discretion (billiges Ermessen) (§ 315 BGB) whether a Futures Exchange Adjustment would be required. The Issuer shall make Adjustments in its reasonable discretion (billiges Ermessen) (§ 315 BGB).
  - (c) In the event of any doubts regarding the application of the Futures Exchange Adjustment or adjustment rules of the Futures Exchange or where no Futures Exchange exists, the Issuer shall make such adjustments to the Terms and Conditions which are required in its reasonable discretion (billiges Ermessen) (§ 315 BGB) to preserve, in essence, the economic profile that the Securities had prior to the occurrence of the Adjustment Event or the Extraordinary Event and to adequately take into account the economic effect thereof on the price of the Share.
- 4. Any reference made to the Share in these Terms and Conditions shall, if the context so admits, then refer to the replacement share. All related definitions shall be deemed to be amended accordingly.
  - 5. Adjustments shall take effect as from the date (the "Cut-off Date") determined by the Issuer in its reasonable discretion (billiges Ermessen) (§ 315 BGB), provided that (if the Issuer takes into consideration the manner in which adjustments are or would be made by the Futures Exchange) the Issuer shall take into consideration the date at which such adjustments take effect or would take effect at the Futures Exchange.

The Calculation Agent shall decide in its reasonable discretion (billiges Ermessen) (§ 317 BGB) whether an Extraordinary Event has occurred and whether such Extraordinary Event has a material effect on the ETF Share or the price of the ETF Share.
2. An Adjustment may result in:
  - (a) the replacement of the ETF Share by another ETF share and/or cash and/or any other compensation, in each case as stipulated with reference to the relevant Extraordinary Event (a "Replacement"), and another exchange being determined as the Exchange,

- (b) the permanent or indefinite cancellation or cessation in the provision of such Benchmark;
- (c) a regulator or other official sector entity prohibits the use of such Benchmark for the Issuer or any other entity generally or in respect of the Securities.

"Benchmarks Regulation" means the EU Benchmarks Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2016/1011, as amended by Regulation (EU) 2019/2089).

"Non-Approval Event" means, in respect of the Benchmark:

- (a) any authorisation, registration, recognition, endorsement, equivalence or approval in respect of the Benchmark or the administrator or sponsor of the Benchmark has not been or will not be obtained;
- (b) the Benchmark or the administrator or sponsor of the Benchmark has not been or will not be included in an official register; or

- (c) the Benchmark or the administrator or sponsor of the Benchmark does not or will not fulfil any legal or regulatory requirement applicable to the Securities, the Issuer or the Benchmark, in each case, as required under any applicable law or regulation in order for the Issuer or any other entity to perform its obligations in respect of the Securities. For the avoidance of doubt, a Non-Approval Event shall not occur if the Benchmark or the administrator or sponsor of the Benchmark is not or will not be included in an official register because its authorisation, registration, recognition, endorsement, equivalence or approval is suspended if, at the time of such suspension, the continued provision and use of the Benchmark is permitted in respect of the Securities under the applicable law or regulation during the period of such suspension.

"Relevant Nominating Body" means, in respect of the replacement of the Affected Benchmark:

- (a) [the central bank for the currency to which the benchmark or screen rate (as applicable) relates, or any central bank or other supervisory authority which is responsible for supervising the administrator of the benchmark or screen rate (as applicable); or
- (b) any working group or committee sponsored by, chaired or co-chaired by or constituted at the request of (i) the central bank for the currency to which the benchmark or screen rate (as applicable) relates, (ii) any central bank or other supervisory authority which is responsible for supervising the administrator of the benchmark or screen rate (as applicable), (iii) a group of the aforementioned central banks or other supervisory authorities or (iv) the Financial Stability Board or any part thereof][●].

"Rejection Event" means, in respect of the Benchmark, the relevant competent authority or other relevant official body rejects or refuses or will reject or refuse any application for authorisation, registration, recognition, endorsement, equivalence, approval or inclusion in any official register which, in each case, is required in relation to the Securities, the Benchmark or the administrator or sponsor of the Benchmark under any applicable law or regulation for the Issuer or any other entity to perform its obligations in respect of the Securities.

"Suspension/Withdrawal Event" means, in respect of the Benchmark:

- (a) the relevant competent authority or other relevant official body suspends or withdraws or will suspend or withdraw any authorisation, registration, recognition, endorsement, equivalence decision or approval in relation to the Benchmark or the administrator or sponsor of the Benchmark which is required under any applicable law or regulation in order for the Issuer or any other entity to perform its obligations in respect of the Securities; or
- (b) the Benchmark or the administrator or sponsor of the Benchmark is or will be removed from any official register where inclusion in such register is or will be required under any applicable law in order for the Issuer or any other entity to perform its obligations in respect of the Securities.
- (c) For the avoidance of doubt, a Suspension/Withdrawal Event shall not occur if such authorisation, registration, recognition, endorsement, equivalence decision or approval is or will be suspended or where inclusion in any official register is or will be withdrawn if, at the time of such suspension or withdrawal, the continued provision and use of the Benchmark is permitted in respect of the Securities under the applicable law or regulation during the period of such suspension or withdrawal.

For the avoidance of doubt, the above is additional, and without prejudice, to any other terms of the Securities. In the event that under any such terms any other consequences could apply in relation to an event or occurrence the subject of an Administrator/Benchmark Event, the Calculation Agent shall determine which terms shall apply in its reasonable discretion (billiges Ermessen) (§ 317 BGB).

Any amendments made by the Issuer pursuant to this § 5 [paragraph •] of the Product-Specific Terms shall be notified by the Issuer pursuant to § 7 of the General Terms as soon as practicable following the determination thereof. Such notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the date on which the relevant adjustments become effective.

In the case of the occurrence of an Administrator/Benchmark Event due to the Benchmarks Regulation, the provisions of this § 5 [paragraph •] of the Product-Specific Terms shall take precedent over any other provisions in these Terms and Conditions under which the Issuer may make adjustments to the Terms and Conditions due to the occurrence of the same event; the Calculation Agent shall decide in its reasonable discretion (billiges Ermessen) (§ 317 BGB) whether this is the case.

§ 6 EXTRAORDINARY TERMINATION BY THE ISSUER

1. Upon the occurrence of an Extraordinary Event, the Issuer may freely elect to terminate the Securities prematurely instead of making an Adjustment. In the case that an Adjustment would not be sufficient to preserve, in essence, the economic profile that the Securities had prior to the occurrence of the Extraordinary Event, the Issuer shall terminate the Securities prematurely; the Calculation Agent shall decide in its reasonable discretion (billiges Ermessen) (§ 317 BGB) whether this is the case.

Underlying Share

The Issuer may also freely elect to terminate the Securities prematurely in the case of a takeover-bid, i.e. an offer to take over or to swap or any other offer or any other act of an individual person or a legal entity that results in the individual person or legal entity buying, otherwise acquiring or obtaining a right to buy more than 10% of the outstanding shares of the Company as a consequence of a conversion or otherwise; all as determined by the Issuer based on notifications to the competent authorities or on other information determined as relevant by the Issuer.

Underlying Index

The Issuer may also freely elect to terminate the Securities prematurely in the case of an Index Modification in accordance with § 5 paragraph 9 of the Product-Specific Terms.

All Underlyings

- [•]. [If the Issuer and/or its Affiliates are, even following economically reasonable efforts, not in the position (i) to enter, re-enter, replace, maintain, liquidate, acquire or dispose of any Hedging Transactions or (ii) to realize, regain or transfer the proceeds resulting from such Hedging Transactions (the "Hedging Disruption"), the Calculation Agent may freely elect to terminate the Securities prematurely. The Calculation Agent shall decide in its reasonable discretion (billiges Ermessen) (§ 317 BGB) whether a Hedging Disruption has occurred.]

[The Issuer may also freely elect to terminate the Securities prematurely if (i) due to the adoption of or any change in any applicable law or regulation (including any tax law) or (ii) due to the promulgation of or any change in the interpretation by any competent court, tribunal or regulatory authority (including any tax authority) that (a) it has become illegal to hold, acquire or dispose of [Share][any Shares] [ETF Share][any ETF Shares] [Index][any index components] [Precious Metal][the Precious Metal] [Futures Contract][the Futures Contract] [Currency Exchange Rate][one of the currencies underlying the Currency Exchange Rate] or (b) it will incur materially increased costs in performing the Issuer's obligation under the Securities (including due to any increase in tax liability, decrease in tax benefit or other adverse effect on its tax position) (the "Change in Law"). The Calculation Agent shall decide in its reasonable discretion (billiges Ermessen) (§ 317 BGB) whether a Change in Law has occurred.]

- [•]. If the Issuer has not made any adjustments in its reasonable discretion (billiges Ermessen) (§ 315 BGB) pursuant to § 5 paragraph [•] of the Product-Specific Terms due to the occurrence of an Administrator/Benchmark Event, the Issuer may, but is not obliged to, terminate extraordinarily the Securities.

- [•]. Any extraordinary termination of the Securities shall be notified by the Issuer in accordance with § 7 of the General Terms within [number] Business Days following the occurrence of the relevant event (the "Extraordinary Termination Notice"). The Extraordinary Termination Notice shall designate a Business Day as per which the extraordinary termination shall become effective (the "Extraordinary Termination Date") in accordance with the following provisions. Such Extraordinary Termination Date shall be not later than [number] Payment Business Days following the publication of the Extraordinary Termination Notice.
- [•]. If the Securities are called for redemption, they shall be redeemed at an amount per Security that is equivalent to their fair market value minus any expenses actually incurred by the Issuer under transactions that were required for winding up the Hedging Transactions (the "Extraordinary Termination Amount"). The Calculation Agent shall calculate the Extraordinary Termination Amount in its reasonable discretion (billiges Ermessen) (§ 317 BGB) by taking into account prevailing market conditions[ and any proceeds realised by the Issuer and/or any of its affiliates (within the meaning of § 271 paragraph 2 German Commercial Code (Handelsgesetzbuch, HGB), the "Affiliates") in connection with transactions or investments concluded by it in its reasonable commercial discretion (vernünftiges kaufmännisches Ermessen) for hedging purposes in relation to the assumption and fulfilment of its obligations under the Securities (the "Hedging Transactions")] [other provisions].
- [•]. The Issuer shall pay the Extraordinary Termination Amount to the Securityholders not later than on the [ordinal number] Payment Business Day following the Extraordinary Termination Date.

Redemption:	Standard Warrants Standard Warrants grant the investor the right to receive the payment of a Redemption Amount. The Redemption Amount of a Standard CALL Warrant shall be equal to (i) the amount by which the Reference Price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date exceeds the Strike multiplied by (ii) the Ratio[, whereby the result of such calculation shall be converted into the Issue Currency]. The Redemption Amount of a Standard PUT Warrant shall be equal to (i) the amount by which the Reference Price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date is exceeded by the Strike multiplied by (ii) the Ratio[, whereby the result of such calculation shall be converted into the Issue Currency]. [American exercise][If the investor has not exercised the Option Right until the end of the Exercise Period, the so-called automatic exercise will take effect and the Redemption Amount will be calculated as described above [Underlying Index and Final Settlement Price][, however, the calculation is not based on the Reference Price of the

The Redemption Amount of a Capped PUT Warrant shall be equal to (i) the amount by which the Reference Price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date is exceeded by the Strike multiplied by (ii) the Ratio[, whereby the result of such calculation shall be converted into the Issue Currency]. However, the Redemption Amount is limited (capped), so that a price development of the Underlying beyond the Cap (in the case of CALL Warrant) or under the Cap (in the case of PUT Warrants) does not lead to an increase in the Redemption Amount. Instead, a Maximum Amount is paid. The Securities are exercised automatically on the Exercise Date.
	Inline Warrants
	Inline Warrants grant the investor the right to receive the payment of a predetermined Redemption Amount that will be paid if the price of the Underlying during the Monitoring Period stays within a certain Range. A Knock-out Event occurs if during the Monitoring Period the price of the Underlying has at least once been outside the Range. The Securities are exercised automatically on the Exercise Date. The Exercise Date in respect of each series of Securities is the last day of the Monitoring Period.
	StayHigh Warrants
	StayHigh Warrants grant the investor the right to receive the payment of a predetermined Redemption Amount that will be paid if the price of the Underlying during the Monitoring Period stays above the Barrier. If a Knock-out Event occurs, the StayHigh Warrants will expire worthless prior to the end of their term.
